We have received a catalogue of this excellent Institution.

The spring term commences on the 1st of February, 1873.

This College is well and conveniently located in a healthy and refined section, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad.

Our County Commissioners have employed several efficient nurses for the small pox sufferers in this county.

The "American Farmer Advocate," has been received. It contains good wholesome matter and should be read by every farmer.

Clifton is the place to get good eating. The celebrated Jackson Yarboro can "serve up" a turkey so nice that a fellow, after partaking of it, is inclined to gobble for two or three days.

Wood's Magazine for January is full of excellent reading and should have a place in every family.

We learn that there have been seven deaths from small pox at the residence of Mr. Reuben Rogers, up to this time.

In Franklinton on last Wednesday a gentleman of the "colored persuasion" became insolent in a gentleman's office and was put out.

A beautiful portrait of Mrs. Martha Washington (plain), or Empress Josephine in rich beautiful colors to each new subscriber to the Courier.
