the others would consent to work .--The slaves, however, are having their revenge. Late Havana papers give the names of seventgen large sugar estates in the jurisdiction of Union and Los Palos alone, on the Havana and Matanzas Railroad, which have been set on fire, as the Spaniards themselves confess, by incendiaries. Other fires are reported on sugar estates further north, in the jurisdiction of Jaruco, lying between Havana and Matanzas. The losses so far as reported are estimated by competent judges at not less than one million dollars.

It is much to be hoped, in the interests of humanity, that these dreadful scenes will before long be ended fo:ever. We almost wish the United States would take the whole matter of Cuba in hand and cut that tangled Gordian skein by one blow of the sword. Cubs would be a rich prize for any people who had sense , enough to devolope and husband her magnificent resources, and sufficient deference to humanity, law and authority, to mainthin an establishment of gevernment, under which just ce would be administered to all classes fairly, and life and property might be made secure. I seems uscless to expect such a result from Spain or from the Cubans themmelves; and hence we are, as stated, half tempted to wish that the United States Government would take a hand and end the bloody, disgraceful trouble.-Petersburg Appeal.

Despotism.

There is no worse despotism than that which the South has endured for .icht years Gen. Fchofield, when in c pmand, threatened to suppress the Progress sdited by John Pennington, a loyal radica'. Holden when Governor threa ened to arrest the editors of the Milton "Chronicle, and suppr as their paper. The editors of this pa; er in 1869 were th:eatened by the 'S andard' with the juil and it epoke by the au t o ity of, Goy. Holden. The edito: uf the Wilmington .! Journal' is indicied we be'i we for calling Judge Bond a rascal. If Maj. Englehard cannot prove it by witnesses from Baltimore, then the Judge is greatly scandalized by his neighbors who know him best.

They come with all known vehicles, old wagons painted red, and new wagons painted blue; carts made, of an axle tree and two wheels, and carts with two planks and a sheep skin for a body, carts with shafts, and carts with tongues; dixies with a place for "just two bags" behind the seat. and broken back buggies, for "one more bag" in the foot.

They come with all kinds of harness. Collars of leathers, collars of bark, and collars of shuck ; reins of leather, reins of rope, and reins of grape vine ; bridles with blind, bridles without, bidles of string, bridles with bits, and bridles of rope tied under the

They come with all reasons ; because they have been promised, because they "are here," because "John Smith got his'n" and because they must have it. They will ask "when do you think it will come?" and when in despair you say " next week" they come before breakfast Monday morning to claim your promise. They cannot be evaded. If you go to your neighbor's store to hide, they come there and ask to " see you a minnit," if you go to your home they send up notes of inquiry;

if you will not reply, they come them: selves, to the gate, and while your dinner and your bare head are getting cold, converse with you ples antly and pertinaciously about the prospect . of its "getting here to-day." They consider you omnipotent, they not only expect you to deliver it here, but expect you to build a private Railroad to get it to the depot. A . i

My mind, unlike vegetation, is made barren with Guano, and holds no other in pression.

My dreams are full of Peru and Phosphates, and I wake to a conscious: ness of contracts to deliver. Even Sabbath worship is interrupted by seeing a man in church who wants five tons Tuesday, and my meals are taken in silent calculations of how far a car load will go with fifteen farmers and how long they will wait for the balance.

The Register contains in all the names of about six thousand nine hundred men, including those of all the Revolutionary celebrities, and makes a proud old record.

In glancing over the names, this writer was gratified to learn that he was not the first " Rebel" of the name. for he fo nd Simon Spellman, a private in Bradley's Company of the 10th regiment, in "for the war." We have reason to believe, too, that Jacob and Aaron Spelmore privates in the same regiment are of the same stock and that their name has been corrupted in the copying at some time. We were pleased to find, too, that some of these three deser'ed, but stuck it out to the end of their terms of enlistment. Indeed the whole list shows few desert-We propose to look into this record again and produce something to keep green in the memory of man who should never be lost sight of .- Raleigh Sen tinel of the 29th.

A Civil Rights bill has been passed by the Mississippi Legislature and the result is a system of mixing and sandwiching of blacks and whites in barbershops, hotels, railrood cars, churches, &c., that white people of ordinary tastes cannot appreciate as the ne plus ultra of social progress and excellence. A hotel keeper of Jackson, Miss., knowing the usual impecuniosity of our African friends, has, in order to exclude negroes from his house, adopted the following rates, which he can modify in the case of white guests without a violation of the law :

The board per month is two hun dred and fifty dollars; per week, seventy-five dollars ; per day, ten dollars ; single meal, fifty cents ; ham and eggs, fifty cepts ; oysters, per dozen, two dollars and fifty cents, Everything else in proportion. No discount-cash in advance.-Ex.

MR. EDIT R :- I was much pleased with your idea of the ways and means of building up a Town; I heartily concur with you in every word you say about it. But there are several interes's which already exists in our Town, that should be carefully looked after. of which the Literary interest is a very important one. The Spiritual condition of the diff rent churches as well as the Financial, I claim to be an eye witness to the fact that all this is attended Now Sir, let the moral state of socie-

Col. Stephen Lee, of Asheville, sent seven sons to the Confederate army three of whom gave their lives for the sause of Constitutional liberty. Another son (Capt. W. F. Lee) lost his arm at Chancellorsville. The old gentleman, though over six y at the outbreak of the war, volunte red himself and Lecame colonel of a reg mont. He discharged his arduous du ivs well and fsithfully, until his health broke down utterly, when he became a member of the Home Guards, and remained in service till Grantism was inaugurated at Appomattox Court House. The veteran is the father of Col. Charles Ler, whore memory is precious in North Carolins, and the uncle of Gan. Stephen D. Lynchburg News. A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT. - The fol lowing was recently uttered by Judge John L. T. Sneed, of a Western court : "The idea that the judicial officer is supposed to be yested with ermine. though, fabulous and mythical, is yet more eloquent in its significance. We are told that the little creature called ermine is so sensitive to its own cleatliness that it becomes paralyzed and powerless at the slightest touch of defilement upon its snow-white fur. -When the bunters are pursuing it, they spread with mire the pass-which leads to its haunts, towards which they then draw it, knowing that it will submit to be captured rather han defi e itself .-And a like sensibility should belong to him who comes to exercise the august functions of judge." "Excuse this bit of sarcasm." said Smith to Jones, ' but I must say that you are an infamous liar and scoundrel.,
