For Home Folks.

We see it stated in the Raleigh News that Col Jordan F. Jones the enterprising proprietor of the Store and Mills on Sandy Creek, at Laurel in this county, has recently been to Fayetteville to examine the Cotton Factories in the vicinity of that town with a view of erecting one at his Mills. This is a move in the right direction, and all who know Col. Jones are satisfied that what he undertakes always meets with success. We are glad that he is about to inaugurate this movement, and hope as we have not the least doubt, will be the case that his Cotton Factory will soon be in operation, giving employment to a large number of hands, and working up the fine cotton that's made in this County at home. Nothing adds more to the real wealth of a community than manufactures, where they exist we invariably find a shift, industries and contented population. Much is said about immigration. Many societies are formed to promote the removal of foreigners into our midst. Immense quantities of very thin gas have been expended in deriving means to build up our waste places by inducing others to come and do the work that should be done by ourselves. We have seen it stated somewhere that, "He who would be free, must himself strike the blow." This is true, and we lay it down as an axiom equally true, that he who would be prosperous must himself do the work. We are not disposed to discourage the immigration movements, but on the contrary we are always glad when persons from abroad come to make their homes in our midst, and extend to all such a cordial welcome, and hope them much prosperity and happiness. We however, do think that if our people would quit wishing for others to come in and build up the Country, and themselves proceed at once, with determined will and strong arms that our waste places would soon be made to blossom, and an era of prosperity would dawn upon us that the most sanguine had not dreamed of.

We commend Col. Jones example to our men of property, and capital. We have some among us. Let them so use it that they may receive large incomes therefrom, and also help others.

FOR THE COURIER.

MR. EDITOR:—In 1840-50, the writer was a Semi-missionary in the counties of Glynn, Wayne, Camden and Appling, Ga. There was no Baptist preacher nearer to him than Darien. What better could he do than, than make love to the Methodist circuit-riding, a whole souled fellow, Bro. Hall? And this he did. I know it is not strictly orthodox to say that the Baptist missionary and the Methodist circuit-riding, co-operated. But sir, do you try a new country with so associate of your own faith; and if you are not as sure as a cran-apple, you will welcome any good christian minister to your congregation. Bro. H., was worthy of the love I gave him. But to my story: I was telling him how I fared in a region of Wayne county, called Pin Holloway—how they were making me fat on huckleberries and venison, with an occasional sweet potato.

"Man," said he, "let me tell you—Whenever I got back from that region my wife would say that the folks out there must live high, I was getting so fat. Well, I said on one occasion, if you will go with me on my next round of appointments, I will show you why I improve so. They do treat me well out there."

family. Every convenience of the household was placed at their disposal. But dinner time came at about 3 o'clock and pretty soon after came dinner itself. This consisted of a soup-dish of corn, bread and a basin of dried venison. Sister H. (being a lady) took on her plate a "quantum sufficit" of each article. But being very delicate, made but little progress in the matter of eating. This being observed by Bro. G., he inquired uncessantly, why sister H. could not eat. And not receiving satisfactory answers to this question, frequently propounded, he at last said to his wife, "Why Jane, what is that lightning bread we had to-day? Papa sister H. could eat that?" At that little Sam, their eldest boy, exclaimed, "Oh, pap, that is a hunk of it on the fire up there;" and getting a ladder he instantly brought down a mouldy "hunk," which Bro. G. threw at Sister H., remarking as he did so, "Now Sister H. I reckon you can eat a little."

Solomon Pool Denounced at Home-Meeting at Chapel Hill.

At a meeting of citizens of Chapel Hill and vicinity on the 16th inst., the following proceedings were had:—Andrew Mickle, Esqr., being called to the Chair explained the object of the meeting to be to consider what action ought to be taken on the part of the citizens of this place in regard to a scurrilous, libellous and slanderous letter written and published by the Rev. Solomon Pool, President of the University of North Carolina, in reference to Mrs. Cornelia Phillips Spencer of this place.

H. C. Andrews Esq. was appointed Secretary.

On motion, the chair appointed the following named gentlemen as a Committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting:

Wm. Strain, Matthew McCauley, Sen., John Hutchins, Sen., H. E. Clayton, and J. M. Alexander, who after retiring for a short time, returned and reported the following preamble and resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Rev. Solomon Pool, President of the University of North Carolina, a resident of this place, has written and published a letter grossly insulting to Mrs. Cornelia Phillips Spencer, also a resident of this place; and whereas, we feel it to be a duty we owe to ourselves to remove from us any part of the disgrace that might otherwise rest upon us as members of the same community; by reason of the infamous and cowardly conduct of the said Solomon Pool, we do hereby Resolve 1. That the letter of the said Solomon Pool, President of the University of North Carolina so-called, so wantonly insulting Mrs. Cornelia Phillips Spencer, was mean, malicious, cowardly and intemperate.

2. That we take this occasion to renew to Mrs. Spencer the assurance of the countenance of our profoundest esteem and respect, and to say to her that we have taken action in the matter not because we felt that anything was necessary to make the insult of Pool fall harmless and stingless at her feet, but because we wished to throw off from ourselves the slightest portion of the disgrace that might attach to us as members of the same community with a creature so devoid of every instinct of true manhood, as to be capable of wantonly and maliciously insulting a woman, at once an honor to her sex and to her State.

3. That all the papers in the State be requested to publish the proceeding of this meeting, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mrs. Spencer.

On motion, the meeting adjourned. ANDREW MICKLE, Chairman. H. C. ANDREWS, Secretary.

district, being located in different parts of the city, but both under the management of the same Board of Trustees. 1. The North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, is purely an Educational Institution, and not an Asylum: As deafness and blindness are generally conceded to be incurable, we do not receive applicants, to be treated, but to be educated. 2. Pupils from this State are admitted to all the privileges of the Institution, upon compliance with the rules, free of charge; being provided with board, washing, fuel, tuition, books, medical attention, and everything necessary, except clothing and traveling expenses. 3. Each pupil should come with sufficient clothing to last one year, or it must be sent when needed, or the money furnished to purchase it. They should also have a good trunk, large enough to contain all their clothing, each article of which should be distinctly marked with their names. A list of all clothing furnished pupils should be sent to the Principal when the pupil enters. 4. The session commences on the first Monday in September, and closes the latter part of June. All pupils are expected to come promptly at the first of the session. Only a certain number can be accommodated, therefore it is important that the Principal know before the commencement of the session the name, age, residence, &c., of those who propose to enter.

JOHN NICHOLS, Principal.
