ORIGINAL STORY.

FLOATING HEARTS OR THE Mystery of Glenburnne.

CHAPTER II. "Tom Moore is insufferable," said Tule, when they had reached their room...

"Do you think so?" said Annie; I like him. "But heridicules sentiment with such vehemence, I think he and Nita would make a splendid match...

"If any disclosures are to be made," said Annie, "I shall be before parties concerned, it is only some of Tule's nonsense, you know she is constantly raising some ones curiosity, and relying upon our good nature not to betray..."

"Well, you are mistaken, I have talked right pretty to Miss Waters." "As you can see to most any of them hey! Raymond," said Tremont, probably thinking of Raymond's attentions to his sister...

MY DEAR MISS: Every time I think of you my heart flaps up and down like a churn-dasher. Sensations of unutterable joy caper over it like young goats on a stable roof...

Changes of a Century. The nineteenth century has witnessed many and great discoveries. In 1808 Fulton took out the first patent for the invention of a steamboat...
