THE FRANKLIN COURIER.

GEO. S. BAKER, Editor and Proprietor,

TERMS: $2.00 per Annum.

VOL. III.

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1874.

NO. 35.

School "Called."

Don't you hear the children coming, Coming into school? Don't you hear the master drumming. On the window with his rule? Master drumming, children coming Into school.

Tip-toe figures reach the catch. Tiny fingers click the latch : Curly-headed girls throng in, Lily-free from toil and sin: Breezy boys bolt in together, Bringing breaths of winter weather, Bringing baskets Indian-checked, Dinners in them sadly wrecked. Ruddy-handed, mittens off, Soldiers rush from the Malakoff-Built of snow and marble-white, Bastions shining in the light, Marked with many a dint and dot Of the ice-cold cannon shot! Hear the last assaulting shout See the gunners rally out-Charge upon the battered door-School is called, and battle o'er!

AUNT CHARLOTTE'S YARN.

"Now, Ida, my dear girl, take my advice," said Aunt Charlotte to her giddy young niece, "and don't imperil your future happiness nor be guilty of injustice by slighting the man to whom you have given your troth, or by foolishly tessing him in order to test his af-one I liked best was Harry Vane. From gallant, and though I sometimes pretended to be, and sometimes really was, jealous of him or otherwise offended, and he the same with regard to me, we always made up again and were better friends than ever. There was not really any engagement between us, list of beaux in the form of a dashing us over the premises. young fellow, an Englishman, sent out by a wealthy firm of the mother counmaking our town his home during the

"He had a good deal of leisure, and withal very distinguished in appear- Just as our voices were ringing out ance; so no wonder the girls of our set wished to attract his attention, and were envious of me. Of course I was proud of my conquest, and perhaps The rapids are near and the daylight carried myself a little haughtily in connated by the prepossessing stranger.

not a little, and my empty head was of boating on those shallow lakes. compliments. He raved about my eyes discovered the cause of the suddenly of heavenly blue, the golden glory of rising wind. A heavy pale of black my mermaid locks, my swan-like neck, clouds coming up behind us in the and an endless flow of bathos that northwest were spreading themselves ought to have disgusted me, but did along the northern horizon and extendnot; and so I listened and he ranted. ing upward almost to the zenith; and almost to the zenith; and almost to the zenith; and at the same time we began to hear the air easily finds its way into the house. drive out to Rice Lake Plains and spend play, though not very near. The the day in boating on the lake, gather- weather-wise ones of our party said the ing huckleberries, wild flowers, etc., shower was spending itself north of us, and generally amusing ourselves.

regular chain of small lakes extending troublesome. to the eastern end of Lake Superior. landing adjoining, which was our camp, Rice Lake is the first of the chain count- keeping close in shore to avoid the ing from Ontario, and it lies at a dis- commotion of the water. tance of from two to three hours' drive from several small towns on the frontier. We had an early breakfast, and set off at eight o'clock, so that we need not be on the road during the heat of the day. occasion, and by my side sat the all-conquering Mr. Bowns. but was mounted on herseback, and he perilous. rode gayly by the side of first one vehicle, then another. When we had George Law were by no means masters gone a little distance out of town the of the situation; and oh, how I longed country air, sights and sounds were so for the tried and trusty arm of Harry exhilarating that we in our carriage Vane to steer our giddy little skiff. began to sing. Harry, hearing us, rode Just then Harry, who was ahead, called Harry sang bravely, but when we came to the refrain suddenly his horse bolted and he rode off, catching at his hat but keeping within the vicinity of the camp until the horn sounded for din- what with sudden consternation at being ner. We were all, as is usual at pic- spoken to in such a tone and manner, I grass for awhile, then formed plans for in the blinding waters. the afternoon's campaign. There were near by several canoes or row-boats that were kept for hire, and a fair proportion of our band decided in favor of band came down on mine, and though an excursion on the lake, some parties he afterward said that he tried to lay going in one direction, some in another. | hold of me to assist me, I know that he all, determined to pay a visit to the have upset the boat, and just as true he tower on the opposite shore of the lake, and about three miles farther up. As we divided ourselves into parties of four, I felt an irrepressible desire to have Harry Vane, who had declared for the divided ourselves into parties of four, I felt an irrepressible desire to have Harry Vane, who had declared for the divided ourselves into parties of the boat, and just as true he flung me off to perish. As I sank again, even through the gurgling in my ears, I heard the voice of Harry Vane, "Courage, Charlotte, I'm coming."

staircase leading from base to summit. ed-not to suffer. At the top was an observatory not much larger than a good-sized bird-cage, and I found myself on a bed in the logwhich had once been furnished with a cabin of the man who kept the boats on ishly teasing him in order to test his affections. There is a story in my own memory that I have never told you; and I could not now bring myself to do so only that I see you do not like me to lecture you, and I wish you to learn wisdom by an easier method than that of bitter experience.

"When I was a young girl we lived."

When I was a young girl we lived.

Which had once been furnished with a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduced to a very commonplace spy-glass. The basement was a deep, dungeon-like hole, with a grated door through which one entered a subterranean passage leading out to the shore of the lake. This tower, with its lean-to kitchen or, rather, cook-house, "Suddenly I remembered something that I was night, for candles were burning. Some of my companions of the picnic were there, but I was too ill and weary to ask questions.

"When next I opened my eyes it was bore of the lake. This tower, with its lean-to kitchen or, rather, cook-house, "Suddenly I remembered something that I have never to the picnic were there, but I was now reduced to a very commonplant to the picnic were there, but I was now reduced to a very commonplant to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduced to a very commonplant to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduced to a very commonplant to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduced to a very commonplant to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was night, for candles were burning. Some of my companions of the picnic were there, but I was now reduced to a very commonplant to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduced to a very commonplant to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduced to a very common the picnic were there, but I was now reduced to a very common to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduced to a very common to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduced to a very common to a small telescope mounted on a swivel, but was now reduc "When I was a young girl we lived, was built on a hill at the distance of of the drowning and cried out, 'Where as you know, in Canada, in one of the about two hundred yards from the wa- is Harry? He said he was coming.' small lake-shore towns between Toronto and Kingston. Your grandfather was a quixotic Englishman, an old bachelor's suppose administered a narcotic, for I man of note in the town, and I was a fancy. The whimsical man did not have only a faint recollection of lying good deal sought after. I was giddy, carry out his original intention of mak- on a bed in a covered conveyance and too, and selfish, though I did not then ing a complete miniature castle of the of being annoyed by the jolting. consider myself so. I had many ad- feudal times, but suddenly abandoned "The next time I awoke my mind mirers and suitors, among whom the the enterprise and went as he came, was clear, I recollected all, and begged nobody knew whither. This odd little to be told how I was saved. My friends my very infancy Harry had been my tower had been surrounded on all sides, evaded this question, and my suspicions save the deep bank next the water, by being aroused, I demanded to see Harry a diminutive moat, which was now a Vane. Finding they could no longer dry ditch filled with weeds and wild put me off, they told me that Harry flowers; there, too, was the wreck of a rescued me and swam with me toward toy-like drawbridge, and within the en- | the islet, where one of the boats had closure were several quaint-looking just landed. Another gentleman waded garden-chairs cut into the stumps of out breast high to meet him, and drew though Harry had asked me to form trees. There was a family residing in me to the shore, supposing that Harry one; but my parents objected to long the house, at least they made it an oc- was following. But Harry did not engagements, and we were not ready to casional residence during the summer, follow, and in the excitement about marry. Matters stood thus when, early but that day they were absent, and the me he was not missed until too late.

tern through the underground passage | get : Harry Vane was drowned in savtry for the purpose of establishing an to the opening on the lake; we climbed ing my life. This also I know: I shall agency in their line of business. His the steep stairs and peeped through the live and die Charlotte Kemp. As for headquarters had been in Montreal, old spy-glass; sat in the grotesque Bowns, I hated then, I hate still, the but he now announced his intention of chairs, and gathered bouquets from the sound of his name. He left our town quondam moat. All these vagaries con- almost immediately after the occurrence sumed so much time that, before we and I never saw his face after the day were aware, the sun was going down of the picnic." spent no inconsiderable part of it at the westward slope in a way that, when our house, or in promenading the we noticed it, sent us to our boats with streets with me. I could scarcely set speed. We were soon gliding over the my feet on the sidewalks without en- water in jovial spirits and at a fair rate countering him. His name was Bowns, of motion toward the camping place on new text for its advocacy of good drainand he claimed to be of aristocratic parentage. He was handsome and parentage. He was handsome and worthy to the authority to perform the business in the evening, and came home business in the evening and came ho parentage. He was handsome and kept near together, and as we went we affable, though rather supercilious, sang Tom Moore's Canadian boat song. The Journal says: "Much sympathy sequence. For some time Harry pouted, a sudden breeze almost took the light then openly remonstrated, even plead- umbrella with which I was screening ed; but as I angrily asserted my inde- myself and companion from sun and pendence, he finally desisted from all wind (we had left our bonnets at the whenever we met he treated me with subsided for a moment, then came again indifferent courtesy, and altogether more vigorously than before, and held showed a manly self-command which I on steadily. Generally or frequently a did not fail to note and admire. Still I stiff breeze rises on those lakes about must confess that at that time I gave or soon after sunset, but now the sun very little thought to Harry or to any was certainly half an hour high. Sudof my old admirers; it seems wonder- den squalls, especially when thunder ful to me how completely I was fasci- clouds are hovering near, accompanied "To be sure he flattered my vanity are unpleasantly often the concomitants

" 'Row, brothers, row, for the stream runs

but we might get a sprinkling from its transversely from the Bay of Quinte, "Meanwhile we had crossed the lake near the eastern end of Lake Ontario, and were making our way down to the

"There is a peculiarity in that lake. in which I rode was a handsome ba- when it is ripe, paddle round and gather rouche hired from a livery stable for the it into their canoes. This, however, makes navigation to ordinary rowers rather difficult; and where the basin is particularly fond of singing. Shortly way out in the lake; on one side of we struck off into an old ditty which he which there was not much rice, and

"The rowers turned the boat toward. the islet and pushed out vigorously, I with one hand and seeming to draw meantime holding the umbrella low rein with the other. The remainder of like a tent or awning over my own and the party thought his horse had shied Nellie Morton's heads, for now it was and run away with him, but I saw thor- raining. Again Harry called to us to oughly the whole manœuvre, and a sud- shut down the umbrella, lest it should den pang shot through my selfish catch the wind and upset our skiff, and

"What with a sense of danger, and nics, in a hungry mood, and we did not dine mincingly.

"After dinner we lolled about on the ance, and the next instant I was sinking

Three boat loads, twelve individuals in dislodged my hand. True, I should the tower, in our boat, so I called out: I ceased to struggle and the pain of "'Harry, are you coming with us?' suffocation was gone. I knew that I was meaning by us, Bowns and myself.

"I shall never forget the look of life flashed before me. I had no terror mingled pain and pleasure with which he replied: 'No, Charlotte; George Law is quartered in your boat.' of death, but I longed to ask Harry's pardon. Bowns I seemed to have forgotten. The tall rice was all about me, "It was half-past three o'clock when and I knew no more until a deadly we entered near the tower and drew the sickness and great pain woke me to boats up on the beach. This tower consciousness. Was it the gurgling was an octagon building three or four water or human speech that rumbled stories in height, consisting of only one | in my ears? I did not know, I did not room to each story, with a narrow spiral care; I only wished not to be disturb-one spring, we had an addition to our garrulous old servant in charge showed Whether he was exhausted or whether he took a cramp no one could tell. "We stole down by the light of a lan- This only I know and never shall for-

Typhoid Fever.

The British Medical Journal finds a is felt in London society at the outbreak of typhoid fever in Lord Cadoson. The conditions under which it with consent of the church, their field tors at Londesborough Lodge, of whom sacrament with any other religious deapparent notice of the matter; and camp) out of my hand. The breeze ferers. There are six children in the by an officer of the civil law as valid; where three of them were seized with they prefer to suffer the penalties rather typhoid fever within a few days of each other. Lord Chelsea, who had a severe attack, is progressing favorably. by dangerous disturbance of the water, children are doing well. Tracing the churches are at liberty to observe this cause of the outbreak, it appears that ordinance six times during the year, or the house has the characteristic sanitary only once, as they may elect. Industry turned by his lavish, adulatory style of "Looking around the horizon we defects of so many of our town and country houses. The closets, situated in the center of the house, enter on the bedroom landings; the soil-pipes are them if able-bodied. not ventilated, and, as there are someup among our set a pienic party to thunder mutter and see the lightning The wastes-pipes of the water cisterns at the time were echoed by a thousand tongues, have passed unheeded."

Superficial Acquirements. A writer says : "The boy or girl who The wild rice, from which it takes its can give the name of every river and name, grows over almost the entire the height of every mountain in Asia, bottom of the basin, and when at its the age of every reigning sovereign in tallest the grain lies floating on the Europe, the date of every battle in There were several carriages; the one surface of the water, and the Indians, America, can hardly be as well off for all this burdensome knowledge as one who knows the elements of human physiology and anatomy, who is taught more of the knowledge useful in after "For some unexplained reason Harry particularly shallow or when the waters life, and can tell how to help himself or Vace did not go in any of the carriages, are agitated by storms the passage is another in case of accident or emergency. The boy who is to go into ac-"I soon perceived that Bowns and tive life and the girl who is to become leorge Law were by no means masters head of a household, will have little occasion and less opportunity to use the greater part of the 'crammed' lessons so industriously accumulated during their school years. A fair knowlup and joined in the song, he being out to us to make for an islet, a little edge of the rules that are at the bottom of all healthful activity, a general acaquaintance with anatomy and a welland I had sung together countless times | which had been used by the Indians as | grounded taste for natural sciences, when we stood each first in the esteem a landing-place, as it sloped gradually will all grow into and become part of of the other and no gay stranger had into the water; he said we had better their daily lives, and such things are come between us. For a stanza or two land there and wait for the squall to far less likely to make pretentious men

THE DUNKERS.

A Peculiar Set of People.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican gives some particulars about the German Baptists known as the Dunkers, who have been holding their annual national conference: "They teach the doctrine of general redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, and hold that man is a free moral agent.

They also believe in the doctrine of incompany to the doctrine of the California, where probably not less than 1,000,000 trees are planthed. In San Francisco, in front of handsome residences, you will find it with its magnificent drooping branches making an effective and graceful shade tree. In Oakland the broad avenues are planthed in the country surrounding their than 1,000,000 trees are planthed. In San Francisco, in front of handsome residences, you will find it with its magnificent drooping branches of rendering as quiet as a lamb the power of rendering as quiet as a lamb the most stubborn and unmanageable horse that ever existed. Whether they did in California, where probably not less than 1,000,000 trees are planthed. In San Francisco, in front of handsome residences, you will find it with its family heirloom, among a branch of the O'Sullivans in the South of the Holding their than 1,000,000 trees are plant
I was also believe in the doctrine of the O'Sullivans in the South of the O'Sullivans in the South of the O'Sullivans in the South of the Holding their than 1,000,000 trees are plant
I was also believe in the doctrine of the O'Sulliva A correspondent of the St. Louis Re-They also believe in the doctrine of in- are planted in the country surrounding anything more to a horse than breathe They also believe in the doctrine of infant salvation, but their leading bishops have not decided at what time in life accountability begins. They believe that Christian regeneration will exhibit itself externally, and hence on becoming members of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the nounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the country surrounding anything more to a horse than breathe into his nostrils we know not, but by doing this, and by kind, soothing, and other ways known to themselves, they effected their purpose and retained their fame. Putting the question of drugs or stimulants or other fascing means aside, and coming to the church they renounce the pomps are come, the maddest of the year.

A tune holds good until an organ of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the church they renounce the pomps and vanities of the country surrounding anything more to a horse than breathe into his nostrils we know not, but by doing this, and by kind, soothing, and other ways known to themselves, they doing this, and by kind, soothing, and other ways known to themselves, they are completely anything the church they are completely anything the church they are completely a nounce the pomps and vanities of the world, manifesting their belief by plainness and uniformity of dress, both men | flourishes in low, marshy, and feverish and women; hence in all the assembly districts all miasma will cease. It denone of the sisters exhibited any stroys the malarial element in any at- so much success in animal teaching as mosphere where it grows, and is a great stead are attired in plain modest colors, absorbant of moisture, draining the shoemaker. He was born in Scotland. many of them in calico, and all, both gotten. The tall rice was all about me, and I knew no more until a deadly they remove while in church, each one having on her head a plain cap of Swiss muslin, made after the style of our great-grandmothers. The men wear the style of dress usually adopted by the Quakers, and in meeting a brother salute by shaking the hand and giving degrees Fahrenheit. Whether it will degrees Fahrenheit. Whether it will count of a remarkable horse shown at A sewing machine agent was shot

Any member found guilty of this subjects himself to discipline of the church. Preach temperance in everything, and prohibit their members from dealing in pers, on the plea that it has a tendency | white flower, having no odor. to lead their minds astray on religious matters. Their annual conference is held alternately east and west of the Ohio river, beginning on Pentecost day, which is the seventh Sunday from Easter. The principal churches of this denomination are located in the States of Pennsylvania, Virginia, North Carolina, Ohio, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Idaho, California, Iowa, Arkansas, Kansas, Oregen, Colorado, and Missouri, with a scattering membership in the extreme Southern and New England States, but no church organizations, the largest body being in Miami Valley, Ohio. As to the number of membership, it and bear it.'

is impossible to give anything more than an approximate estimate, they but just let me meet him! I'll show holding the doctrine that the Scripture | him how to run a paper." forbids the numbering of the brethern. Their ministry is divided into three classes, the first being teachers or ex. how it is: I often went up to Spring. milk, which to this end is conducted marriage rites, and eventually to the on the first morning train. Well, one office of bishop, by the lying on of night I met an old crony and we went wooden reservoirs lined with zinc, and There are many devices for keeping off gan's family, and the circumstances are accept what the brethern voluntarily we came out we met some friends.

They receive no salary, but to Music Hall to the theatre. When located in the cellar. Here a careful the "striped bug," but some simple examination is made with the lacnot without an important public les- bestow, and are at liberty to select, They took us to their rooms. Of course tometer, and the fluid is drawn off into son. The conditions under which it occurred resemble in a remarkable degree those which gave rise to the outbreak of typhoid fever among the visible are not permitted to partake of the conditions under which it occurred resemble in a remarkable degree those which gave rise to the outbreak of typhoid fever among the visible are not permitted to partake of the conditions under which it occurred resemble in a remarkable degree those which gave rise to the outbreak of typhoid fever among the visible are not permitted to partake of the conditions under which it occurred resemble in a remarkable degree those which gave rise to the outbreak of typhoid fever among the visible are not permitted to partake of the conditions under which it occurred resemble in a remarkable degree those which gave rise to the outbreak of typhoid fever among the visible are not permitted to partake of the conditions under which it occurred resemble in a remarkable degree those which gave rise to the outbreak of typhoid fever among the visible to the conditions under which it occurred resemble in a remarkable degree those which gave rise to the outbreak of typhoid fever among the visible to the conditions are not permitted to partake of the conditions under which it occurred resemble in a remarkable degree those which gave rise to the outbreak of typhoid fever among the visible to the conditions are not permitted to partake of the conditions break of typhoid fever among the visi- are not permitted to partake of the good time, when some fellows came in ters. The milk is thus slowly heated, the Prince of Wales was one of the sufnomination. They consider marriage no time the police were in and had us, it is ladled out into a separate boiler, family, and they had been for a few are law-abiding citizens, except where the court and fined $7.40. I didn't containing a quantity of white sugar. weeks in occupation of Lord Elcho's town house, No. 23 St. James' place, where three of them were seized with they prefer to suffer the penalties rather. severe attack, is progressing favorably, ancient manner, by washing the feet and kiss of brotherly love. The on the part of its members is strictly required, and all lazy, indolent members soon find there is no support for

He Would Not.

A young man entered the bar-room The wastes-pipes of the water cisterns of a village tavern and called for a pass directly inty the soil-pipes. The drink. "No," said the landlord, "you "Enterprise! er lessons of the most impressive events have had too much already. You have There's such a thing as having too much are speedily forgotten, and so it would had delirium tremens once, and I can-appear that, in many of the most luxu- not sell you any more." He stepped "You must know that there is an irskirts, and the wind was sure to be regular chain of small lakes extending troublesome.

"I wo inight get a proper that, it may be aside to make room for a couple of troublesome.

The proper that, it may be aside to make room for a couple of troublesome. the landlord waited upon them very politely. The other had stood by sullen and silent, and when they had finished he walked up to the landlord and thus addressed him : "Six years ago, at their age, I stood where these young men now are. I was a man of fair prospects. Now, at the age of twenty-eight, I am a wreck, body and mind. You led me to drink. In this room I formed the habit that has been my ruin. Now, sell me a few glasses more and your work will be done. I shall soon be out of the way; there is no hope for me. But they can be saved; they may be men again. Do not sell to them. Sell to me and let me die, and the world will be rid of me-but for heaven's sake sell no more to them." The landlord listened, pale and trembling. Setting down the decanter, be exclaimed, "God helping me, that is the last drop I will sell to any one." And he kept his heart.

"On reaching the lake at the point agreed upon, we separated into little companies, and wandered about at will, ly, down with that umbrella!"

"And and upset our sain, and the land straining lishers or news agents to secure their said one word to us girls since the wind and his plug hat in his hand, straining lishers or news agents to secure their said one word to us girls since the wind and his plug hat in his hand, straining lishers or news agents to secure their said one word to us girls since the wind and his plug hat in his hand, straining lishers or news agents to secure their said one word to us girls since the wind should be plowed and manured for other crops.

"On reaching the lake at the point said one word to us girls since the wind should be plowed and manured for other crops.

"On reaching the lake at the point said one word to us girls since the wind should be plowed and manured for other crops.

"On reaching the lake at the point said one word to us girls since the wind should be plowed and manured for other crops.

"On reaching the lake at the point said one word to us girls since the wind should be plowed and manured for other crops.

"On reaching the lake at the point said one word to us girls since the wind should be plowed and manured for other crops.

"On reaching the lake at the point said one word to us girls since the wind and his plug hat in his hand, straining lishers or news agents to secure their said one word to us girls since the wind and the late will have the down the late of the lake at the bond of the late will have the down the late of the late

The Tree that Destroys Malaria.

The eucalyptus globulus, or Australian gum tree, is favorably known to all residents of Catifornia, where probably tamer," a secret existed, as a family is justly claimed that when the tree point of pure and unadulterated domessubsoil almost as thoroughly as a regular system of piping.

The eucalyptus is an evergreen, and is found in its native country (Tasmania) in boundless forests, both on the hillside and in the lowlands, under extention was turned to the training of In their moral tenets they are opposed to bearing arms, and will not resort to the law to collect a debt.

In their moral tenets they are opposed to bearing arms, and will not resort to the law to collect a debt.

In their moral tenets they are opposed to bearing arms, and will not resort to the law to collect a debt.

In their moral tenets they are opposed to bearing arms, and will not resort to the law to collect a debt.

posed to bearing arms, and will not resort to the law to collect a debt. When a brother is unfortunate financially, they render him assistance, and never permit any of their members to be supported by county or State charities; are opposed to all secret societies and will not receive any one into member-will not receive any one into member-wi such purposes as the keels of vessels, low members to make contracts with bridges, etc., where strength and durapersons, either members or otherwise bility are essential. It is estimated of the church, which they cannot fill. that from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000 in value of this timber is exported annually from Australia. The leaves of this tree are of a dark bluish color, about ten inches long, an or manufacturing ardent spirits. Coun- inch wide, thin and oddly twisted. sel their brethren not to hold office or They exhale a strong camphor-like birds to spell the name of any person to vote, especially in time of war, and odor, quite agreeable and pleasant, in the company, and to distinguish the advise not to vote or take any interest | which, with the large absorption of wain State or political affairs, and suggest | ter by the roots, cause the beneficial to the brethren not to read political pa- influence of the tree. It bears a small on the cars who was offered a newspaper. He took it, looked at the heading, and then threw it outside with disgust, and then remarked:

Too Much Enterprise.

"I don't want any news from that been pitching into you?"

meet the editor of that paper."

"What did he do?" "Do? He did a good deal. Here's and began to raise a row. In less than but not boiled. For the latter purpose, The next morning I was hauled before whence it is carried to another tank

"Did your wife see it?" "I should say she did." "Did she make a fuss?" "Fuss! Godfrey, Elisha! Are you married?" "Then you know how it is. I have to go to Springfield in the daytime now. Just let me see that editor once !"

blame him, you know. It was only the Postage on Newspapers.

The United States House Post-office Committee have agreed to report a bill daily product is about 8,000 boxes, each shades withdrawn, so that the rays of providing that on all newspapers and weighing about 13 5 ounces. The milk the sun were streaming in at the winperiodical publications mailed from a may be diluted with five times its dows in full blaze upon the centreknown office of publication or news weight of water. scribers or news agents, postage shall be charged at the following rates : • Newspapers and periodical publications issued weekly and more frequenta week, 3 cents for each pound or fraction thereof. On the receipt of such newspapers and periodical publications at the office of mailing they are to be or women than that kind of smattering 'memorized' facts and dates and 'words,' which is too often the penalty of superficial study."

Transplant the early and medium sorts of cabbage from the seed beds and sow for late. The cold-frame and his pland at land his voice, he fit for the table or for market. When the same went along with his head down lishers or news agants to accure their greater through the mails. All mailable matter of the third class may weigh not each potential. All mailable matter of the third class may weigh not each pattern and then to be through the mails. All mailable matter of the third class may weigh not each pattern and servant to see upon the domestic circle a regal through the mails. All mailable matter of the third class may weigh not each pattern and then the through the mails. All mailable matter of the third class may weigh not each pattern and then the sewing. There was no of terror, which is all the more appallation of terror, which is all the more of terror, which is all the more

Animal Teaching.

Long years before the American tication and teaching, perhaps there has no person in modern times achieved in 1721, but he afterwards removed to London, where he married a woman animals, birds, and fishes. He was led into this new study by reading an account of a remarkable horse shown at half a dozen times, but his cheek was Bissett bought a horse and dog, and laft intact. succeeded beyond his expectations in If you want to make a bustle in the many wonderful things, to sit before music books and to squall notes pitch- they never saw it. ed to different keys. He advertised a A matter-of-fact old gentleman thinks successfully carried out his programme, | can be caught on a fly. parts. He pocketed some thousands San Francisco, to cost $1,200,000 and by these performances. He next taught | accommodate 1,200 persons. a leveret, and then several species of hour of the day or night. Six turkey of Wisconsin during the past season. cocks were next rendered amenable to a country dance, and after six menths' | ing up anchors, wanted to know if it and carry like a dog, and having chalk-ed the floor and blackened its claws, he An exchange has the story of a man | made it trace out the name of any given | person in the company.

Condensed Milk Manufacture.

A factory for the production of condensed milk has recently been estab-"I supposed that everybody read it borders of the lake of the same name, The number of fails these parts." I appeared "Hear it is Control of the lake of the same name, The number of fails to the lake of the same name, The number of fails to the lake of the same name, The number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of fails to the lake of the same name, the number of the lake of the same name, the number of the lake of the same name, the number of the lake of the same name, the number of the lake of the lake of the same name, the number of the lake of th in these parts," I answered. "Has it in Switzerland. We find the following States for 1872 was 4,069; total liabili-"Pitching into me? Great Cæsar! furnished by peasants; and as soon as total liabilities, $228,409,000. I should say it had. But just let me each person delivers his supply, a "You never make anything by strik- bered, and allowed to remain quiet refuse to pay pew rent because he aling an editor," I said; "better grin over night. The object of this is to luded to them in one of his sermons as judge of the quality of the milk for the "empty heads." "Yes; that's all right for you to say; rising of cream. Cares of fraud, however, are rare, as the peasantry are generally honest, and the penalties imposed by law are extremely severe.

The first operation is to weigh the column of condensation which com-municates with air pumps. Under these conditions the milk boils at 140 missions."

So promptly?" Brother W. replied,
"I asked him for a dollar for foreign degrees Fahrenheit. Every little while the workman takes out a sample from which he judges according to its vis-"But," said I, feeling I ought to take cosity whether the condensation is sufa newspaper's part, "you can hardly ficient.

Wants to Get Out. A western paper says: "A lady in a new spring silk takes refuge in a street-car from the shower. When she reaches her destination she pulls the bell-strap, but the car goes ahead, because somethan once a week, 1; cents, and on her destination she pulls the bell-strap, those issued less frequently than once but the car goes ahead, because somebody else had just pulled it. The calm expression leaves her face, and she be told that the paper bottom of this pulls it again. Then a man in the lower glass was for some reason gone-either corner rises and takes a tug at it. worn off or torn off. Moral : Be careweighed in bulk and the postage paid 'Idiot!' she mutters between her ful in the use of these dangerous trifles. thereon by a special adhesive stamp. | clenched teeth, at the same time seiz-Of newspapers, one copy to each actual ing the strap with both hands and subscriber residing within the county clinging to it as if it were her only safe-where the same are printed, in whole or in part, and published, is to go free furiated driver is bringing his horse to where the same are printed, in whole or in part, and published, is to go free through the mails, but the same shall not be delivered at the letter-carrier offices or distributed by carriers unless that the conductor shricks wildly at her to let go. She lets go. Then he were ner only sale.

The Christiansburg, Va., Messenger says: "We once rode up to a farm house in this county to spend the day. We found the farmer's wife alone in the offices or distributed by carriers unless tries the prentice hand, and once more Step Us.

A man in a western town had a pet reciprocally interchanged between public with a demoniac look in her eyes, dashes calf, which he was training up in the lishers, not exceeding sixteen ounces in ways of an ox. The calf walked around weight, to be confined to a single copy very peaceably under one end of the of each publication, are to go free ease in a cushioned chair, and then lets

Items of Interest,

119,000 Israelites live in France. California exempts editors from jury

Iowa erected 1,266 school houses last

Paris eats nearly 5,000 horses every

There are fifty Episcopal Churches

fish house are six tons a day.

Over 600 cabin passengers sailed from New York to Europe, one week. Over 30,000,000 acres of land in the Southwest has been overflown.

Over 200,000 pounds of wool have been delivered in Lebanon, N. H.

A Pittsburgh newspaper calls the debt items of that city "due drops."

The New York State tax this year is

"cats' opera" in the Haymarket, and it must be a very small base ball that the cats accurately fulfilling all their A monster hotel is being erected in

One hundred and fifty-five days of sleighing were enjoyed in some parts A boy, having heard of sailors heav-

teaching he trained a turtle to fetch | was seasickness that made them do it. In Middletown, Conn., a magistrate has lately decided that a woman has a legal right to get drunk in her own A Wyoming paper delicately announces that its charge for marriage notices is "just what the ecstasy of the bride-

The number of failures in the United description of the process: The milk is ties, $121,056,000. For 1873, 5,183;

A Minnesota clergymen has sued sample is taken from the pails, num- thirty-five members of his church, who

A San Francisco man has been sued for $20,000 by another man whose wife he allured away from him. The idea seems to be that he may keep the woman if he will pay the money.

branch of fine arts, and answer unhesitatingly, "When she is in 'earnest."

At a recent meeting where there was chambers. These receptacles resemble a few words, and the shouting man at the similar apparatus used in sugar manufacture, and have double bottoms, heated by steam. They are united to a column of acceleration and the shouling man at once became quiet. "Brother H." asked brother W., "what did you say to the old man that quieted him down Dangerous.

A young lady, passing through a hall in her father's house, perceived a sug-When the latter point is reached, the gestion of fire, a smell of something liquid is led down into the cellar and burning, sufficiently out of the common into a tin receptacle which is surround- course to arrest her attention. Finding ed by cold water. The milk is thor- the furnace fire and soft coal sittingoughly agitated by hand for some time room fire with nothing unusual to acuntil completely cool, when it is car- count for the smell of fire, she coutinued ried to other reservoirs and thence to the front drawing-room. Now the table, where rested a common round top glass paper weight, under which a mass of papers lay. Here was the fire, ciently to cause combustion. It should kitchen preparing dinner. The farmer was at his tan-yard hard at work. The two sons were in the field gathering corn and running the farm. One daughter was in the weaving room making materials for family wear. The other daughter cleaning up the house, and then to the sewing. There was no

How to Fight Hard Times.