FRANKLIN COURIER

GEO. S. BAKER, Editor and Proprietor.

TERMS: $2.00 per Annum.

VOL. III.

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1874.

NO. 49.

Too Old for Kisses.

My uncle Philip, bale old man, Has children by the dozen : Tom. Ned, and Jack, and Kate and Annliow many call me "cousin?"

Good boys and girls, the best was Bess : I bore her on my shoulder; A little bud of loveliness That never should grow older! Her eyes had such a pleading way,

They seemed to say, "Don't strike me Then, growing bold, another day, "I mean to make you like me."

I liked my cousin, early, late, Who liked not little misses: She used to meet me at the gate, Just old enough for kisses!

This was, I think, three years ago-Before I went to college: I learned one thing there-how to row, A healthy sort of knowledge. When I was plucked (we won the race), And all was at an end there,

I thought of Uncle Philip's place, And every country friend there. My cousin met me at the gate ; She looked five, ten years older-A tall young woman, still, sedate, With manners cover, colder. She gave her hand with stately pride,

"Why, what a greeting this is! You used to kies me." She replied, "I am too old for kisses," I loved, I love my cousin Bess :

She's always in my mind now; A full-blown bud of loveliness-The rose of womankind now! She must have suitors; old and young Must bew their heads before her ; Vows must be made and songs be sung By many a mad adorer!

But I must win her : she must give To me her youth and beauty; And I-to love her while I live Will be my happy duty; For she will love me soon or late,

And be my bliss of blisses, Will come to meet me at the gate. Nor be too old for kisses!

MY DOG "NAP."

"Lie down, lie down, sir!" "Oh, never mind him, Frank, he won't hurt you ; go right in.' "Oh, yes," said I, "it is all well enough for you to say 'never mind were pulling out the money. him,' but, by George, he looks as if "Imagine my feelings it he would bear a great deal of minding. "Nonsense," said Alick, laughing; "I tell you the dog will not touch you; moment and I will go along with you."

room alone, and I think you, my reader, would have thought discretion the better part had you been in my place. Alick was talking with his agent as I room. came to the hall door, and had walked toward his library to wait his leisure ; but when I opened the door a large

I have told above. Alick finished his business; then took me by the arm and led me into the room—the dog slowly dropping on his haunches when he saw his master, and I paid no more attention to him such a vicious dog?" I inquired, as I could fire, I caught his revolver. He lit the cigar my friend gave me. "I don't think much of your judgdog," was the answer. "What breed is he?" "He's a cross of several breeds."

thing but praises of him."

"What did he ever do that was particularly friendly?" I inquired. "Nap? I'll tell you what he did :

ing war-times." .

told me that he was in earnest, so I begged for the story. "It was about the middle of the er of the Grafton Drilling Company. morning, nor have we ever seen him years old going to the House of Cor-Our office safe was as unsafe as a pine since. box would have been, and I disliked to leave a dollar in it. There were several burglaries about the place and all of You see, the thief supposed by the site asked, anxiously.

them were skilfully planned and exe-ence that there was no dog about the "Couldn't be less than sixty days," the safe pried open with wedges, and sprang at him." the contents carried off. The burglars found but a few hundred dollars, but rather easily; these fellows usually do the worst feature of it was that they not care much for a dog." had hit upon a night when there ought to have been a large amount of money dog as 'Nap' was that night," said there. We had received a large cash Alick, laughing. "I had subbed his payment the day before, but instead of eyes and mouth with phosphorus, and it home with me.

"We wondered if the burglars had one was before him." any knowledge of this payment. If dinary means of gaining intelligence, about?" and would know whenever we received any large amounts again, and would they not come at once to my house, now that they had seen I did not trust the safe? The question was a very perplexing one, and I had an angry deand employing a night-watchman, but and long at my sheepish face. I was out-voted.

"Old Evans, indeed, went so far as asked. to say that, as lightning never struck "Oh, the story is true as preaching.

signed my place, but my interest in the concern was too large to be trifled with, though I determined there would be a change in that board of directors another year.

"About a week after this our secretary returned from Boston on the evening train and brought with him fifty thousand dollars, and all in greenbacks, ing that would be the last place where any one would look for it. I went to bed, but it was nearly midnight before I fell asleep.

hand on my mouth, and to be informed kept quiet. My hands were then tied into a hoarse laugh. behind me, a towel fastened in my "The Judge has acquitted me," mouth, and the muzzle of a pistol placed he said. against my head. Another man was treating my wife in a similar manner. They had a dark-lantern and wore masks.

search the room. First my clothes. then the bureau drawers, under the bed -everywhere but where the money was. I began to think I had outwitted them, when one said to the other' 'How's that stove?' Another minute and they

"Imagine my feelings if you can. Even if they left with this amount it was no small sum to lose. I could al- powder?" most have cried right then and there. but, if you will not believe me, wait a One ran over the amount and said went to the easy-chair and cut open the | cunning for the zouaves. stuffed seat; they picked up the ottoman, examined it, and went out of the

"I was trying to get up when one came back-the other had the money : he pushed me back into the bed, saying black dog that had evidently been lying I had better be quiet. I heard the on the floor started to his feet with a other man walk down stairs and I knew growl, and exhibited a row of teeth my money was gone. They evidently that would have made a good stock in knew how much money I had, and from trade for a first-class dentist. He was the way they had ripped open chairs a villainous-looking brute, and I de- and cushions in my room, they would clined trusting myself to his mercy, as not be long searching for that which was down stairs.

"The fellow must have come straight to this door. I heard him turn the latch, and then-a most unearthly scream! I knew that 'Nap' was doing his duty. In a flash I jumped to the until I had finished the business I had floor, and in doing so gave a wrench to the band about my wrists that broke it, "What in the world do you want with and then before the man on guard made a stroke at me, I dodged it, caught him by the legs and threw him. ment if you call him a vicious-looking As he fell he gave up his hold on the

"I cared nothing for him, I wanted the man who had the money; so I dash-"Yes, I should think from the way ed down the stairs, only to see him gohe showed me his teeth that he was all ing out the hall door. I fired, but missed him; I fired again and heard a "Come, come, Frank, you must not cry of pain; I fired once more and run down old 'Nap.' He has been too | broke his ankle and down he dropped. good a friend for me to listen to any- The other man jumped out of the window and escaped.

"Of course I secured my man, recovered my money, and old Evans had to admit that he had been wrong for he saved me fifty thousand dollars dur- the robbers had first gone to the office, ing," he went on. "I am certain that and came to my house only when they you would never get drunk again, and confession from my prisoner that our The people of the great State of Michibook-keeper was one of their gang and posted them about our affairs. The war," said Alick, "when I was treasur- book-keeper did not come to work that an awful thing to see a woman fifty

And the dog?" I asked. "Yes, the dog had all the credit. "One night our office was visited, for when he opened the door and 'Nap

"But," said I, "he was frightened

"I guess he never saw quite such a blame the fellow for imagining the evil

"'Phosphorus' and 'strong spring!"

"His eyes are glass, you know." or have I?"

'Nap' is a fraud?"

"I was angry enough to have re- well as a most unmitigated swindle, the man of Gotham.

A Trick of the Zouaves.

public sentence.'

head and pulled the trigger. The wea- better for me if I had followed the quest was cheerfully granted, and from that he did not intend to harm me if I pon missed fire, and the zouave burst occupation of my father, and been a that time forward, when all hands were

"How so?" said the commandant. "After securing us they began to are made of clay, the whole done up in er after office. genuine cartridges. You have just Of all pursuits in life that of a farmer laurels. seen a proof of it.

> of triumph : miss fire, and you will gain the battle."

"Rather"—and the zouave exhibited "Rather"—and the zouave exhibited a formidable pipe, set with solid gold. But where is the faithful cultivator of knouted. To the astonishment of the ing and to prevent their spreading and Such sights as were seen at Paris and to the other, 'Only half here.' My Though the Arabs may be pretty the soil, God's heritage to man, who soldier who had been the means of his overgrowing each other. After seven at Tours could only compromise the I certainly was afraid to go into the heart grew colder than before. They sharp fellows, they are no match in ever yet suffered for bread?

In a Western Court.

"This 'ere case is a sad one," remarked Bijah, as he brought out Catherine Judy, a woman of fifty.
It was disturbing the peace. The officer says he won't swear that he a hitching post five blocks away. She was mad, ugly and stubborn, and she made awful threats against his life. She had, however, partly compensated for them by weeping all night long, and as a sunflower is full of seeds.

"I hope so, Catherine-I hope so," replied his Honor, as she made the same promise to him. "You are aged and gray, Mrs. Judy. You are rapidly before the sod closes over you for-

"I believe the same," she answered, trying to shed a tear.

"I believe you want to be good," he continued. "I believe so because you have said so fifteen or twenty times at this bar. You have promised and promised, and coaxed and begged, and my heart has every time been touch-lovingly at Bijah. gan are at my back; they demand that you be sent up for two months. It's rection, but I can't help it, I am only a middleman, and I must obey the law.' "Couldn't make it half an hour," she premises, and he thought he was done he answered, and she went back and sat down on the stove hearth, and said she would be dead ere the rosy hues of sunset had commenced to gild the western skies.

New England Independence.

Burleigh writes to the Boston Journal: "In New York the restaurant trusting it to our old safe I had taken put on the strong spring. I don't keeper greets you with his coat off, sleeves rolled up, face red, and a breath indicative of lager. In New England, your caterer is probably a man subthey had, then they must have extraor- I exclaimed; "what are you talking stance. He is willing to accommodate you. He reads the paper while the coffee is boiling. The Atlantic Month-"Glass! Have you been drinking, ly lays on the book-shelf, and he can tell you all about the subjects discussed at "Why, old fellow, don't you see that the last scientific convention. The young woman who hands you your I jumped to the dog, and sure enough | coffee is his daughter. She took the bate over it with some of our directors. I had been badly sold—the dog was medal in algebra, and has been two I was in favor of getting a reliable safe India-rubber! Alick laughed loud quarters at the academy. It would be just as well if her tongue was not quite | the reason I put it off." "Is the story as true as the dog?" I so sharp, but then she is as good as anybody, and only waits on you for your accommodation. I have been twice in the same place, neither did I bought 'Nap' when I was in Paris. I amazed to see a New Yorker give his Hanover street, Boston, the other day, burglars visit old safes the second time. have springs fixed on the door and in order. He has been waited on in New and putting, four dollars on the coun-

Perils of Office Seeking.

We commend the following authentic story to the attention of the innumera- sissippi, recently wrote a letter to a cally a "sailor's man." When, on ship-farmer. The mechanical arts are all honorable. To be a blacksmith, a carpenter looked on in dignified ease and comor an artizan of any sort is no discredit fort. He sailed with Decatur while "Why, you see, commandant, that to any man. Better than to be a jack- they both lived, and upon the untimely the powder I sell to the Benni-Snas- leg lawyer, a quack doctor, a counter- death of his patron a goodly pension sens is only ground charcoal; the balls hopper, or worse still, a wretched seek- was granted him by the Government, is the most respectable. It may have It was true. The zouave had cheated its trials and its disappointments so do his customer, and he added with an air all others. The mechanic may lose the wages of his labor, the professional "The first time the Benni-Snassens man his fees; the editor may weep come into action, all their pieces will over delinquent subscribers, but the honest, industrious farmer is morally "Then you have sold a good deal of certain of a fair return for his labor. True, "Paul may plant and Appollos water, but God must give the increase."

> Allow me again to "caution" my young friends against the beguiling influence of office, and to advise them most earnestly to stick to mother earth.

A Touching Incident. The Chicago Times, has the follow- the soldier, "this time; but before you ing: A little incident like the follow- set out on another expedition in search | picking is generally done by women, smelled whisky, but he is willing to ing will tend more toward bringing of me, I will accommodate you with a deed his house and lot to any one if he about a healthy feeling of kindness be- pair of red boots for the journey." can't say that the echoes of her gentle | tween the North and the South than all | Boots made of red leather are commonvoice reached him as he was leaning on | the formal reconciliations that officious | ly worn in the Ukraine; but to give a and ingenious minds can devise. A man a pair of red boots, according to New York lady, noticing that Major the saying of the Tartars, is to cut the Jones, of Montgomery, Ala., in pro- skin round the upper part of his legs, nouncing an oration over the Confed- and then cause it to be torn off by the in broad sunlight; they are then brown- the United States. Maximilian, in erate dead, had none but kindly words feet. This species of torture the ban- ed and roasted over a furnace. by oft repeated promises that her fu-ture life should be as full of sobriety and expressed himself eloquently and revenge; in the same manner the feelingly in favor of reconciliation, commissioned a jewelry firm to send him a silver cup, suitably engraved, as threat he made his escape, and no furexpressive of her appreciation of the ther inquiry was made after him on the sentiments he expressed and the regard part of the police. The undaunted traveling toward that last receptacle of the human form, and it won't be long to have was withheld, at her desire, but could be placed in the commander, deher letter to the jeweller was forwarded | termined to take the administration of with the testimonial. In it she said, justice into his own hands, and once the expenses of the maintenance of the panions I have an American lady who "The war widowed me and took away more ventured in pursuit of the robber, my two sons. For a long time I felt as the country. After an undertaking full if I could never forgive those who slew the defenders of the 'Stars and Stripes,' of danger, he found him in one of the but when I think of the war-widowed mothers of the South, and see such language as this, it makes me tenderer pistols in hand, "You promised me," reported to the Emperor; but should and take refuge in labor. Simple soland juster to the South. I feel that said he, "a pair of red boots; I am they fail, and the locusts spread and do dier, I carried a musket; labor does men like this Major Jones must be no- come to be measured for them." With damage, they are liable to be deprived not dishonor. I do not look on my "That's nice," she said, smiling ble and true in heart, and fought and died because they thought it was right.
"I want to let you off this morn"I want to let you off this mornments echo in the Northern heart, and in truth 'tend to draw the whole coun-I was about to give an unbelieving found the safe empty. Another revelational that I should never behold you at this try together for its sealing." The chuckle, but a glance of Alick's face lation that the morning brought was a bar as a prisoner. But I can't do it. cup, as received by the major, was inscribed as follows:

MAJOR THOMAS G. JONES, The Orator on Confederate Memorial Day. April, 1874;

A Northern woman, widowed and bereft of her two sons by the War. secure the proper bail, and were there-As a token of her appreciation of the two weeks. When they emerged, they The Northern Dead. were informed that the man whose pun-

The Gardener's Lesson.

Two gardeners had their crops of peas. killed by the frost. One of them was very impatient under the loss, and fretted about it very much. The other went patiently to work at once to plant a new crop. After a while the impatient, fretting man went to his neighbor. To his surprise he found another crop of peas growing finely. He asked how it could be. "These are what I sowed while you were fretting," said his neighbor. "But don't you ever fret?" he asked. "Yes, I do, but I put it off till I have repaired the mischief that has been

"Why then you have no need to fret "True," said the friend, "and that's Honest at Last.

A countrywoman went into a store on

What He Wanted. The Coming Horse,

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal writes: "We have ble admirers of the French Zouaves, wound lady friend, wherein he laments who have won such a conspicuous place in military history. The Arabs of the held an office. Ex-Governor Brown say he is a "sailor's man." Decatur speediest horses of the country. He Beni-Snassen tribe are great amateurs of gunpowder, and never neglect an opportunity of prowling about the French camp, and offering the soldiers large camp, and offering the soldiers large camp, and offering the soldiers large seem to have had as extensive and fathe proceeds of our monthly bills receivable. He brought the money in bills because the day following was our pay-day.

"I was in a most perplexing state of mind when he handed me that money. I knew the office safe was no protection whatever, and yet if I carried the money home with me I was assuming a great responsibility. Wilbout saying a word to any one I determined to keep the money with me. I found an old dinner-basket in the office and I carried the money with home in that.

"You may he assured that I did not would not be provided and that money and offering the soldiers large sums of money for the coveted article. They pretend to be Arabs of the neighbor home with read and official station, and would therefore seam of his contemp, and offering the soldiers large sums of money for the coveted article. They pretend to be Arabs of the neighbor home with reparations and associates. We quote as follows:

True, as you say, I held many offices. Too behind by one of the Turks, and without observation he is station, and came near being adoration. In one of Decatur's actions before Tripoli, while engaged in a hand to Land condict with a powerful gun-boat captain, he was attacked from behind by one of the Turks, and without observation he is street, and will not be questioned. No one can get access to his horses without a written permission from himself, and that is rarely given. Among his treat, and without observation he is sum of money of his content of his order of their was devotion, and came near being adoration. In one of Decatur's actions before Tripoli, while engaged in a hand to Land condict with a powerful gun-boat captain, he was attacked from behind by one of the Turks, and would have been cut down, had not an old sailor name James, who had a tried. They pretend to be Arabs of the kiedlength of the recovers to have that a written permission from himself, and that is rarely given. Among his treat, and without observation he stroke the hands of the recovers and soccores when he acceptance of the provide ner-basket in the office and I carried it home in that.

"You may be assured that I did not penetrate the skull, and the lonest fellow survived. When James for them. The bargain was the owner, and a work of the constraint of the with these words the zouave took a my advice, I have this to say, after all And he informed his commander, after the horse back into the stable, and bed, but it was nearly midnight before I fell asleep.

Cartridge, loaded a pistol with it, dropped a round ball in the barrel, and with successes as a public man, now, when my successes as a public man, now, when my head is blossoming for the superb coolness, put the muzzle to his grave, I feel that it would have been scrubbing deck. The whimsical resources. Japanese Tea Cultivation. piped to "scrub deck," James perched himself clear of the sand and water, and

and he was allowed to retire upon his

The Bandit and the Red Boots.

The chief of a very desperate gang whose flight had spread terror through

Hard for the Farmer.

Two Kansas farmers, guileless of city ways, arrived at Chicago loaded with ishment they wished to secure "was said to have left Chicago," and that the loss of their money, their two weeks' im-prisonment, and their chagrin, were looked upon as good jokes by the city authorities. The gambler had taken advantage of his acquaintance with a 'professional bailer" to place himself beyond the reach of the reluctant justice of the Chicago city authorities, and, while the Kansas farmers were sweltering in jail, was probably haunting his accustomed corner in New York.

A Mild Man and Terrible Inventor.

The Indianapolis correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial writes as follows : "In appearance, Dr. Gatling would be taken for a Prussian officer.

He has unusual precision of gait and manner, joined to strong indications of Tea culture is very simple. First the Tea culture is very simple. First the pose peace; but the struggle was conseed is deposited in hollows four or five tinued in order that the dictatorship inches deep and eighteen inches wide, might be retained and the organization made in the ground at intervals of four of a definite government prevented. or five feet; then the earth is sprinkled lightly over the seed. The sowing is crushed with raw levies without disciusually done in November or Decem- pline or ardor; defeat followed defeat, ber, and after the spring rains have and when nothing remained we were fallen the plants rise in clusters from completely in the power of Germany. each seed bed. Manure is occasionally The pretended motive was to save the applied to them, but aside from this national honor, but the Army of the they require little care except to be Rhine had saved it before the demaof banditti who had amassed consider-able wealth was taken by a soldier and of leaves is not yielded till three years day it had inflicted more loss on the conducted to the governor of the after the planting. They are then Germans than did all the force of Paris province of Ekalerinoslaf. Great re- transported in order to give each plant in four months. ward had been offered for the person more space for growth, and are placed MacMahon and I have been unfortuof this man, and it was supposed that in rows six or eight inches apart. Some- nate, but never ridiculous. No Gerapprehension, a few days only had or ten years they are cut down, so that elapsed when he received a visit from the young and tender shoots below may old soldier, and do not understand polithe robber. He had been able to bribe have a chance to grow. The critical the robber. He had been able to bribe have a chance to grow. The critical ties. I make war, not speeches, and the governor sufficiently to procure his season in tea-culture is when the leaves do not allow myself to be frightened by release, in consequence whereof he had have to be picked, the time fer which, been liberated from confinement. "You | in two or three pluckings between March have caught me," said he, addressing and August, varies in different districts and with different plants. The children, and old men working in gangs vest, and paid according to the amount quantity will yield ten pounds of tea when dried. First, the leaves are placed

Locusts in China.

In China, where locusts are wont to ravage the country, the authorities, whether civil or military, are held responsible for the stamping out of these and that Lafayette passed through insects as soon as their appearance has ordeals more terrible than mine. been reported. They are required to I am far from being rich; but, besummon a large body of men, and at sides my liberty, there still remain to once surround and destroy the locusts; me immeasurable treasures. For commen and compensation for the crops gives me the strongest proofs of devo-trodden down during the chase being tion; I have children I adore, a brother supplied by the Provincial Treasury. of danger, he found him in one of the Should the local authorities succeed in little subterranean huts in the midst of stamping out the locusts within a limit need should be I would follow the the Steppes. Entering the place with ited time their services are favorably example of the conquered Richmond paid to the peasants bringing in un- them when the time comes; I hope forwinged locusts, and half that sum when | tune will grant me a last smile, as she the locusts are able to fly, while com- oft in does to old soldiers. pensation is given for crops trodden down in the chase. The locusts are money, and were speedily enticed into swept with besoms into trenches dug a gambling house, where they were at the sides of the corn field, in which fleeced. They had the gamblers arrested and fined. But the gay "knights of the card" appealed from the judgment, and the farmers were required to furnish bail as witnesses. They, having no friends in town, of course could not or fly. fore sent to jail, where they were kept How the Carlists Get War Material. some curious information as to the against him. Do much or little, so that mode in which war material is smug- you do it for a good purpose. Refined gled into Spain by the Carlists. By music is liked by refined people; far the greater portion of arms that weavers do not much care for it. Three. enter Spain bp the seacoast proceed cry out, but get no pity, viz : He who from Bordeaux, concealed in wine bar- lends out his money without witness, rels, or from Nantes, hidden among the henpecked husband, and he who sardine boxes, and consigned to mer- cannot get in one place and does not chants dealing in wine and sardines at try another. Even the common talk of Bayonne, St. Jean de Lux, Passages | the wise should be pondered over. One and San Sebastian. The largest con- goose generally follows another. Bad signments are effected by land, and are servants first ask only when they have received by merchants and private per- committed a blunder. The load is laid sons. The writer has seen thousands upon the camel according to its strength. of cartridges arrive at a hetel packed If a word is worth a pound, silence is up as Swiss cheese, boxes of rifle bar-worth two. A pig is the richest animal, rels labelled macaroni, hollow iron pil- everything is a piece of good to him. lars, stuffed with bayonets, and last, Whoever does too much does too little. but not least, bales of dry cod, con- The greater a man, the greater his taining considerably more steel than keen perceptive powers. The eyes are particularly fine, and there is a pleas-And now another cancer cure is her-alded. A Bavarian physician, observ-dred gourds. A learned man whose ing show of humor and kindness in the lines about his mouth. He is in the ing that cancer patients on drinking the deeds are evil is like a man who has a prime of life, and there is no sign of mineral waters of the Tyrol, became door and no house. He who prays for And he was inclined to think our money the floor, so that when the door is would be safer if left in the office than opened the dog stands up, and when and Italian; but this is his first exif carried to my residence. And he he is up there is an arrangement in his perience with a Yankee girl. She hands fall, I bought something next door and invented a method of applying com- streams flowed were principally com- an unclucated man throws her before talked so many of the others into his way of thinking that a resolution was passed declaring it against their wishes made to jump as high as a man's head, passed declaring it against their wishes to have any of the company's funds kept anywhere except in the office safe! of course, the effect of this was that if I carried the money home and lost it, the loss would fall on me indicate the loss would fall on the passed declaring it against their wishes and that jump was what frightened the brought me back the change for five dollars instead of one dollar. I took it; but 'taint no use, I ain't agoing to keep it as a dressional breather of the mane says something again.' And before the astonished of the utter astonishment of the man of Gotham.

A Cancer Cure.

I sympathize with that burglar, and I hope he did not lose caste among his professional brethren, for certainly the dog was a villation of the utter astonishment of the man of Gotham.

I hard problem. 'Can I have some brought me back the change for five dollars instead of one dollar. I took it; but 'taint no use, I ain't agoing to keep it as a dression, the crally adopted, the Doctor can turn his again.' And before the astonished of the utter astonishment of the man of Gotham.

I hard problem. 'Can I have some brought me back the change for five dollars instead of one dollar. I took it; but 'taint no use, I ain't agoing to keep it as a dressing, the crally adopted, the Doctor can turn his again.' And before the astonished of the utter astonishment of the man that jump was what frightened the brought me back the change for five dollars instead of one dollar. I took it; but 'taint no use, I ain't agoing to keep it as a dressing, the crall the experiment of triturating gneis, and proved that like cures like, he tried the experiment of triturating gneis, and proved to aster that like cures like, he tried the experiment of triturating gneis, and proved to aster that like cures like is an discovery, not an invention. Now that like cures like is a discovery, not an invention. I have some that like cures like is an discovery in the

A LETTER FROM BAZAINE.

He tells Why He Essaped -- His Hopes for the Future.

Marshal Bazaine, the French General

The loss of Aisace has been imputed to me, but the truth is that Alsace was lost after Reichschoppen. Even after the disaster, and after the precipitate retreat of the army, Metz could have been saved when Thiers, who alone retained his common sense, came to pro-

The enemy could never have been big words.

Jules Favre flattered me ; Gambetta called me a traitor; but that did not

As regards Mexico, the Emperor had to choose between evacuation and a of ten or twelve each, hired for the har- war with the United States. To avoid a conflict he gave the order to return ; of tea picked. With hard work forty but Maximilian was unwilling either to pounds per day may be gathered, which teturn to Austria or to abdicate, alteturn to Austria or to abdicate, alrhough he well understood that Napoleon could not sustain a struggle with spite of wise counsels, preferred to seek an honorable death. That is the truth, and that is the extent of each and some friends who have remained

Thoughts from the Talmud.

The thought of the sin is worse than who does not, it grows into a poison. A bad wife is like a hail-storm. Do not dwell too long on your friend's A letter in the London Times gives praises; you will end in saying things passions. He who presses the hour, the hour will press him. May our fu-ture reward be like that of him who remains silent under a false imputation.