We will send the COURTER and Godey's Lady's Book, with beautiful Oil chromo "Rescue," 12 months for $4.50.

FOR RENT.

A neat and convenient little cottage residence, with three rooms, and large garden attached, on Elm street. Apply at this office.

Y. B. CLIFTON our Artist will leave Louisburg the last of November, and we would say to all who want good pietures, not to miss a good opportunity.

We would respectfully call your at tention to the new rich, and cheap Watches, Jeweiry, Diamonds, Silver Ware, Clocks and fancy goods, at Youngs, Marble Front Jewelry Store, corner Sycamore & Bank streets, Petersburg, Va., Solid 18kt. plain Gold Rings for engagement and wedhing purposes. Youngs, Celebrated Perfected Periscopie Spectacles and Eye Glasses, will improve and benefit your eye-sight.

Call and see them when you visit Petersburg.

Mr. T. N. Carlile has just returned from the North, where he purchased a large stock of Fall and winter goods, which he promises to sell cheap.

We are authorized to announce Mr. J. A. Stone, of this place as a candidate for assistant Doorkeeper of the Senate. He is a true democeat, and if elected to the place, will fill it with credit to the party,

Important Notice,

If all the reports from the South be true the crop of cotton will be short. Speculators in the North will do (as they have done almost every year) all they can to keep prices down early in the season, and after getting all the good cotton in their hands, you will see the price advance. Year after year the farmer gets generally the lowest prices, and the speculators the highest. To all who wish to hold their cotton, I would say I am amply prepared to make liberal CASH advances on cotton charging interest at the rates of 6 per cent a year, no other charges.

W. S. MALLORY, Franklinton, N. C.

TO FARMERS & STOCK RAISERS .-To those wishing a first class Jonrual, devoted to farming and stock raising, we can offer the following inducements. That for $3,50 we will send the Courier. and the Live Stock Journal, a 30 page magazine for 12 months, from the 1st of January 1875, supplying those who subscribe in October the Magazine with out charge, for the balence of the year say 2 months without charge. See advertisement of the Magazine elsewhere.

We will send the COURTER and the Louisville weekly Courier-Journal, postage prepaid on both papers, for one year, for $3.50. The weekly Cour er-Journal is the great family paper of the Southwest, It will on December 31, 1874, distribute impartially $10,000 in valuable presents among its subscribers, and every subscription sent through us will be entitled to a registered and numbered receipt for this distribution.

"Valdivia;" a tale of the South, a magnificent serial story, will be commenced in the weekly Courier Journal early in November. Send us 3.50 and get both papers.

STATE AND LOCAL.

We give this week, almost our entire editorial space to the able and interesting letter of Hon. J. J. Davis, on the Convention.

The N. C. Conference of the M. E. Church South, will convene at Raleigh on Wednesday the 2nd of December, Bishop E. N. Marvin of St. Louis-pre-

The revival at the M. E. Church at this place still continues, there have been about 35 converts, and 20 have joined the Church, 13 were Baptized on Sunday last.

We call special attention to the attractive advertisement of Mr. E. W. Fuller. He promises good bargains to those who will call on him, and you can safely rely on what he says. Give him

Mr. Jno. E. Thomas, raised on his garden this year a beet, weighing 121 lbs, the top being cut off and 'he beet nicely washed and cleaned. This beats any beet we have heard of in the county. Mr. T. has a large number weighing 9 and 10 lbs.

MARRIED - HALL-ATKINSON. -At the residence of Mr. Van Smith, in Johnston county, on the 12th Inst. by the Rev. J. N. Andrews, Mr. T. H. Hall to Miss A. C. Atkinson, both of Johnston county.

We have this week revised and transcribed our subscription list, and it is possible that some of the names may have been over looked. If such should be the case we hope that those who fail to get their paper will apply at once to the office, so that their names may be placed on the books.

Wesley Whitaker, (col'd.) was up before his honor Thos. K. Thomas, on last Saturday, charged with stealing cotton from Blair Burwell. The cotton was seized a few nights before, about 10 o'clock, on the streets and placed in possession of officer Stone. Wesley was bound over to court. There were four baskets and one bag of cotton, altogether about 500 lbs.

We also learn that Mr. Carrington received a dangerous wound in the abdomen from a knife in the hands of Mr. Parnes of Nashville.

COTTON THIEVES .- Charles, Jim and Albert May, three colored gentlemen were up before Squire Alston on Wednesday charged with entering the cotton house of Mr. Jno G. King, and stealing therefrom a quanity of cotton, They were found guilty, but at this writing they have failed to give the bail required, they will therefore find their way to Warrenton or Raleigh jail, where they will remain until our next Superior Court.

The half column advertisement of Mr. B. P. Clifton appears in the Courier this week. Mr. Clifton by his indomitable energy and perseverance has succeeded in building up a good trade, and by his straight forward manner of doing business, has gained for him the confidence of the people of Franklin, he will do what he promises in his adv. Be sure to call on him if you want to get a large amount of goods for a little money, his store is on the corner of Main and Court St., and his cotton gin is on the North bank of the river opposite the Mill.

2d. Because every policy helder is a member of the Company, entitled to all its advantages and privil-ges, hav-

5th. B cause it has declared more dividends in number, and of a larger average percentage, than any Company in the United States.

For example: Policy No 16, for $5000, has been paid to the widow of philadelphia merchant, upon which twenty-three dividends had been der clared, averaging fifty seven per cent.
