We see from the Oxford papers that primary meetings have been held, and st ck subscribed for the purpose of building a Railroad from that town to Hend rson. The estimated cost of the Road will be $100,000, of this amount Oxford will subscribe $50,000

We wish to tell our readers one thing. and it is the honest truth, it is this; go to the se merchants who advertise liberally and they will deal liberally with you, this fact is too well established for any further comment from us. We ask you just to try it, and you will find what we say to be true.

At the last regular meeting of the County Commissioners, they made, (at the request of a number of citizens and after due notice) Tar River a lawful fence from Simms' Bridge to Louisburg Bridge. At a prior meeting the river was made a lawful fence, from Louisburg to Chafors Bridge.

FORTUNATE.-This is the way the Rocky Mount Mail "puts it." There is not a man in Rocky Mount who parts his hair in the middle Can as much be said of any other city in the State? Louisburg comes in as one of the "Fortunate" towns, not one here, Bro., Therpe,

We asked a man some days back, to subscribe to the Counter, he declined on the plea that he was not able, and at the same time he confessed that he spent more than twenty times the price of the paper for whiskey, which he acknowledged was an injury and not a benefit to him; that man does not take a paper at all, and he has a family growing up around him, to our mind he is pursuing a very bed policy, trustworthy.

Wilson wants a cotton factory. So dees Louisburg.

Do you want to increase your business? if you do, my word for it a good advertisement in the COURIER will greatly assist you in doing it.

The new organ which has just been placed in the choir of the M E. Church, is one of Morace Waters & Son's best, it was selected by Mr. E. W. Fuller. In point of finish and style the instrument is faultless, and the tone is rich, full and sweet.

Mr. Carlile, desires to say to the people of Franklin, and to all visiting Louisburg, that his Stock of Spring Goods has been received, and to see them is to admire them, and to price them is to learn that he has put them down at the lowest notch. Call and he will make good what we have said

We copy the above from the Chil drens Frien , the organ of the Orphan Asylum. We hope every man in Franklin County will read it and then put his hand in his pocket and give something to this Loble charity. Contributions can be handed to Mr. R. F. Yarborough, Thomas White, John G. King or Geo S. Baker, who constitute the Committee for raising and forwarding funds to the Institution

E. W. FULLER has been selling ome very fine Flour during the year but on his recent trip succeeded in finding a lot of Family Flour that excels anything he has ever before offered to the public It is simply perfection; and for creamy whiteness, soft rich texture and fleegy lightness can not be approached by any flour in the market He challenges the far famed Patapsco to compare with it. Remember to get the "Ruston Family," from E. W. Fuller if you want the most snowy delicious bread that it falls to the lot of mortals to taste."

HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE. -The 3rd number of this most excellent magazine, is before us. It is a credit to our State, and we hope it will be sustained. This number contains a splendid ! portrait of the Hon. W. A. Graham. Hereafter the publisher will give two May. portraits in each number instead of one as beretofore. Price of the Magazine Without premium chromo $1.50. or 15cts per single copy. Address J. A. Bonitz, Goldsbero N C.

W oxg .- We notice the inside walls of our Court House, filled with written notices, of sales, warrants. Administrations no ices &c , and in some instances the most valuable real property in the county is advertised in this obscure way. The notices to be seen and read only by a few. This to our mind is not economy, advertisements should be made so as to reach, not only the people in the county, but others outside the county, who night probably be induced to purchase and settle among us. Publication in a newspaper may. at a little more, but when we consider he difference in the benefits derived, it is much cheaper, by giving general notice you will find that the property will bring correspondingly better prices.

The voters of Franklin will be called upon in August next to elect a delegate to the Convention which meets the 6th of September. In order to select the delegate, the county will have to meet in Convention, and nominate a man suitable for the place. The election is only a little over three months off, and in order that it may be well known throughout the county, and that a full representation from all the townships may be present, we would suggest that the Chairman of the Exccutive Committee of the county, cal the executive Committee together, and fix upon the day for holding the nominating Convention. A number of names have been suggested, and either one of which would do honor to the county, Let the Committee meet and fix upon the day for the Convention. Col. W. H. Yerberough is Chairman of the Committee.

MESTS. SMITH & BRACHAM MAchis " H P - In our search around town for docals, a few days back, we made such a "water haul," that in our dispair, we rushed head long towards the river, seriously contemplating trying our hand for a nibbe from the finny tribe as a last resort for the cure of our sad disappointment. We were stopped in our mad career, by Mr. Beacham who stand ing in his door, and seeing us w th wild look and dishevelled hai , and fearing that we were about to commit some rash deed, seized us, and carried us in his machine shop where we saw every kind of work going on paning machines, mortiei g machines, circular saws &c , &c. The Roanoke News relates the fullowing extraordinary case of somnambulism: A startling case of somnambuli-m occurred at Munfreesburg, N. C., a few evenings since. One of the young lady students of the W. F. College during the night got up from her bed threw over herself a loose wrapper and started down tewn .--She went to Colonel Vaughan's residence, and into his room and laid on a lounge. It greatly surprised and trightened the Colonel, though he knew something was wrong and did not molest the "aleeping beauty," Soon Rev. W. G. Starr was informed where the girl was and went after her. He took her back to the College and carried her to the bed room and ensconced her in bed, and left the room, The young lady on awakening next mo ning, knew nothing of where she had perambulated, or anything about her nocturnal visit. It is kept a profound secret from her, as it would be likely to seriously mortify and frighten her if told of the circumstance.
