THE WAYLBY MAGAZINE—This Magazine published by Moses A. Dow, Boston Mass., is now in its fiftieth year. It is a sixty column magazine, and furnishes with each number a page of the choicest music. There are no continued stories, all are concluded in the paper in which they begin. The price is $1.50 for 3 months.

THE COMING ISSUE—Don't miss it! The next issue, No. 10, of "The Waylby" will contain a fine engraving of Juno, Young Brown, the Damosheps of Kentucky, and a striking, life-size portrait of John Mitchell, the Irish Patriot, with a brilliant sketch of his life, by Hon. O. A. Loeb, of Ga. Also, three fascinating stories, many brilliant poems and essays, sparkling editorials in the different departments, all the current news, theatricals, fashion notices of new books, new music, distinguished persons, &c. Secure a copy.

The following ticket for municipal officers of Louisburg was elected on Monday.
Mayor, W. B. Williamson Esq.
Commissioners.—James Dent, R. F. Yarbrough, J. J. Murphy, J. B. Tucker.
We neglected in our last paper to call attention to the column advertisement of Messrs. White & Shaw.—They promise to sell cheap, and if you will give them a call, you will find that they will make their word good.

FIRE COMPANY.—Our young men are anxious to form a fire company in Louisburg, and now we come to ask the citizens to contribute the money necessary to furnish and equip the company. The need of a well organized fire company in Louisburg has been felt several times and we know how soon the need may be felt again. Then come down with your dollars, and help the boys it may prove to be money well spent.

The following complimentary notice of our townsmen and Congressman also from this District, Capt. J. J. Davis, we find in the Oxford Leader. And we most heartily endorse every word of it, except that portion claiming him to be a son of Granville.—Capt. Davis was born and raised in this County, in Hayesville Township, and was prepared to enter College at the school of Mr. J. B. Bobbitt, who then taught in this town. Bro. Plow, will make this correction, as no doubt he was misinformed as to the facts.

This favorite son of Granville, indeed we may say of this Congressional district, has been in attendance on our Superior Court and is in good health and spirits. Our people rallied with unprecedented zeal to the support of Capt. Davis for Congress thus showing that the Granville delegation in going for him for Congress, acted wisely and well. Besides being a gentleman of ability Capt. D. is a man of great purity of character and most genial manners. The district may well be proud of him as the successor of Hon. W. A. Smith, and indeed he will reflect honor upon his native State in the national Legislature.

COMMUTATION BILL FOR LOST AND DISABLED LIMBS.—We understand that, owing to a publication by a city contemporary during the recent Legislature to the effect that, that body had passed a bill giving commutation to State soldiers of the late Confederacy for the loss of their arms, a large number are preparing to visit the City in order to take advantage of the supposed act. Several have already arrived and met with bitter disappointment. No such act as was announced passed both bodies of the Legislature. It did, however pass the Senate, but we are informed now that it was never reached in the House. We are sorry it did not. But as such is the fact, our exchanges would confer a favor upon these poor men by giving them the proper information.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING.—Under this head, the Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal asks why anybody advertises in newspapers, and gives the following sound and simple answers as to why business people advertise and the principle of advertising: Obviously this, that the advertiser wants his "wants" known; that he "wants to sell goods; that he "wants" to hire a boy; that he "wants" either assistance or custom, which, in his own private walk of life he cannot readily come up with. Why, then, does he advertise? Because he cannot come up with his "want." Very well where should he advertise in order to give himself the best show? Certainly in that advertising sheet which is read by the greatest number of people.

The "devil" of the Goldsboro "Messenger" will attend the Mecklenburg Centennial, as he does not think he will live to see another one.
JUDGES BROOKS ON CIVIL RIGHTS.—Judge Brooks, in his charge to the Grand Jury of the United States District Court, at Elizabeth City, last week said that the criminal features of the Civil Rights bill in which they, as Grand Jury, were alone interested was unconstitutional. Said he agreed with Judge Edmunds, of Memphis, Tenn., that the law was unconstitutional.

STATE NEWS.
Prof. S. J. Stevens, of the Peace Institute, died on Monday the 29th inst. The Leader, speaks of Hon. S. W. Watts, as "necessity Sam." Why Bro. Blow!
Dr. L. C. Taylor, has been appointed Post Master, at Oxford, in the place of A. T. Jones Esq., who has held the position for 22 years.
Dr. Thos. E. Skinner will deliver the literary address before the societies at Wake Forest College at the June commencement.

Ex-Gov. Wm. A. Graham and Hon. Josiah Turner, have been nominated for the Convention in Orange county.
Col. Kenan of Wilson, will send a powder gourd, used by his great Grand Father in the Revolutionary war, to the Mecklenburg Centennial.

Weldon is being to make arrangements for the next Agricultural Fair. Nothing like starting in time.
Mr. Ashly Cooper of Nash, killed four turkey gobblers a few weeks ago at one shot, weighing altogether 54 pounds.
The young ladies and gentlemen of Battleboro amuse themselves with Croquet, and the boys play marbles. Nice place.

ILLUSTRATED PAPER.—We understand that Capt. R. T. Fulghum, formerly of the Agricultural Journal, will soon begin the publication of a weekly Illustrated paper in Raleigh.
The Oxford Leader, says that there is an old colored man, who acts as night watch at Cooper, Williams & Bryan's factory, who only requires 30 or 40 minutes sleep out of every 24 hours. Wide awake nigger that.

PROPRIETOR.
—O—
The present proprietor has leased the Eagle Hotel, (formerly occupied by James Dent) for a number of years. He is prepared to accommodate regular and transient boarders, has nice rooms, well furnished and fitted up in the best style. He has also large and convenient rooms for salesmen to display their samples. The table is daily supplied with the best market affords. He will spare no pains in making his boarders comfortable, and hopes he will receive a liberal patronage from the public.
Jan. 8th 1875.

To the Public.
Having moved my shop to my house about half a mile from the business part of town, on the Franklinton road, I take pleasure in informing the people of Franklinton, that I am prepared to do all work in my line, as cheap as can be done elsewhere. I am very thankful for past patronage, and sincerely hope that you will continue to patronize me. I am very Respectfully,
ISHAM GREEN.
P. S.—Parties wishing to have work done, will have it with Mr. Ballard, at Messrs. Barrow & Pleasants store and will be attended to promptly.
