Local Items.

$2.00 per annum is the price of the COURIER. The Contractors for the extension of the bridge commenced work this week.

A WORD TO MOTHERS.—This is the season for you to supply yourselves with lint and bandages for stumped toes.

We call attention to the Adv. of Messrs. H. A. Reams & Co., which appears in this weeks paper. We are glad to see such enterprises springing up in our State and we hope our merchants will encourage them by giving them their patronage.

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. W. H. Furman. Valuable Town property for sale. This property is situated in the eastern portion of the town, on a high eminence, with good water convenient, and other surroundings, which makes the property very valuable and desirable.

A delicate young lady, who was fond of lamb toad, occasion often to improve the butcher for killing such an innocent creature. She was surprised one morning, after ordering a hind quarter, to have a live lamb sent to her with order to cut out what she wanted, and send the animal home.

Mr. E. D. Watson, is agent for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine. He also repairs and puts in good working order, machines of other patents, and also keeps on hand needles &c. &c. which he will furnish at the lowest price, he warrants all his work. Call on him at the Eagle Hotel.

FOUND DEAD.—An old negro man named Ned Morris, was found dead in town on Wednesday night, about 12 o'clock. A coroner's inquest was held over him on Thursday morning, (Mr. N. M. Hawkins special coroner.) The jury after careful examination rendered their verdict that he came to his death from Hemorrhage, of the lungs.

VENGEANCE ON HAMLIN.—A man in Nebraska, who drops a two cents worth of mail matter in the post office box, and had to pay six cents to do it, went over and stood by one of the windows, and said: "May Hannibal Hamlin, of Maine, have the billions he, theague, the goat, the jaundiced, the banious, both, and the buckwheat scratches from this day noon for the next fifty years to come."

NEW STORE.—Messrs. Terrell & Harris, have commenced the foundation for their new double tenement brick store, on Main street, next to the Post office. This is one of the most desirable locations in town and the proprietors inform us, that they intend to erect a house worthy of the location. There are several other beautiful buildings near the center of town upon which new stand ugly and unsightly buildings, which we hope will soon have to give place for better and prettier ones.

ANOTHER LOT OF COUNTY ORDERS CHANGED.—In addition to the changed orders which have been published in the COURIER in the two last issues, the following has been found. As yet no clerk has been found to the secondaries, who have been engaged, in this wholesale robbery of the County. Order No. 90, issued Oct. 19th 1872 to J. B. Tharrington for $6, changed to $16. No. 131 issued to B. F. Bullock Jr., Dec. 11th 1871, for $6, changed $16. No. 279 to Sally Ayscaw for 625 changed to $62.50. No. 280 to Elizabeth Sturdivant for 6.25, changed to $62.50. No. 387 to Mrs. Pegrum, for 6.25 to $62.50, W. H. Furman, 4, to 14.

The Man Who Stops His Paper.

Philip Gilbert Hamilton, in his admirable and able papers on "Intellectual Life," thus speaks of a man who ordered his paper to be stopped: "Newspapers are to the civilized world what the daily household talk is to the members of the household; they keep our daily interest in each other, they save us from the evils of isolation. To live a member of the great white race of men, the race that has filled Europe and America, and civilized or conquered whatever other territory it has been pleased to occupy, to share from day to day its cares, its thoughts and inspirations, it is necessary that every man should read his paper. Why are the French peasants so bewildered at sea? It is because they never read a newspaper. And why are the inhabitants of the United States, though scattered over a territory fourteen times the area of France, so much more capable of concerted action, so much more interested in new discoveries of all kinds, and capable of selecting and utilizing the best of them? It is because the newspapers penetrate everywhere; and even the lonely dweller on the prairie or in the forest is not intellectually isolated from the great currents of public life, when flow through the telegraph and press."

Have your JOB WORK done at the Courier Office.

Bro. Baker of the COURIER takes us to task for claiming our gallant Congressman elect, as a citizen of Granville, we have only to say that if history is to be relied on, Franklin county itself "sprang from the joints" of Granville and Hancock were right. Fardon us if we have done wrong. It is not surprising that so worthy a gentleman as Capt. Davis should be claimed by several counties.

"Oxford Leader." Franklin was formerly embraced wit in the grant to the Earl of Granville, but never within the bounds of Granville County as a political geographical division. Taking your premises, it would make our Congressman a subject of the Crown of England, for the reason that Franklin was once a part of the Crown territory. We can all claim our distinguished representative as a citizen of the 4th, District, and of the Commonwealth of North Carolina. Lets make up.

NON EXPLOSIVE LAMP POWDER.—Can be bought at Messrs. Wilder Terrell & Harris. It well prevents explosion, and also breaking of the chimney from heat. Price 50 cts. per bottle. A bottle contains sufficient quantity for 12 gallons oil. Directions with each bottle.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—It gives us pain to announce the death of Chas. F. Harris (The Mark Twain of North Carolina,) which took place after a short illness, at Wilmington on the 15th Inst. Mr. Harris was editor of the Concord Sun, published at Concord, and the State Agricultural Journal, published at Raleigh. We copy the following from the Wilmington Journal of the 16th.

All that medical skill and kindly attention could do for him he had, Colonel Davis, proprietor of the Parcell House, members of the press, and a number of Masons, attended him during his sickness, and after his death.

Mr. Harris was the eldest son of Dr. Kiah P. Harris, of Cabarrus, being about forty two years of age. His family is an old and honorable one, his ancestors having been among the signers of the Macklenburg Declaration of Independence, the Centennial Celebration of which, next week, he felt so much interest in and had anticipated so much pleasure in attending.

Mr. Harris was a member of the 20th Regiment of North Carolina troops during the late war, and served with credit to himself and his State. He began the Publication of the Concord Sun about three years ago, and had so conducted it as to commend himself to the Patrons of Husbandry, and last winter at the meeting of the State Grange had been selected by them to edit their official organ. He was a strong and humorous writer, and his death will be a sad loss to the press of the State.

He leaves a wife and several children, who have most our sincere sympathies in their bereavement. The sad event, when it became known, will cast a gloom over the entire city. It is terrible to contemplate how sudden the decent was from active life to sudden death and it conveys a lesson that will appeal strongly to the hearts of all thinking men. Cut down in the midst of a life of usefulness, far from home and kindred and friends, and on a visit where nothing but pleasure was apprehended, the remembrance of his sad fate will cover like a pall the memories of the festivities of the past week. God pity and shield the widow and the orphans in their dire distress.

The only Blacking that will Polish Over Oiled Surface AND PRESERVE THE LEATHER! Warranted to Excel All Others or Money Refunded!

The only blacking that will polish on oiled surface. It is guaranteed to preserve the leather and make it pliant, requiring less quantity and time to produce a perfect gloss than any other. The brush to be applied immediately after putting on the blacking. A perfect gloss from this will not soil even white clothes. We guarantee it as represented, and ask for patronage strictly on its merits.

TESTING OUR BLACKING.—A gentleman from the country called this morning at the counter of Mr. Young, the bookseller of this city, and asked for a ream of "Beecher note paper." The gentleman clerk somewhat puzzled handed down an elegant assortment. The customer looked suspiciously at the smooth and glossy specimens, and declared that none would answer. "I want," said he, "the Beecher note paper ragged-edged, so that whatever I write on it, it will mean something else." The clerk reported to Mr. Young, and the customer took that opportunity to slip out at the door. Troy Press
