THE WEEKLY MAGAZINE—This Magazine published by Miss A. Dow, Boston Mass., is now in its fiftieth year. It is a sixty column Magazine, and furnished with each number a page of the choicest music. There are no continued stories all are concluded in the paper in which they begin. The price of the paper is $5.00 for 12 $3 for 6 $1.50 for 3 months.

A Card.

I take pleasure in stating to the public, that I have not located in Warrenton, as reported.

I shall continue to visit Louisburg and Warrenton alternately, until induced by a larger practice to make either place my home. Then, among my most liberal patrons will I remain.

Very respectfully,
ROBERT E. KING.

NOTICE.

Strayed off or was stolen from my farm near Whitakers Mill Nash Co., on the 22nd inst., a very fine black mare Mule, closely compact, in fine order, and having a brand on her left jaw, which represents as O.

Any one giving information in regard to her whereabouts, shall receive a handsome reward.

MOSES MOORE,

IS YOUR LIFE WORTH 10 CENTS? Sickness prevails everywhere, and everybody complains of some disease during their life. When sick, the object is to get well; now we say plainly that no person in this world that is suffering with Dyspepsia, Liver complaint and its effects, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Heart burn, Palpitation of the Heart, Depressed Spirits, Biliousness, &c., can take GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER without getting relief and cure. If you doubt this, go to your Druggist DR. J. B. CLIFTON and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Regular size 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you.

Mr. Jasper Murphy killed 3 large moccasins on last Saturday.

Judge Watt's monkey paid a visit to our town on last Friday.

Judge Watts, was in town on Saturday last, as will be seen from our notice of the radical meeting.

The foundation for Messrs. Terrell & Harris new Brick Store, on Main street, has been finished.

The 3rd quarterly meeting for this Station will be held on next Saturday and Sunday. Rev. J. P. Moore, P. E.

Rev. Wm. B. Royall, will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday at this place at 11 o'clock A. M. and 8 P. M.

Willis Sanders and Jessie Hinnant, have been nominated by the Conservatives of Johnston County for the Convention.

Honl. David S. Reid and Maj. J. Turner Morehead have been nominated for the Convention by the Conservatives of Rockingham.

Ten Penitentiary Convicts arrived here last week, to work on the new bridge. They take up their residence every night at the new granite house, in the eastern part of the town.

Mr. W. H. H. Lane of New York, was in our place last week, for the purpose of making arrangements with Mr. W. W. Jones, the Past Master, for fitting up his new office with lock boxes &c. It will compare favorably, when completed, with any office in the State.

Mr. T. N. Carlile, one of our oldest and most respected merchants, has been very sick for the past week, his condition is still very critical. We hope however that he may recover and be spared to his family, and the community for a long time yet.

Said a colored Georgia preacher; Dar's robbin and stealin, all around, Dar's de Beecher business, de Wood-hull business, Sumner is dead, tamedoes come whoppin' de Freedmens bank has busted, and it, pears as if de end was nigh, mighty close at hand.

The committee appointed by the Board of County Commissioners, to examine the accounts of the Register and Poor House Keeper, are making some startling discoveries. Just as soon as they make their report to the Board, we will publish it entire in the COURIER.

A Milwaukee chap kissed his girl about forty times right straight along, and when he stopped the tears came into her eyes, and she said in a sad tone of voice: "Ah! John, I fear you have ceased to love me." "No I have not replied John," "but I must breathe."

PERSONAL—Our young friend and townsman, Herbert Barrow, has just returned from Trinity College where he has been attending school for some time. Mr. Willie Egerton of our County is also at home spending his vacation, he has been attending school at Wake Forest College. We hope both of our young friends will have a pleasant time during their vacation.

REV. E. N. JOYNER—It was our pleasure to hear this young divine preach at St. Pauls Episcopal Church, on last Sabbath evening. Mr. Joyner, who resided with his parents for several years in our town, attending school, afterwards returned to Pitt county, where he prepared himself for the Ministry. He with his wife is spending some time in our town, and is the guests of Mr. C. D. Malone.

TO NEWSPAPER MEN.—Any good man wishing to engage in the newspaper business can, with small cash capital secure the press, type, fixtures and good will of the Concord Star. For particulars, address John R. Harris, Concord, N. C. The press of North Carolina is requested to copy this notice, the property being that of the late C. F. Harris.

Women require more sleep than men, and farmers less than those engaged in other occupations. Editors, reporters, printers and telegraph operators require no sleep at all. Lawyers can sleep as much as they choose, as they will thus be kept out of mischief. Clergymen are allowed to sleep 24 hours, and to put their parishioners to sleep once a week.

ONE MORE PIC-NIC UP THE RIVER.

The Friends of Temperance & Good Templars combined, will give a Pic-Nic at Cedar Spring, about two and half miles up the River, Friday June 25th, all wishing to participate are respectfully invited to attend, and earnestly requested to bring a basket. Those wishing to go through the country can do so. The Steamer will leave the Wharf at 8 o'clock. A large crowd is anticipated.

P. H. SMITH,
Chairman Committee.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.—Maj. W. F. Green has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for Convention in Franklin. We make this announcement with peculiar pleasure. Maj. Green will have but few superiors in the State Convention to which he will surely be elected, for the white men of Franklin never fail to do their duty. They threw off the Radical yoke at the last election forever, and in August, we feel confident they will add fresh laurels to their well-earned honors by electing Maj. Green by an increased majority.—Wilson Advance.

WHAT LOVE IS TO A WOMAN—What a wonderful thing love is to a woman! How it helps her to know that some one is always fond of her; that rejoices when she rejoices, and sorrows when she grieves; to be sure that her faults are loved, and her face is fairer to one, at least, than faces far more beautiful—that one great heart holds her sacred in its innermost recesses above all women. She can do any thing, be any thing, suffer any thing thus upheld. She grows prettier under the sweet influence, brighter, kinder stronger; and life seems to be a forest of heaven; and all of her dreams are gold.

SOUTHERN ILLUSTRATED

AGE!

Raleigh, N. C.

The only ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY in the South. Eight pages. Forty columns. Containing more reading matter than any weekly published in the Southern States. The first number of the SOUTHERN ILLUSTRATED AGE will be issued on Saturday, 26th day of June, 1875.

The Publisher intends making it an illustrated record of the times. It will treat of every topic, Political, Historical, literary, and Scientific, which is of current interest, and give the best illustrations that can be obtained, original or foreign.

The SOUTHERN ILLUSTRATED AGE will be printed on new type, and heavy book paper.

On its list of contributors will be found the names of many of the best writers in the South. Serial and short stories, poems and sketches, and well conducted editorial departments giving the latest personal literary, scientific, political religious and commercial intelligence, will furnish every week an amount of reading matter unsurpassed by other papers, in excellence and variety. It is intended to make the SOUTHERN ILLUSTRATED AGE a journal for the friends; several columns will be specially devoted to all subjects pertaining to domestic and social life. No family should be without it. Subscription price only $2 per annum. Postage free.
