The COURIER for the Campaign only FIFTY CENTS. Let every Demo-cratic in the County subscribe at once.

We call especial attention to the advertisement of Mr. M. S. Davis, Principal of the Louisburg Male Academy.

Col. R. W. Sing etary, Editor of the Wilson Plain Dealer, has been nom-inated for the Convention in Wilson county.

The first cotton bloom of the season, in this county, was sent us by Maj. Thomas of Cedar Rock, it bloomed on the 2nd, it was of the Pierce variety.

The Oxford Torch-Light will be is-sued daily during the session of the Methodist District Conference, which meets in that place soon, price for the session 15cts.

We are exposing in every paper, the corruption and extravagance of our coun-ty officials, subscribers and learn how your county has been swindled and cheated out of the money that has been wrung from you as taxes.

Clubs of subscribers to the COUR-IER, are coming in every week, but we have a large mailing book and have room for more.

In making the excavation for one of the pillars of the new bridge at this place, the workmen dug up a solid stump about twenty feet under ground.

Vote for Col. W. F. Green and re-formation—against B. F. Bullock Jr., who is in favor of the present constitu-tion put upon us by a military author-ity, and is in many respects unsuited to the wants of our people.

APPOINTED.—John A. Hyman has caused one Plummer, a negro from Warren county, to be appointed route or mail agent between Wilmington and Weldon. He succeeds Mr. Robinson, and took his place the first July.

Does the negro intend to continue to occupy the back seat in the Rad-ical party? He has already been pro-scribed as the white Radical, and will never do to run a nigger he will get beat on every all hand.

Is it absolutely certain that Judge Watts the King of the Franklinton Clique and Halifax Candidate voted for John Williamson last year for the Legislature? He did not en-lighten the people on this point the day he was here and nominated Mr. Bullock.

Remember citizens of Franklin that the Tax list cost the county $1013.60 before it reached the Sheriffs hands. —Was there ever such extravagance in a county? Verily, the county officials groweth fat on the hard earned money of the people.

$94,000 County taxes wrung from the impoverished people of our county in the last six years. In this amount is not included the Sheriffs commis-sions, which added to it will swell the amount to over $100,000. "How long, oh! how long?"

The people of Franklin have paid into the county treasury in the past six years, over $94,000. Where, oh! where has it gone. Very little of it spent on public improvements. The eyes of the county officials stick out with fatness, while the people mourn under the heavy burden placed upon them. Shall these things continue?

The Ladies will give a Musical Con-cert at the College Chapel on the 13th Inst., for the benefit of the Episcopal Church at this place. We feel per-fectly safe in saying that the enter-tainment will be replete in every particular. Then the cause is a most laudable one, and we bespeak for the ladies who have it in charge, a full house.

The present Constitution has per-haps no greater deficiency than that of its provisions concerning the franchise. No man who has committed a crime and been disgraced by punishment therefor should vote. And no man who does not contribute to the common fund for support of government, which defends him and protects his interests, should have a voice in determining the affairs of State and nation—unless abject poverty combined with physical infirmity (disease or old age) shall honorably exempt him from his obli-gation.—Star.

THE JAIL COMPLETED.—Mr. W. J. Dunn has just put the finishing touch to the jail and yard in the shape of a substantial granite wall about 130 feet long in front of the yard, which makes a beautiful side walk. Mr. Dunn is a thorough master of his trade, and fills his contracts faithfully. We hope that he may get sufficient work here to jus-tify him in making Louisburg his home.

WHAT ONE CHECK DID.—[From the New Haven "Journal and Courier."]—As an instance of what one check ac-complished, and how its meanderings terminated, it is stated that one was drawn by a prominent gentleman of this city about two weeks ago for about $800, and was passed by the endorser to a lumber firm in this city. From thence it went to seven other concerns, and finally found its way to the original endorser of it. The last endorser happened to be one who was in arrears to the drawer, and seeing his name to the check and the rounds the check had gone and the good it had done, concluded he would "do something" handsome to the drawer, and paid it over. That check liqui-dated several thousand dollars worth of accounts.

SENSIBLE WORDS ABOUT ADVERTISING.—The following is from the financial article of the New Orleans Picayune: The people who sit nervously in counting-houses, or behind their goods, waiting for customers to take them by storm, and making no efforts to let the world know the bar-gains they have to offer, will find the season very unpropitious. Many of those who have spent large sums in hiring drummers and paying for other well known appliances of trade, have effected large sales but swallowed up too large a share of the receipts in such enormous attendant expenses.—The best remuneration has been found by those who have retained to more legitimate old-fashioned methods of pushing their business. We say it, not simply because we are interested in this line of expenditure, but as our best advice to all who wish to be enterpris-ing and to secure a larger custom: there is nothing now so effective to this end as judicious advertising. A little advertisement may be like a gentle touch of the whip to poor Dobbin's horse, "a mercy thrown away;" but a liberal outlay is almost certain to bring in a large return, and this will last even beyond the current season. We do not believe that any one who has valuable service or desirable property to offer can fail of reaping a rich harvest by continuous advertising on a large scale.

Ordered by the Board of County Commissioners, that the above reward of $500 will be paid to any person who will furnish evidence sufficient to se-cure the conviction of the party or parties guilty of changing or altering Coun-ty Orders.

In as much County Orders have been altered, thereby practicing a fraud upon the County, the Board of Commissioners this day direct the Clerk to issue a public notice through the "COURIER," and Posters to each Township, requesting all persons holding COUNTY ORDERS issued prior to July 1st 1875, to present them to the Register of Deeds for Reg-istration.

Having bought and renovated the very desirable plantation formerly owned by Maj. D. S. Hill. I now offer it for sale on reasonable terms.
