Vote for Col. W. F. Green, and reform. $2.00 per annum is the price of the COURIER.

The crops are looking well in this section. They have all returned, and report that they had a very nice time.

The full session of Mr. M. S. Davis' school, opened on Monday last.

Mr. W. H. Farnam has been appointed Registrar for this township.

If you wish reform and a better system of government, vote for Col. W. F. Green for the convention.

The COURIER for the Convention only FIFTY CENTS. Let every Democrat in the County subscribe at once.

Don't fail to Register. The books are open at the office of Mr. W. H. Farnam the Registrar, in the Court House.

If you wish a change in the present extravagant system of State and county government, vote for Col. W. F. Green, the Democratic Candidate for the Convention.

We are exposing in every paper, the corruption and extravagance of our county officials, subscribe and learn how your county has been swindled and cheated out of the money that has been wrung from you as taxes.

It cost under the present system of government $37.50 to send notices to the different poll keepers in the ten townships in this County, of their appointment. Another reason for changing the present system of government.

Clubs of subscribers to the COURIER, are coming in every week, but we have a large mailing book and have room for more. Friends don't cease your efforts, until the COURIER is put in every family in the county.

Vote for Col. W. F. Green and reform against B. F. Bullock Jr., who is in favor of the present constitution put upon us by a binary authority, and is in many respects misguided to the wants of our people.

$24,000 County taxes wrung from the impoverished people of our county in the last six years. In this amount is not included the Sheriff's commissions, which added to it will swell the amount to over $100,000. How long, oh! how long?

Does the negro intend to continue to occupy the back seat in the Railroad? He has already been prohibited from the white Radica. He will never do to run a nigger he will get ben as we at hand. How many of their white men can get elected without the negro vote?

To be removed to Richmond. The Charlotte Democrat has the following to say of a rumored change of officials:

We learn reliably that, some time next week, the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company will move all the officers of the North Carolina Railroad, from Company Shops to Richmond.

We call attention to the Carl of Dr's Malone. They have opened an office on market street. It is unnecessary for us to say anything about the proficiency of Dr. Ellis Malone as a Physician, for he has an experience of 40 years, and is thoroughly skilled in his profession. His son Dr. Ellis Malone Jr., has recently graduated at the New York College of Medicine, and with such an adviser as his father, will attain to eminence in his profession.

It is with pain we chronicle the death of Mr. Cyrus Harris, which occurred on Saturday the 3rd Inst. Mr. Harris was well and favorably known and beloved by the people of Franklinton. He was for a number of years engaged in the mercantile business in this place, and after retiring from business, settled on his farm about seven miles from town where he lived until he was called to that reward which is reserved for the faithful.

He was a good man, and Franklinton county sustains a heavy loss in his death. To his family in this their heavy affliction, we tender our sincere and heartfelt sympathy.

A MILLION DOLLAR WEDDING PRESENT.—Miss Alice M. Singer, daughter of the sewing machine inventor, was married on Wednesday in South Doyon, England, to W. A. P. La Grove, formerly of Brooklyn. It is stated that the bride's dowry is one million dollars, in addition to which she received ten thousand dollars worth of diamonds. Her wedding dress cost one thousand dollars, and each of the six brides-maids received a dress worth two hundred and fifty dollars from Mr. Singer.

LAST OF THE SWAMP ANGEL.—Geo. Applewhite the Roberson county outlaw, better known as the Lowery Gang, was arrested in Goldsboro on Thursday last. He had been lurking around that place, under the name of William Jackson, for three or four years. He is under sentence of death but he will have to be re-sentenced before being hung. There was a reward of $6,000 by the State and $200 by the county of Robeson which his captors will doubtless get. Roanoke News.

THE ENTERTAINMENT AT THE COLLEGE LAST NIGHT.—The Art Exhibition by Prof. Griswold, of Petersburg, at the College Chapel last night, for the benefit of St. Pauls Church—was indeed worth seeing.

From what we had heard of the character of Prof. Griswold and of his Exhibition, gotten up for the entertainment of the pupils of his school. We were prepared to see something rare, but our expectations were more than realized. He has kindly consented to give us another exhibition on this Friday night, the proceeds to be applied for the benefit of St. Pauls Church. The price of admission is only twenty five cents. We would advise all of our people especially the younger members of our community to go and see for themselves.

JAIL DELIVERY.—There was a general jail delivery at Elizabeth town, in Bladen county, last Sunday afternoon, three of the four prisoners confined therein, all of whom were colored, having escaped. The one who remained behind, Henry Clark by name, refused to escape. The names of the others we did not learn.

The escape was made by boring through the floor with a pair of old scissors, and it is supposed that they had been at the work for three or four weeks. The Jailor was absent in Fayetteville at the delivery. Two of the escaping prisoners had been committed for Jarceny and the third for the want of a bond for good behavior. [Wilmington Journal.]

NOT SOCIABLE.—Our constable, Thos. J. Fields, having employed a negro man to work on the farm for him last week, took the "Sable gemmen" up to eat at his table. Now it happens that Tom's "frow" is not bright complexioned, and the guest, hearing Fields call the black woman wife, took him to one side and seriously said: "Mr. Fields, I like you, I do, but I be danged if I can eat at your table no longer. Nor can I work for no white man who has a nigger for a wife." Tom saw the joke, but could not persuade "nig" that he (Tom) was a "cultid pusson." Roanoke News.

MINISTERIAL.—Rev. R. C. Sandling, of Franklinton, N. C., preached at the Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. E. Howell, the pastor, is now in Raleigh under the treatment of a physician, and Mr. Sandling is in this section filling his appointments.—Mr. S. has been attending Wake Forest College for several years and was not ordained as a preacher until last Sunday two weeks ago, consequently his sermon last Sunday was his debut under the title of Rev. He is a bright looking young man, but of a reticent nature. His sermon was delivered with much force and all that heard it seemed well pleased and listened to it with interest. We trust his Baptist friends will give him due attention while in our midst. P. Press.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL.—Maj. Avery, of Hillsborough was in town on Saturday last.

Miss Mary Haywood of Petersburg, is spending some time in our town, she is visiting Mrs. Thomas White.

Mr. James McCulloch of Somerville Tenn. is spending some time in our town.

Miss Mary Yines of Edgemont is on a visit to her friends the Misses Cooke of this place.

Miss Florence Davis, daughter of Mr. M. S. Davis of this place, is spending her vacation at home. She has been attending school at the Peace Institute, Raleigh.

Miss Louise Perry, who has been attending school in Petersburg, is spending some time in our town, she is visiting Miss Katie Davis.

RETURNED.—Mr. Thomas White, who has been on a trip to Old Point, where he has been luxuriating in sea-baths, returned last week, and is looking well.

Rev. Mr. Primrose, preached in the M. E. Church at 11 o'clock on Sunday Morning last, and in the Presbyterian Church at 4 o'clock P. M.

Rev. M. H. Vaughn, Rector of St. Pauls Church at this place, was too unwell to fill his pulpit on last Sunday. We hope him a speedy recovery from his sickness.

Our young friends, Jammie White & Robert Davis, who have been absent for some time attending the school of W. G. McCabe in Petersburg, are spending their vacation at home. A pleasant time to them.

MAYORS COURT.—On Tuesday last Nellie, Ann Eliza and J. Gill were before his honor Mayor Williamson, for disturbing the peace and quiet of the town, by engaging in a fistfight about day break Saturday Morning. Nellie was discharged while Ann Eliza and John each had to contribute $5 to swell the town Treasury.

BEETS.

There are several kinds of beets—there is the red beet, the white beet, the yellow beet, the blood beet, the sugar beet, the big beet, the little beet, and the beet—but of these we are not now going to speak, for they are of the vegetable kingdom. We want to say a few words of that lowest of all beets the "Dead Beet." The Dead Beet comes in the shape of human, but is not; he comes to you with pitiful tales and weeping; generally he has been badly treated in some distant city; perhaps he has been sick, which causes his dirty, filthy look, his torn and tattered garments; he has walked several hundred miles looking for a situation where with he can "earn his bread by the sweat of his brow," and most generally when he gets a job will work a day or two, draw his pay, buy whiskey, leave his board bill unsettled, and between the setting of one sun and the rising of another, will, like the Arabs of old, "silently steal away." But, woe to one of the inmates of the place at which he stopped if their doors should be unlocked—and it is surprising how easy they enter a trunk that is locked and the key in the pocket of the owner, but such is the fact. They will not only carry away clothes that will fit them, but will take those that are too short, too long, too large and too small; for instance, did they have a No. 7 1-2 head they would hide away with a No. 6 7-8 hat, or had they a No. 11 foot pair of No. 4 boots would go with them. This we have written as an introductory to a little squib about upon our streets, &c. About three weeks ago a person came to our beau lieu little town from a neighboring county, and procured a situation from one of the leading firms here. Shortly after he sent for three more of his chums who came with the purpose, they said, of settling in our town, provided they could find employment. Our hospitable landlord of the Eagle, who has not the heart to turn a man from his door, took them in and kindly cared for them—giving them one of the best rooms in the house, in fact, the "Bridal Chamber"—and went to work immediately to try and find some employment for the pitiful looking beets, he was successful, and two days after they arrived here were seen at work upon one of the many improvements that are going on here now, but their conduct was such that the gentleman who had hired them discharged them. Our indefatigable landlord heard of it and immediately sent them word to leave his premises, and the servant returned saying that they had heaped curses upon his innocent head. Mr. Green then went and to his gratification found that they had saved him the trouble of kicking them out. This was before sundown. Mr. Green left his house for a short while, about supper time, and these same sharp, shrewd beets went in and got their supper. In the meantime the one who had first come had been discharged from the position he had occupied, for his employers thought of the old adage "that birds of a feather flock together." After having gotten their supper, they went to the room of one of the boarders, who had been absent in the country several days and donned his best clothes filled his own valise with his clothes, appropriated his hat, and broke open his trunk and took therefrom all of his under clothing except one calico shirt, and left for parts unknown. He says that if they will return his "reports," which are in the valise, he will send them the key by mail. They also visited the room of another young man and stole a set of shirt buttons and pair of shears. And now these young men have been saying bad words about the whole company and wishing them anything but a level path through life.
