GEORGE S. BAKER,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

All letters addressed to
GEO. S. BAKER,

FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1875.

FOR THE

Convention, COL. W. F. GREEN.

Bullock the Bull fulminator wants the people whom he attempted to disfranchise to send him to the Convention. They won't do it.

Judge Watts the man that nominated Mr. Bullock, has not yet informed the people whether he voted for Jno. H. Williamson the Republican nominee for the Legislature last year.—Speak out Judge.

We are not aware that Mr. Bullock has yet informed the colored people for whom he voted last year for the House of Representatives. Some of them would like to know. Mr. Bullock of course will inform them.

The Conservative Party spent less in running the State Government for four years than the Radical party did in running it two years. Conservatives spent in four years $945,381.99. The Radicals spent in two years $981,163.80 or $35,781.81 more in two, than the Democrats did in four years.

Do the people of Frank in want to continue to pay $1000 per year to have their tax list made out? If so then vote for Mr. Bullock the office holder Candidate. If not vote for Col. Green the citizens candidate. The man who cant touch you in the way of heavy taxes without hurting himself.

Vote for Green and let Franklin have in the Convention a peer for Graham, Clogman, Coleman, Gilmer, Johnston, Shober, Battle, Gales, Worth, Manning, Reid, Morehead, Bennett, Bunn and other distinguished North Carolinians who will be there, to add lustre to a brilliant array of names that adorn the political history of our State.

Under the old Constitution it required only one man in each District to take the Tax list, at a cost of six dollars to the county. Under this present system it requires three men to do the same work, at a cost of eight hundred dollars. Does not every man in the County wish reform in this particular? Then vote for Col. W. F. Green, the Democratic Candidate for the Convention.

Do you want Judge Watts fastened upon you again, for another Eight year term or possibly for life, or what you may think worse a negro Judge? If so, then vote for Bullock, Judge Watts and the office holders candidate. If not then vote for Col. Green the friend of good government, and who will do all that he can to give us a good Judiciary system, administered by learned and pure judges.

If you fail to vote you do just half as much to elect Judge Watts candidate as if you voted for him. Will you assist in anyway? We answer for you. No!

Read This without fail.

It is a fact that in every county in the State, where the Conservative party has been in power, the counties are out of debt, and their paper is readily taken at face value, and a number of them have from Ten to twenty thousand dollars in Bank. And in every county where the Radical party has been in power, the county scrip has been at a discount, and nearly every county has asked for a special tax, to feed and fatten the corrupt officials who hold the offices. These are facts.

Bring out the Vote.

The Wilmington Star rightly says: Don't stop now to discuss the particular amendments to the Constitution that are necessary or desirable. It is too late in the campaign for prolix arguments or elaborate discussions.—The correct thing now is to urge on our people the importance of going to the polls. Don't tell them how bad the present Constitution is, but how much worse it will be, if by our own supineness, we permit the Radicals to elect a majority of the delegates.

Of course, no man in whose behalf a commission de Veritas inquiritudo has not already been appointed inquires for a single moment that the Radicals, in case they could control the Convention would meet and immediately adjourn without interfering with the Constitution. They would do no such thing. They would add to the enormities of the present Constitution and then rely on the prestige of their victory in the August election to secure an endorsement of their work at the hands of the people.

ARE YOU READY?

Citizens of Franklin, are you ready to perform the solemn and responsible duty that will be demanded of you by your suffering County on the 5th day of August, prox? Are the lines all closed up? Do our columns present an unbroken front on every side?—These are questions that it behooves every Democrat and Conservative in our county,—Every man who loves his country and desires to see the land in which his lot is cast, redeemed, and reclaimed from the thralldom of despair and gloom that has overspread it with the pall of midnight darkness for the eight years last past, to answer for himself. We have been fighting a merciless and unprincipled foe for these many long and weary years. At times our banners have trailed in the dust of defeat. But undismayed our ranks have after every reverse closed solidly up, and challenged the enemy to combat again. Last year we gained a victory over the enemy. We sent to Raleigh, to represent us in the Legislature two, of our most gifted and esteemed fellow citizens. With the assistance of our neighbor counties we sent to the lower house of the National Legislature another distinguished and able citizen of our County, the Hon. J. J. Davis.

This was cause for much rejoicing. We have now another great work to perform. The temple of our liberties is to be readjusted, and made to conform with our wants and needs. For that purpose the good men of Franklin have chosen an able and gifted citizen to perform our part of that work. And shall the man who has been designated by the citizens of the County, Wm. F. Green, or the man whom Judge Watts, the bribe taker, has selected to go there be commissioned to perform that work? Let this corrupt functionary and his satellites have a decided and withering rebuke administered to them for their dictation by selecting Col. W. F. Green as our Delegate by an overwhelming majority. Before we shall again greet our readers the issue will have been decided. We have an abiding faith in the patriotism and integrity of the people of Franklin. They have ever stood in solid phalanx against the cohorts of tyranny and corruption. We believe they will do so now. We ask, beg and beseech every man through whose veins courses the blood of the white man to come up to the help of his country.

Put down the Civil Righters!
Put out the thieves!
Mend the house so they cannot break through and steal your substance!
Rebuke the advocates of social equality.
Denounce by your vote the attempts made to bring about an intermingling of the races. Shall we eat in vain? We believe not. The matter is with you. Bring in your verdict. We believe it will be all right.

Judge Watts and the Halifax Nomination.

Judge Watts didn't want the nomination from Halifax, oh, no! He said prior to the nominating convention for that county, in which he was sadly and injuriously defeated, that there was a want of harmony in that county between the carpet-bag (Larkin and Franklin) the scallowag (Goodwyn & Co.) and the negro element, and they wanted what they didn't have "a man of distinction and ability" to come in and pour oil upon the troubled waters, and hence he supposed "he would have to accept the nomination" from Halifax. His condescension, however didn't work worth a cuss, as the scallowag element (Goodwyn) left him far behind. Your "distinction and ability" Mr. Judge Samivel, will have to seek another field in which to be aired. We are a little sorry at this result, as His Honor's (heaven save the mark) monkey actions in the Convention would have served to enliven the sometimes dull hours of all legislative bodies.

Raleigh News.

The Duchess' watch.

When Queen Victoria was about thirty years younger than she is now, she was inclined to be very exact in the way of business, and more especially in the way of promptness to appointed times and places. Seven years a queen; four years a wife; and three years a mother, she felt probably a more weighty dignity resting upon her than she has felt since. And yet, no crust of dignity or royal station could ever entirely shut out her innate goodness of heart. At the time of which we speak, the Duchess of Sutherland held the office of mistress of the robes of the British queen, and on public occasions her position was very near her royal person, and of great importance. A day and an hour had been appointed for a certain public ceremony in which the queen was to take part. The hour had arrived, and all of all the court the duchess alone was absent, and her absence retarded the departure. The queen gave vent more than once to her impatience, and at length just as she was about to enter the carriage without her first lady of honor, the duchess, in breathless haste, made her appearance, stammering some faint words of excuse. "My dear duchess" said the queen, smiling, "I think you must have a bad watch." And as she thus spoke she unlocked from her neck the chain of a magnificent watch she herself wore and passed it around the neck of Lady Sutherland. Though given as a present, the lesson conveyed with it made a deep impression. The proud duchess changed color, and a tear which she could not repress, fell upon her cheek. On the next day she tendered her resignation, but it was not accepted. It is said that ever afterwards she was it anything more punctual than the queen herself.

ADVICE FOR DULL TIMES.—Advertising is a great bother. It only brings a lot of folks to your place of business. If they want you, let them hunt you up. Then if you get your name in the paper you will be bored with drummers, and people from the country will call on you and you will have to show them goods, and like enough have to do up bundles for them, which will exhaust your stock so much that you will be obliged to buy more goods, which is a greater trouble. If you advertise too, it gives place a reputation abroad folks will go there and crowd you and make it too lively. If you don't want to do anything, keep still as you can.

WANTED TO KNOW.—If the heart that failed ever resumed payment.

If the person who was bent on mischief hurt his back.

If the dying embers of a fire experienced any pain in their last moments.

If the wheel of fortune is attached to a cart or wagon.

If the person who collected his thoughts used his hands.

If the man who swallowed his temper suffered from indigestion.

Who stopped the man who let his thoughts run away with him.

If the man who drowns his troubles in drink is guilty of murder.

Can a gentleman be accused of "larceny from the person" if he takes a lady's hand?

If the lap of luxury wears an apron.

If the girl that clings to hope has not a slippery hold.

If the person who was buried in thought prefers that way of interment to a grave.
