The following telegram received Wednesday night:

RALEIGH, N. C. Aug. 11th.

Democrats elect sixty—Gov. Graham dead takes off one. Republicans elect fifty-nine. One independent.

J. STONE. The independent is Dr. Ransom, of Tyrrell.

Considerable freshet in the river this week. The ferrymen are driving a brisk business.

Rev. F. L. Reid, Pastor of the M. E. Church at this place, left on Monday for the Mountains, where he will remain for several weeks. There will be no service in his Church during his absence.

Clubs of subscribers to the COURIER, are coming in every week, but we have a large mailing book and have room for more. Friends don't cease your efforts, until the COURIER is put in every family in the county.

One of the Penitentiary convicts, at work on the bridge at this place, made good his escape on Monday last. Swap your striped breeches and keep going, don't stop short of Liberia, if you please.

Some of the streets in the upper part of the town, are in very bad repair, deep ruts and gulleys having been washed out by the recent rains. Economy by working them before they get worse.

Court Street, could be greatly improved in appearance if that pile of old barrels, which has blocked it so long, were removed. Raise the blockade.

We had the pleasure of seeing in our place on Saturday last, Mr. Geo. W. Blount of Wilson, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of this State, he was on his way to Nash Court.

FROM FRANKLINTON.—Smith the House mover has been here and turned things about so as to make quite a change in the appearance of places and things. The store formerly occupied by Henly & Ward, has been removed across to Main street, and is to front like the stores on either side, viz: J. G. Stanton & W. L. McGee, making quite an improvement.

PERSONAL.—J. B. Lewis, of Macon, Ga., arrived in town on Saturday last. He is on a visit to his sisters. The Col. looks like the woman has been dealing kindly towards him.

Mr. Jno. E. Thomas, left Tuesday morning for the Springs, we hope he will return fully restored to health.

Mrs. T. H. Gatlin of Tarboro, is spending some time in our town, she is visiting Mr. C. M. Cooke's family.

Miss Mary Lewis of Raleigh is on a visit here to her Aunts, Miss Pattie and Maria Lewis.

Miss Bettie Clifton of Roanoke is visiting her Bro. Mr. Y. B. Clifton, of this place.

Mr. James F. Tanner, of Saundersville, Ga., is visiting our young friend Herbert Barrow.

Mr. Willie Arrington of Petersburg, is on a visit to his kinsman Mr. Arthur Arrington, near this place.

RADICAL OUTRAGE.—A Radical negro, name Lem Barnes, was arrested and brought before Justice Barnes on Monday for assaulting another negro, Willis Simms, because Simms refused to vote the Radical Ticket. Barnes was fined $25 and committed to jail for nonpayment of cost.

Wilson Advance.

RADICAL ROW.—We learn that some low down negro kicked up a row at Marlboro, in Pitt county, with the whites last Friday. The result was three negroes got shot, before the difficulty could be quelled. Two were only slightly wounded, the other seriously, though not dangerously.

Wilson Advance.

The report of the census-taker of Buffalo shows what the people there die of. Cases of "typhoid fever," "rheumatism," "heart disease," "paralysis," "teething," "colic," "erepsias," "cancer," and "bowl complaint," have been quite common, and the city seems not to have been wholly free from "sewing ears each," but no fatal cases are reported. It isn't every doctor, by any means, who can handle the orthography of medicine as skillfully as that census taker does.

Courier Journal.

Some of the company at tea with a Danbury family spoke of the excellence of the honey, whereupon the head of the house, who stands in reputed dread of his wife, tellingly said "honey is the most delicious of all delicacies. It is the nectar of beautiful flowers from brilliant petals by the never tiring bee, and moulded into glory that would tempt the god of—'Ephraim' enunciated his wife with stern solemnity, have you been drinking against Ephraim groaned,
