NEW POST OFFICE. -Mr. W. W. Jones. the acting Post Master of this place, moved in his new brick office on Main street, on Tuesday last. This is a very handsome office, sufficiently large and conveniently arranged.

Hon. J. J. Davis Congressman from this District, who has been spending several weeks here with his family, returned on Tuesday last to assume ngain his duties in Congress. The people of North Carolina have no better or more faithful representative than Capt. Davis.

We call attention to the Advertisement of the Louisburg Female Seminary, Miss C. A. Crenshaw, principal Miss Creushaw is a thorough scholar, having graduated at one of the first colleges in the State, and has had large experience in teaching. Send to her for circular, and get terms for board and tuition.

A burglarous attempt was malit on Messrs. Person & Upperman's store on Friday night last, they succeeded in breaking one of the locks, and also in tearing off some of the weather-boarding. The thieves were frightened off and in their hurry to get off dropped their axe, which is in possession of Mr. Upperman now.

MESSRS. A. D. ROYSTER & BRO -It give us pleasure to note the growing popularity of this house. The Confectioneries Manufactured by them cannot be excelled. Their prices are as low as the manufacturers North, and their goods all warrented to be of superior quality: Orders will receive prompt attention. So get good Canday at low prices and save freight by ordering from A. D. Royster & Bro., Raleigh, N. C.

THE FAIR AND FESTIVAL .- We have never been a very great admirer of Church Fairs. For our experience in this line of business has been that they are anything but fair, but just the reverse, exceedingly unfair, Our prejudices have been removed, by the conduct of the one given by the Ladius of the Methodist Church of this place on Christmas eve. Everything so far as we were able to see and learn, was conducted fairly and full value was given every buyer for his money. The Court room, where the Fair was held, was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, phantom baskets of the most artistic anish, were houg in tast in the hall. while, tidies, pin oushions, needle cases, embroided sacques, toilet sets. &c, &c., were arranged in order at the several sale-stands. The supper was bountiful and beautiful. The Post Office Department and the Fishing pool served to bring forth many merry peals of laughter. It was s grand success, both financially and socially, The amount realized was $150, net, MRER, you wright the s club of 5 at 88.00. Adults

THE COURIER IN NEW DRESS: -The COURTER goes forth this week in almost entire new dress. The type have been selected with special reference to distinctness and clearness, so that it can be read with case and not hurt the eyes. We feel satisfied that the people of Franklin will appreciate this effort on our part to give them a good paper. On the outside the sparkling and interesting story from the per of "Ethel," of Louisburg, entitled "Unto the End," will be found and read with interest by all, while the selections are from the very best writers in the land. On the juside will be found in condensed form, news items from all parts of the country. The County news is a specialty with us. We spare no pains or labor to make this department full and interesting. There is also a space for State news; wit and humor, fashion notes &c. Subscribe now for the Courier and it will be two dollars well spent.

SNIPE HUNTERS -On Saturday night a number of fun loving young men, started out for Fox Swamp to bunt snipe. At the nost important stand they placed a certain young man, (who is clerking for a large house in town) with alarge meal bag, for the snipe to enter, they then cut down a large quantity of brush and entirely conceated the young aran with the manl bag from view, and after giving him all the necessary matructions. they left him for the purpose, as they said, of driving the birds in the snare. The young man waited patiently, but no birds came, and after setting in his blind till the "wee sma" hours of morning, concluded to go and hunt for his companions, when lo! he found that they had left him alone with the bag to hold. He finally succeeded in finding his way home, where his comparions had been comfortably snoozing for several hours. The advice we give to our young friend is, that when he goes sniping again, to look sharpe and not get sniped,

CHRISTMAS TREE.—On Christmas

night the Methodist Sabbath School of this place prepared a beautiful

Christmas Tree for the benefit of the children of the school, at which we had the pleasure of being present .-We have seen many beautiful Christmas Tree's, but this was the most beautiful one we ever saw. The shape of the tree, the decorations and the arrangement of the presents for the children all conspired to make it a most beautiful scene. The exercises were opened with a beautiful Christmas anthem by the school; the Pastor of the Methodist Church then came forward and took from the tree two elegant silver cups and presented them as prizes, for the best scholarship and the most punctual attendance, to Jos. J. Barrow and Frank P. Williams, stating at the same time that these too had not missed a single recitation, or a single question in a recitation during the year. They deserved the prizes they received. He also stated that Herbert Brown was entitled to a prize for bringing in the largest number of new scholars, and from some over sight the prize was not on hand, but would be delivered, for which negligence he begged pardon. After another song by the children the teachers laid violent hands on the tree and stripped it of all its beautiful presents and distributed them among the children and made them happy. which fact was indicated by their smiling faces and sparkling eyes as they received them. After the tree was stripped we could but linger in gazing where so short a time before was so much beauty, and we found deep down in our heart s wish that we were a boy again and a sabbath school boy at that. Children that are thus trained and treated, ought and surely will make good men and wo-

Items of Interest.

The past year has been one marked with extraordinary prosperity and blessing to the people of Louisburg ... Let us go back through the year 1875 and see if what we assert is true or not. We go first to the Cemetery and take a look through that peaceful, quiet place, and we find there only two new made graves -only two of our citizens have been placed away in that still solemn place in a whole Y2 months; one who had well nigh reached her three score years and ten: the other an infant, only a few months old .--Then in this respect, have not we, as a community, been peculiarly and greatly blessed? Then again: In conversation with one of our most prominent physicians, we learn that not a single case of stubborn or malignant fever has been in our midst for a whole year. Remarkable

Then again, let's take a look at our Criminal Docket, and we find there not a single capital case recorded. Not a single murder has been committed in our midst. Are we sufficiently thankful for these great blessings which God in his infinite goodness has seen fit to bestow upon us?

Let us now see if we have been as greatly blessed in that department governed, controlled and regulated by our fellow-men. We fear that we will find there is not that beantiful harmony and wisdom in this as in the first. We find that the taxes imposed upon our people for the past year to be $28,376.68, an increase of about $25,000 on what was paid in the year 1860. Why this immense increase and burden is put upon our bankrupted people, we are not able to say. It is the working of poor short-sighted, (and very often corrupt) men.

TAXABLE PROPERTY. The amount of taxable property in the county is $2,527.391.

TOWN PROPERTY. The estimated value of the property in town is $227,923.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. There has been issued by the Register of Deeds, 158 marriage heenses; of this number 85 were for white and 73 for colored couples. The taxes received from this source to the county is $150.10 for the State $75.05, and for the Register of Deeds $170 85.

There has been bought by our merchants in the past 12 months 4,109 bales of cotton, an increase of nearly 1,000 bales on the receipts for the 1874. Every department of trade has been steadily increasing, and we have every reason to believe that the condition (financially) of our county is much better than when the year 1875 first dawned upon us.

We have made up this summary of news and everts because we thought they would be of interest to our people, and probably stimulate them to make greater efforts this new year which has just been ushered in, to make the record, so far as they are concerned. still better for 1776 New York 1876 Eighteen hundred and seventy-s x to the Centennial year. . It is also the year in which an Opposition Hous of Representives, the year of the twenty-hird election of a President of the united States. All of these events are sure to be of great interest and importance, especially the two latter; and all or them and everything connected with and expounded in THE SUN. The Opposition House of Represen-tatives, taking up the line of inquiry opened years ago by THE SUR. will sternly and diligently investigate the corruption and misdeeds of GRANT's administration; and will, it is to be hoped, lay the foundation for a new and and better period in our national history. Of all this The Sun will contain complete and accurate accounts, furnishing its readers with early and trustworthy information upon these absorbing topics.

The twenty-third Presidential election, with the preparations for it, will be memorable as deciding upon GRANT'S sspirations for a third term of power and plunder, and still more as deciding who shall be the candidate of the party of Reform, and as electing that candidate. Concerning all these subjects, those who read THE SUE will have the cons aut means of being thoroughly well informed. The WEEKLY SUN, which has attained a circulation of over 80,000 copies. already has its readers in every state and Tercitory, and we trust that the year 1876 will see their numbers doubed. It will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the general news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment; and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner. It is our aim to make the WREKLY Sun the best family newspaper in the world, and we shall continue to give in its colums a large amount of miscellaneous, such es stories, tales, poems, scientific inteligence an agricultural information, for which we are not able to make room in our daily edition, The agricultural department especially is one of its prominent features. The fashious are also regularly reported in its colums; and so are the markets of every kind.

The WREELY SUN, eight pages with fifty-six broad columns is only $1 20 s year, postage prepaid. At this price barery repays the cost of the paper, no discount car be made from this rate to clubs, sgents, Pos masters, or anyone.

The Daily Sun, a large lour page newspaper of 28 columns, gives all the news for two cents a copy. Subscription, postage prepaid, 55c. a month for $6.50 a year. SUNDAY edition extra, 1.10 per year. We have no traveling agents. Addres, THE SUN Mee York
