Unhappy Marriages. continue that considerance of saids

The universal expectation of married people is, that their married lives will always be happy ones. Deluded dreamer! They imagine they are different from other people, and that when they enter the portals of matrimony, love, peace and prosperity will ever be their attendants. Such had better by far consider themselves the same as others, but form iron resolutions, to do differently from other married people-resolutions that will keep them from the dar gerous coasts on which so many have been wrecked and rained. Unhappy marriages depend upon many causes. Previous to marriage, many try to appear more intellectual, amable or more accomplish. on it, that love brought into existence finally consuma ed through the influence of intriguing friends, will fade in after life almost as fast as the flowers which compose the bridal wreath.

THE WEEKLY SUN. | FARMVILLE INSUR ANCE & BANKING

1776 New York 1876 Eighteen hundred and seventy-six is the Centennial year. It is also the year n which an Opposition House of Repre senatives, the year of the fwenty-third election of a President of the united States. All of these events are sure to be at great interest and importance, especially the two latter; and all or them and everything connected with them will be fully and freshly reported and expounded in THE SUN.

The Opposition House of Representatives, taking up the line of inquiry opened years ago by THE SUN. Will sternly and diligently investigate the corruption and misdeeds of GRANT's administration; and will, it is to be hoped, lay the foundation for a new and and better period in our national history. Of all this THE SUN will con tain complete and accurate accounts, furnishing its readers with early and trustworthy information upon these

The twenty-third Presidential election, with the preparations for it, will be memorable as deciding upon GRANT's aspirations for a third term of power and plunder, and still more as deciding who shall be the candidate of the party of Reform, and as electing that candidate. Concerning all these subjects, those who read THE SUN will have the cons ant means of being thoroughly well informed.

The WEEKLY SUN, which has attained a carculation of over 80,000 copies, already has i's readers in every state and Terestory, and we trust that the year 1876 will see their numbers doubled. It will continue to be a thorough new-paper. All the general news of the day will be found in it, condensed of momen; and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is cur aim to make the WERKLY Sun the best family newspaper in the world, and we shalt continue to give in its colums a large amount of miscellaneous, such as stories, tales, poems, published in an American journal. scientific inteligence an agricultural information, for which we are not able to make room in our daily edition.
