

FRANKLIN COURIER.

GEO. S. BAKER, PROPRIETOR.

LOUISBURG.....MAY, 26, 1876

STATE AND LOCAL.

Monday—Hot.

Tuesday—Cool.

Every farmer is busy chopping out cotton.

New Story to commence in next paper.

What has become of the Louisburg Cornet Band?

Corn selling in this market from $3.50 to 4.00 per barrel.

Board of County Commissioners will meet 1st Monday in June next.

The house fly moveth industriously over the nose of the afternoon sleeper. Selah!

He is a regular lady killer—supports a red rose bud in the lapel of his coat, and his mustache is faultless.

MASONIC.—Regular Communication of Clinton Lodge No. 124 A. Y. M., Thursday night June 1st.

Not a single case before the Mayor since his reelection on the 1st of this month, this speaks well for our town.

He writes a beautiful hand, and parts his hair exactly in the middle, and his mustache is coming.

We hope to see every township in the county largely represented on Saturday next at the Convention.

"Circumstantial Evidence in a Love Suit," is the name of the new story to begin in the Courier next week. SUBSCRIBE.

Clifton's picture Gallery is the attractive place now. The walls are literally strung with elegant pictures, and for sale cheap.

Wonder what those six men found so interesting, to talk about on Monday morning last? They only caucused about four hours.

There is nothing that contributes so much towards beautifying your parlor, as handsome pictures. Clifton can furnish you with some beautiful ones.

Eight marriage licenses were issued by the "Register of Deeds, during the month of April. Two for white and six for colored couples.

A MAGNIFICENT PICTURE GALLERY.—Do you want to feast your eyes on beautiful pictures? if so go to Clifton's picture-gallery on Court street. He will sell cheap.

The sound of the masons trowel is heard, rebuilding the store house of Messrs. Terrell & Harris, on Main street.

Mr. Jno. H. Upperman killed two white chub at one shot, last week, in Terrells Mill Pond? their aggregate weight was 7 pounds.

Farmers report a much better stock of hogs in the country, than last year. We can speak for the town, that there are just about twenty to one over last year.

A House may be ever so beautiful outside but if the walls are bare inside there is a cheerlessness about the rooms, that is really oppressive. Remedy this by calling at Clifton's and getting some of his elegant pictures.

We call attention to the card of Dr. Ellis Malone. He has resumed the practice of medicine. He needs no recommendation as a physician from us he is so well known to our people, having been engaged in his profession for nearly fifty years.

The closing exercises of Mr. W. F. May's school, at Oak Level, will take place on the 16th of June, Rev. Wm. J. Fulford will deliver the address before the school. There will be speeches and dialogues by the scholars. We acknowledge an invitation to be present.

RETURNED.—Mr. T. N. Carlisle desires to say to his many friends and customers, that he is now receiving his spring goods. They have been selected with great care, and with a view to this market, that they were bought at the very lowest prices, and he will sell them as he bought them, very low for CASH, call and examine for yourselves and no doubt you will purchase.

We are indebted to our young friends Arthur Arrington, R. H. Davis and Fenner Yarborough for invitations to the "Commencement exercises and Ball, at the University of North Carolina on Wednesday and Thursday May 31st and Jan 1st.

Mr. C. D. Malone and Mr. W. K. Horton have bought the stock of goods which belonged to the late Edwin W. Fuller, and will carry on the business under the firm name of Horton & Malone. Their Adv. will appear next week.

ORIGINAL STORY.—We will begin the publication of a beautiful story, next week, written expressly for the Courier, by Eugene Hall. Give us your name so as to scan the beginning of this interesting story, it is entitled—"CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE IN A LOVE SUIT."

Do not fail to attend the Concert, "Cantata" &c., which takes place at the College Chapel next Tuesday night the 30th inst., commencing precisely at 8 1/2 o'clock. We respectfully suggest our hotel, boarding houses and private families give early supper, so that all can be promptly on hand at the hour appointed.

MUSICAL SOIREE.—Miss L. J. Strother will close the spring session of her music school on Tuesday night the 6th of June with a Musical Soiree by the scholars, songs, duets and &c. It will be a nice treat for all who attend. The spacious College Chapel will be used for the occasion, and invitation to all is extended.

EXAMINATION AND EXHIBITION.—The closing exercises of Mr. M. S. Davis' school, will take place on next Tuesday and Wednesday the 30th and 31st inst. With examination of and declamation by the students. An address will be delivered before the school by C. M. Cooke Esq., in the College Chapel on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock to which the public are cordially invited.

LOST AND FOUND.—Our town was thrown into a fever of excitement one evening last week, by the disappearance of a little son of Mr. Moses B. Joyner. Search was made for him and he was found about 9 o'clock, sleeping calmly and sweetly on a pile of cotton in front of Messrs. Yarborough & Co's. store. Little boys, if you will come down on the streets, be sure to run home as soon as you get sleepy, for you know not the anxiety of that mother, if you are not at home at the proper hour.

When you see a man that shuffles loosely along, with his knees knocking together and his toes pointing in—whose eyes roll furtively and whose hand is ever suddenly jerking itself above his head as if warding off a blow, you can rely upon it that that man is haunted by a mother-in-law—but when you see a party who lifts his feet high and holds his nose in the air, and has one eye shut in a knowing manner, and whose mouth is distended with a self-complacent grin, and who seems to feel good all over; you can bet your last cent he has just bought a new "Domestic" sewing machine for his wife.

LETTERS FROM DRUGGIST.—There is no case of Dyspepsia that Green's August Flower will not cure. Come to the Drugstore of J. B. Clifton and inquire about it. If you suffer from Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Liver Complaint or derangement of the Stomach or Liver try it. Two or three doses will relieve you. Boschee's German Syrup is now sold in every town and city in the United States. We have not less than five hundred letters from Druggists saying it is the best medicine they ever sold for consumption, Throat or Lung disease. Sample bottles of both 10 cents each. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by H. S. Furman at Franklinton N. C.

An old lady in Franklin giving in her experience at a church meeting said, my dear bretheren and sisters while I was praying I heard the Angel Gabriel blow his golden trumpet.

One of the bretheren arose and said, my dear sister stop you must be mistaken, you thought you heard it.

No I aint, I certainly heard it. But my dear sister you must not say it.

An old lady sitting in the open corner, arose and adjusting her iron rimmed spectacles, said, my dear brother do not be too hard on the sister, she might have heard a tute or two.

We will send the COURIER and Godey's Lady's Book, with beautiful Oil chromo "Rescue," 12 months for $4.50.

PERSONAL.—Mr. R. T. Meade of the firm of Meade Orr & Co. of Petersburg, Va., was in to see us on Monday last. He is traveling in the interest of his hardware house, we hope he met with good success.

Mr. Lawrence Pulliam of Asheville arrived in our town Saturday last, and remained until Wednesday, when he left for his mountain home accompanied by his accomplished lady, who has been on a visit to her father, Mr. W. H. Furman. We hope them a safe and pleasant trip.

Mr. William Mosely, formerly editor of the Wilson Topic but now traveling for the N. C. State Life Insurance Company was in our place on Monday last.

THE BEST SUBSCRIBERS.—Cash subscribers, never find fault always get their paper, and always speak well of the paper.

Those who wait six months are not quite so easy to please, they generally miss a few numbers, and the print is not very good.

Those who wait twelve months, are apt to get mad when you ask them to pay up. The matter in the paper does not suit, and they don't understand how it is that they miss so many numbers of the papers, and why don't you get up a better paper? why don't you enlarge? &c. &c.

Those who wait two years, (if there is an editor foolish enough to send out his paper to such subscriber,) and we are sorry to say there are some who do, when you ask for your subscription, you invariably lose that name, and for you, leniency and kindness you get cuffs, and abuses.

By this means give us the cash subscribers.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT TO E. W. FULLER.

PHILANTHROPIC HALL. May, 18th 1876.

Whereas God in his mysterious providence has removed from our midst our friend and fellow-member, Edwin W. Fuller, we deem it proper as a faint tribute to his memory to record upon our minutes the following resolutions: Resolved, That this Society recognizes in his life a model of gentlemanly, pure character and noble ambition; an instance of sterling modest worth; a never failing fount of human sympathy; and unswerving fidelity to duty.

Resolved, That we see in the calmness of his death the readiness of his spirit to accept the eternal life so beautifully portrayed by his earthly genius:

Resolved, That while his loss be longs not to the State, nor to the nation, but to humanity and whils we feel that we especially have suffered,—we rejoice that he has builded his own imperishable monument and we enroll his name among the fairest, the purest and the noblest of our illustrious dead:

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to his family and to the public.

Fashion Notes.

Over-skirts will continue very long and slightly looped in the back, being drawn back very tightly at the sides, to give the "pull-back" appearance which all ridicule, has failed to abolish. Under-skirts, therefore, really require but little trimming, and a flounce headed with a puff—or two killings, one over lapping the other, the upper headed with a standing killing or a double puff—is all the trimming necessary.

Tournares, bustle, &c., after all the cry that was made about them, as well as hoops, are growing beautifully less.

The checks brought out as novelties have taken well; and not to have a checked costume in one's summer outfit is a rare circumstance. Black, as in many seasons before, is the choice of most ladies for color; and now that cream ecru and the delicate peach and apricot shades, are so universally worn—these shades in trimming for hats, ties, gloves, and often the lining for parasols prove color sufficient to please most tastes.

A stylish polonaise is very long and clinging, lapped in the back with buttons and simulated button hole. The front of polonaise is closed with hooks and eyes, and the laps concealed by loops and ends of ribbon, matching in color of the skirt and sleeves.

Hard times made Easy.

Relief for the Hungry

It is with pleasure we announce that we have gotten the smoke out of our eyes and the ashes from our clothes and have taken hold of business in earnest again. Our Mr. Barrow has just returned from the North, and we are now receiving a large stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Shoes, &c., &c., and are offering them at the very lowest possible prices. Our goods having been purchased since the decline, we can sell below former prices. In this connection, we will state that we are prepared to furnish farmers on LIENS or APPROVED PAPER, $10,000 worth of provisions and take CASH or Cotton, payable November 1st, 1876. We would earnestly request our friends, not to buy Goods before seeing us, as we have a Proposition to Make, which will be greatly to their interest. We still want to buy cotton

Many thanks for past favors. BARROW & PLEASANTS March 10th, 1876.
