A meeting of the Democratic voters in Louisburg Township is hereby called on Friday the 30th day of June 1876, at 2 o'clock P. M., in the Court House in Louisburg, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county Convention to nominate a Candidate for the Ler islature and for other County officers, to be held in Louisburg on the 1st day of July 1876, and for the further purpose of perfecting a thorough organization of the party in the Township for the Campaign. Every democrat in the township is earnestly requested to attend. W. H. SPENCER, Member Dem Ex. Com., for Louisburg Township,

For Congress-4th District, JOSEPH. J. DAVIS,

OF FRANKLIN.

FOR GOVERNOR,

ZEBULON B. VANCE.

OF BUNCOMBE.

HON. JOSEPH J. DAVIS RE NOMINATED BY ACCLA. MATION.

After the lapse of two years from the first nomination and triumphant election to Congress of this gentleman, and during his first term of service in the National Legislature. at the unanimous and enthusiastic command of the Democratic party of this District in Convention assembled, we place with pride the name of the Hon. Joseph J. Davis, of Franklin at the head of our paper as the Candidate for Congress in this District, Mr. D. having by his able and manly course fully met the anticipations of his warmest friends, and the most cordial ap probation of the Democratic party of his District, he is chosen again their standard bearer, and that without opposition. Knowing as he does so well the full import of what is implied by the word duty he will take the banner that has been so handsomely confided to his keeping, and he will place it upon the strong hold and ramparts of the enemy in the nearest and remotest points of the District, and will not cease his Vigilance, and hard work until, a more signal victory crown his efforts, than that so grandly wrung by him from the enemy two years ago. The Democracy of the District have done well. They have again trusted a tried lender. They have confidence in their commander, and he in turn has the greatest confidence in the support of all the leaders of civil liberty and honesty and purity in the administration of the govern-ment, standing by him, and hold-ing up his hand, until we in this Centennial year erush radicalism, and its concomitant evils, from the Metropolitan Congressional District of North Carolina.

For the people of Franklia, we again thank the Democracy of the District for this act of cleverness towards our County man, and pledge for the nominee for Congress more votes than our County has white men. Let every county in the District do as well and his majority will be more than 4000. Let the fight now commenced go bravely on, and November will bring us a great victory.

Louisburg Female Col- a clean sweep this year. The By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that the above institution will be opened on the 12th of July next, for the reception of pupils, under the most favorable auspices. At the last District Conference, a Board of Directors were appointed to take in charge said school, and at a meeting of the Board, recently held, it was unanimously resolved, to in vite, and earnestly request, the Rev. F. L. Reid, to take charge of the College, as President. In compliance, with the invitation and request, he has consented to do so, and will open as above stated .-Mr. Reid is a regular graduate -a member of the North Carolina Conference. As a citizen, he is universally popular-having the esteem and confidence of the entire community. As a minister, he has but few equals and no superior in the State. Mrs. C. D. Lawrence, lady, well and favorably known will assist him in the Literary de partment. She has had many years experience as a teacher, and will bring to the Institution, a name inferior to but few in the State. -Miss Annie R. Fuller will have charge of the Musical department. She is in every way qualified for the position, and will add an influence to the School that but few possess. None know her, but to love. She is the very best selection the Board could have made .-The Boarding department will be under the control of Mrs. A. T. Harris, one of the most pious, and very best ladies in the community. She will be a mother to all the inmates of the College. By reference to the advertisement, it will be seen that the Board and Tuition has been placed at the very lowest possible figures -as low as any first class Institution can be conducted with safety-a first class education is here placed within the reach of all. In regard to Louisburg, we will say that there is not a more refined and intelligent community in the State. In point of health there is no better. Under the present arrangement, the Louisburg Female College, will be a success-it cannot be otherwise. We take great pleasure in recommending it to all concerned.

THE UNIVERSITY-A HIGH COMPLIMENT TO THE STU-DENIS.

A distinguished gentleman in our State who was present at the late commencement concludes a letter to us with the following high compliment to the students of the University, which we take the liberty of publishing. It is due to the students to say that their conduct was marked in the highest degree by a sense of duty and decorum. So much so indeed that the Trustees just before the adjournment of that body, late on Thusday evening, passed a formal resolution expressive of their gratification at the highly decorous deportment they witnessed during the commencement services. In preparing the account of the proceedings of the occasion we failed to award the praises that in this particular was so eminently due, and we are glad of the opportunity afforded by the letter of our correspondent to make the proper amend. He says: "I am very much pleased to find the commencement has produced a good effect upon the people of the State. It was certainly a decided success. I hope you will not forget to bestow your commendation on the students of the University. The speeches delivered on Wednesday night in substance and in style were above the average of college speeches The elecution of the young speakers Was very fine, I can say in sincerity and truth that the deportment of the students was more decorous, courteous, and refined than I ever saw at any college commencement. They are worthy of public commendation and I hope you will bestow it in full meas-

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COURIER: -One of the most important duties with which the approaching Convention of the Democratic County is charged, is the selection of Candidates for County Commissioners. With wise nominations the Democrats of Franklin are going to make Attorney for this District and one County people want such a Board of Commissioners, as will assure an economical and honest administra tion of the county affairs. Let such a Board be nominated, and it will add largely to the strength of the party. In the opinion of the writer of this, Mesers. Thomas White, Peter J. Dement, Wm. J. King, John T. Clifton and Ruffin R. Holmes would make a strong run, be elected, and discharge the duties of their trus's with great fidelity and capability.

DANIEL INSCO. Franklin Co., June 14th.

Our Washington Letter. [Special Correspondence.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14, '76, Mr. Blaine and his letters stil continue to be the chief topic of conversation about the Hotels and on the street corners you hear of little else, and every newspaper you take in hand seems to be filled with it. The New York Graphic in its issue of yesterday gives an interest ing account of an interview held by one of its correspondents with the witness Mulligan. That gentlen an declined to tell all he knew because he expected to be called again before the committee to testity in the case. But he explicitly declares that Mr. Blaine did not read all the letters to the House nor did he read them in their proper order, and he says that while Mr. Blaine very carefully read those which were non-relevant or which contained nothing of especial importance implicating him in improper transaction, -he carefully omitted the letters which coutain damaging facts and statements that corroborate the charges made against him. He did not read the letter acnowledging the receipt of $40,000 at one time and $60,000 at another. Mr. Mulligan reflects at the singular attitude of Mr. Blaine in refusing to lay his private letters before the Committee, and then making a sensational demonstration before the House by pretending to read them, when in fact he only read such letters or parts of letters, as were entirely unimpor tant, and declared they were the worst. The Washington correspondent of the paper, I have above refered to truly says, Mr. Blaine, has served a great purpose unconciously. He has shown what an abuse the Speakership of a large Congress has become, and how readily it may be used for personal profits or party purposes. One of Mr. Blaine's letters points out to a speculator, where and how he had saved him hundreds of thousands of dollars worth by a mere ruling, and he explained that he had provoked the raising of the point in order to make that ruling by send ing to a member to suggest it .-Can we say that a man of such wit. fell into a mere error? Have we become so possessed of the worship for the quality called smartness, that we want to crown it with our highest office and make it our Magistrate? In Heavans name let us hope to combine in the man we thus exalt, several other attributes the possession of which must be a condition precedert to the bestowal of our confidence. While on this subject a copy of the suppressed telegram may not be uninteresting. It was received by Mr. Nnott on Thursday last and is dated London, nd is addressed to the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. Have just read in New York papers Scotts evidence -about our Bond transaction and can fully corroborate it. I never gave Blaine any Ford Smith Railroad bonds directly or otherwise. I have three foreign Railway contracts on my hands which makes it impossible for me to leave without great pecuniary loss, or would gladly voluntarily come home, and so testify-Can make affidavit of this fact and mail if desired-singned Josiah

Caldwell. Now let the telegram be worth much or little, Mr. Knott should certainly have at once spread it before the Committee as it was just, as much a fact with which they had to deal as any other circumstance of the case, and Mr.

Nnott richly deserves all the censure that is lavished upon him and by none more freely than those of his own party. It is reported that

Dick Harrington formerly U. S.

of the sale burglars is now in Nassau New Providence, having fled the country rather than undergo another trial and face the new and conclusive evidence, that can now be brought against him; and yet this is the man who was summoned by our President from the prisoners dock to attend a very select reception at the White House. We may well say in the language of the immortal "Williams," can such things be and overcome us like a summers cloud, and not excite our special wonder.

New Postage Bill,

The following House Bill passed the senate last Thursday:

1. Be it enacted, &c., That mail matter of the third class shall embrace all pamphlets, occasional publications regular publications, devoted primarily to advertising purposes or for free circulation, or for circulation at nominal subscription rates; prices-current, catalogues, annuals, handbills, posters, unsealed circulars, prospectuses, looks bound or unbound, book manuscripts proof-sheets, maps, prints, engravings blanks, inflexible patterns, samples, merchandise, sample cards, phonographic paper, letter envelopes and wrappers cards (plain and ornamental,) paper, photographic representations, seeds cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and all other mattar which may be declared mailable by law as third-class matter, and other articles not above the weight prescribed by law, which are not from their nature liable to destroy, deface, or otherwise injure the contents of the mail-bags, or the person of any one engaged in the postal service. All liquids, poisons glass, explosive materials and obscene books or papers shall be excluded from the mails.

2. That packages of matter of the third class shall not exceed four pounds in weight and shall be subject to examination and rates of postage of hereinafter provided. The postage of mailmatter of the third class shall be at the following rates for all distances: One cent for each cunce or fractional part thereof. Every package of the third class of mail-matter shall bear the postmark of the office at which the same shall be mailed for transportations. 3. That p stage on third class matter shall be prepaid by stamps. If however, the postage on third class matter, mailed at an office, shall be less than the amount above prescribed in cases where the same is known such sender shall be notified of the fact, and the amount of postage due shall be collected from such sender before the same be transmitted by mail. In case the sender is not known, and where it has not beeen the evident intention of the party so depositing the package shall be forwarded and double the amount paid of deficient postage shall be collected from the party to whom it is ad dressed, delivered at its proper destina-

4. That the sender of any article of third-class mail matter may write his or her name or address thereon, or on the outside thereof, with the word "from" above or proceeding the same; or may write briefly or print on any package the name or names of the articles enclosed. Publishers of newspapers and peridicals may print on the wrappers of newspapers or magazines ent from the office of publication to regular subscribers the time to which subscription thereof has been paid. 5. That transient newspapers and magazines shall be admitted to and transmitted in the mails at the rate of one cent for every three ounces or fractional part thereo, and one cent for each two additional ounces or fractional part thereof. 6. That this act shall take effect on and after the 1st day of July, 1876.
