CHAMPION COMIC PAPER OF AMERICA. Prospectus for 1876.

This sparkling and brightly illustrated weekly, bumoscus and satirial pa-per sus entured apper the seventh year of its jolly existence, and this being the Centennial year of our national independence, the publishers take pride in saying that it will not be, as it never has yet been, a whit behind the times in belding up the humorous or savirical side of everything American. The merry side of this great and glorious Centennial year will receive special attention in the bright columns of Americal favorite humorous paper.

The publishers of WILD OXIS point with pride to the wholly unexampled success of their paper, and, pladging themselves that it shall be in the turned even better than in the past, they ask even better than in the past, they ask a continuation of that kind patronage which has placed it at the head and rost of American humorous papers.

We have made arrangements which will enable us to present WILD OATS in a brighter and better shape than heretofre, having recently taken possession of our new publication office, and had fine copper-taced type cast especially for us, together with all the wast parapheroans required in the production of such a paper as we give the due ion of such a paper as we give the public at the low price of ten cents per

ONLY EASY BUT PLEASANT?

We have also made arrangements with some new artists, and shall at the same time retain such old favorites as Thomas Worth, Frank Bellew, Hopkins, Wolf, Walcs, Frank Beard, Bisbee, Opper, Stockhardt, Rothengatter, Ben Day, Kettells, Palmer Cox, Mann, Kingsbury, Stuff, White, perry, Raton, Shelder, etc., while the editorial department will still remain in the hands of its founder the vivacious Brickton. of its founder the vivacious Brickion, of whom erough is known without

As an additional inducement to sub-scribe for the Centennial year, we have at great expense prepared a comic chromo the crowning effort of that grap ic momue, Hopkin: It is a work of art worthy of an elegant frame, and is worth at least one half the price asked for the subscription. It is a "horse piece," being a burlesque of Mazeppa tied to the back of the fierv, untamed steed. A copy will be sent to cach

Advertisers are begining to find out that Wild Oats reaches a greater number of live men than any other illustrated paper in America, and therefore it is a first-class medium of rdvertising. To those who know Wild Oats w need not say that it has not! does not, and will not contain a word or an illustration which may not be taken into every family in theland. For we give in various s'zed doses, but never vulgarity in any shape. It is thorough-American in sentiment, wholly original charp and meisive, and night to he point in dealing with men at d events of the day.
