Mr. B. F. Hawkins, the new Postmaster entered upon his duties on the 1st day of this month. He has employed Mr. Otis Furman, a young man who is thoroughly posted as to the management of the office, having been raised up at the business, They are both young and active men, and we doubt not the office will be well managed by them,

PERSONAL .- Mr. Jammie White, who has been absent attending school at Petersburg, returned on Saturday last, to spend his vacation

Mr. W. H. Farman Jr., left on Tuesday last for a visit to his brother Mr. R. M. Furman, at Ashville, where he will spend several weeks. We hope he will have a pleasant time among the mountains of our State.

Mr. Robert H. Davis, son of Hon-J. J. Davis left last week for the Centennial.

Feeling called upon to serenade his dear gazelle he borrowed an accordeon and, after getting so that he could squeeze a few doleful roises out of it, he posted himself under her window one night and began plaintively howlung, "Oh, whisper what thou feelest!" She poked her head out of the window at the third line and said, "Oh, it's you," is it? I thought it was cats. And you want me to whisper what I feelest, hey? Well, I feelest tired, that's what. Been working a hard running sewing machine all day. Get me a "Light Running Domestic" and then I'll know you mean business."

FIRST COTTON BLOOM .- The premium for the first cotton bloom is the county is awarded to Mr. T. W. Stokes, quite a youthful farmer. aged 16 years. This is his first year at farming and he has made a good start. What we want, and what our county very much needs is good scientific farmers. This bloom was gathered on the 27th of June-oloomed on the 26th. We have received a number of others, but as Tommie beat them all we will only mention his.

> THE INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION GUIDE-BOR THE SOUTHERN STATES. -We have received a copy of the above named book from the publisher, Mr. R. T. Fu'ghum, it is in fact what the author claims, an accurate guide book, and is indispensable to every one who visits the Centennial. This book is prepared expressly for the Southern people, the author has been at large expense to get up the book, and we hope our people will sustain him, He was in Philadelphia nine weeks and had acce-s to every bureau of information connected with Philadelphia or the Centennial Exhibition. Price 25 and 50 cents. Address.R. F. Fulghum. Raleigh, N. C.

Fashion Notes.

White polonaises are coming in again, worn over black or colored silk skirts, the novelty being the immense number of nows that decorate them everywhere. These ornamental affairs should be either the color of the skirt or black velvet: or, if one wishes to be special ly trimmed, rose, blue, and pink is mingled with the black. In all these faucies the colors in the flowers that adorn the hair should match the trimming of the po'onoise. Every fancy seems to have been used on the garniture of the skirt; and now we turn back again to the pleatings of three years ago, that were put on in deep pleats, forming their own heading, and gradually deepening in the back, until three flounces almost covered

Young ladies, for evening costumes, are wearing the baby dress, with low, square corsage, and in princesse from all in one piece.-The back is in a train, commencing at the neck and widening at the bottom. Steel and silver ornaments are being fashionably revived, and we see combs, and ornaments quite like those in vogue twenty. five and thirty years ago. FASHION.
