I sumtimes think that men tell the truth as often out ov kempliment to their honor az sespekt to their honesty.

I hav often heard it reported that 'man iz a failure," but when i reflect that the fust man was kikt out of Eden to "root hog or die," without a jak knife even to begin with, and when i diskover what he haz did since, i m ist konsider him sum pumpkins.

You come well recommended, I suppose?" said a gentleman to boy who wanted an easy place. "O, yes, sir; the man I was with last recommended me; he roommended me to leave, and get work more congenial with my daposition."

I go to the woods after game; but if the game is not there I get nuts; if there are no nuts I get flowers or lowes; if all fail yet I get health, a little wood oraft, or by grace of heaven a thought. I am not one of those who find that the road is only good to leave behind them, REATMENT OF A FRIEND,.... If you have a friend who loves you, and who has studied your interest and happiness be sure to sustain him in adversity. Lot him feel that his former kindness is appreciated, and that his love was not thrown away.

We are born for a higher world than that of earth, there is a realm where rainbows never fade -- where the stars will be out before us, like isless that slumber on the ocean, and where the beings that pass before us like shadows, will stay in our presence for ever.

Physical courage which despises all danger will make a man brave in one way, and moral courage which despises all opinion will make a brave man in another. The former would seem most necessary for the camp, the latter for the council, but to constitute a great man, both are necessary.

WILD OATS.

CHAMPION COMIC PAPER OF AMERICA. Prospectus for 1876.

This sparkling and brightly illustrated weekly, humorous and satirical paper has entered upon the seventh year of its jolly existence, and this being the Centennial year of our national independence, the publishers take pride in saying that it will not be, as if never has yet bees, a whit behind the times in holding up the humorous or satirical side of everything American. The merry side of this great and glorious Centennial year will receive special attention in the bright columns of America's favorite humorous paper.

The publishers of WILD OATS point with pride to the wholly unexampled success of their paper, and, pledging themselves that it shall be in the future even better than in the past, they ask even better than in the past, they ask a continuation of that kind patronage which has placed it at the head and front of American humorous papers.

We have made arrangements which will cuable us to present WILD OATS in a brighter and better shape than beretofre, baving recently taken posand had fine copper-faced type cast especially for us, together with all the duction of such a paper as we give the public at the low price of ten cents per

We have also made arrangements with some now artis:s, and shall at the same time retain such old favorites as Thomas Worth, Frank Bellew, Hop-kins, Wolf, Wales, Frank Beard, Bisbee, Opper, Steeckbardt, Rothengatter, Ben Day, Kettells, Palmer Cox, Mann. Klugsbury, Stull, White. Sperry, Eaton, Sheldon, etc., while the editorial department will still remain in the hands of its founder, the vivacious Bricktop, of whom enough is known without more being said. As an additional inducement to subscribe for the Centenoial year, we have at great expense prepared a comic chromo the crowning effort of that graphic momus, Hopkin. It is a work of art worthy of an elegant frame, and is worth at least one-half the price-asked for the subscription. It is a "borse piece," being a burlesque of Mazeppa tied to the back of the fiery, untamed steed. A copy will be sent to each subscriber during the year.

Advertisers are begining to find out that Wild Uats reaches a greater num ber of live men than any other illustrated paper in America, and therefore it is a first-class medium of edvertising. To those who know Wild Oats w need not say that it has not, does not, and will not contain a word or an illustration which may not be taken into every family in theland. For we give in various sized dosess, but never vulgarity in any shape. It is thoroughly American in sentiment, wholly original, sharp and incisive, and right to the point in dealing with men and events of the day.

ONE COPY AT ANY TIME WILL CON-VINCE YOU OF THIS. Subscription Price. - Pest paid,

THE WEEKLY SUN. | FARMVILLE INUR-

1776 New York 1876

Eighteen hundred and seventy-s x is the Centennial year. It is also the year in which an Opposition House of Repre senatives, the year of the twenty-third election of a President of the united States. All of these events are sure to be at great intenst and importance, especially the two inter; and all of $10.000.00 United States

The Opposition House of Represena'iver, taking up the hoe of inquiry opened years ago by THE Sux. will sternly and diligently investigate the corruption and misdeeds of GRANT's administration; and will, it is to be hoped, lay the foundation for a new and and better period in our national history. Of all this THE SUN will contain comple'e and accurate accounts, furnishing its readers with early and trustworthy information upon these absorbing topics tion, with the preparations for it, will be memorable as deciding upon GRANT'S aspirations for a third term of Store Houses, Stocks of Goods, Resipower and p'under, and still more as dences &c., taken at equitable rates. deciding who shall be the candidate of the party of Retorm, and as electing that candidate. Concerning all these subjects, those who read THE SUN will have the cons ant means of being thorough'y well informed.

The WELKLY SUN, which has attained a circulation of ever 80,000 copies, already has 1 8 readers in every state and Territory, and we trust that the year 1876 will see their combers doubled. It will c nil ue to be a thorough new-paper. All the general news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment; and always, we truet, treated in a clear, interesting and ins ructive manter. It is our aim to make the WEEKLY Sun the best family newspaper in the world, and we shall continue to give in its colums a large amount of miscellaneous, such sestories, tales, poems, scientific inteligence an agracultural information, for which we are not able to make room in our daily edition. The agricultural department especially is one of its prominent features. The fashions are also regularly reported in its colums; and so are the murkets of every king.

The WELKLY SUN, eight pages with fifty six broad columns is only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. At this price barely repays the cost of the paper, no discount car be made from this rate to clube, agents, Postmusters, or anyone.

The DAILY SUN, a large four page newspaper of 28 columns, gives all the news for two cents a cupy. Subscrip-$6.50 a year, SUNDAY edition extra, 1.10 per year. We have no traveling agente, Addres, THE EUR New. York
