THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1876.

RALEIGH DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

At fifteen minutes to 10 o'clock, the Conference was called to order by Rev. J. P. Moore, P. E.

Dr. Burkhead, of Raleigh conducting the services, opened by reading the Scripture and singing hymn 304: "Ye servants of the Lord."

Prayer and singing, "Children of the Heavenly King."

Prayer by Dr. J. P. Jerman.

Roll called by W. A. Brame, and the following churches and circuits were represented:

Edenton Street Church, Person St. Church, Golding circuit, Tar River circuit, Granville circuit, Louisburg station.

The following were not represented:

Cary circuit, Smithfield circuit, Rocky Mount circuit, Toisnot circuit.

S. C. White was elected Secretary by ballot, and S. L. Riddle, Asst. Secretary by acclamation.

Address by Rev. J. P. Moore, P. E. in which he complimented Louisburg and its inhabitants very highly. His address was eloquent, and abounded in good advice to the delegates. He advised all to labor vigorously for a great revival of religion during this Conference.

Rev. F. L. Reid, W. H. Pleasants, Geo. S. Baker and M. S. Davis were elected committee on public worship. Time appointed for the meeting of the Conference, 8 1/2 o'clock, a. m., holding two hours, and 4 1/2 o'clock, p. m.

No further business. Conference adjourned at fifteen minutes to 11 o'clock.

ELEVEN O'CLOCK SERVICE.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Conference, the congregation commenced gathering for the eleven o'clock service. At fifteen minutes past eleven, Rev. S. V. Hoyle and A. A. Boshammer took their seats in the pulpit. The choir sang the Lord's prayer as a voluntary, and after the usual exercises of singing, praying and reading the Scripture, Mr. Hoyle announced his text from the third chapter of Ephesians, eighth, ninth and tenth verses. His general subject was the privileges, duties and honors of the ministers of the gospel. Mr. Hoyle is able, genial and scholarly; a tremendous worker, eloquent preacher, and a man thoroughly in earnest in the good work. He interested and instructed all who heard him, and we feel safe in saying that he has sown seed in good ground. A few moments past twelve he concluded his sermon, and Mr. Boshamer led in an eloquent, feeling prayer. The choir sang a good old Methodist hymn, the benediction pronounced, and the congregation dispersed, each one no doubt feeling that it was good for them to be there. So far the Conference has been a grand success and all are expecting a gracious revival of religion before it closes.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference was called to order by J. P. Moore, P. E. at 4 o'clock.

Singing by all, and prayer by Rev. W. C. Norman.

The minutes of the Conference were read by the Secretary and accepted.

V. A. Sharpe, special agent for institutions of learning, was introduced to the Conference by the Presiding Elder.

On motion of F. L. Reid, the hour for the meeting of the afternoon session was reconsidered and changed from 4 to 3 o'clock, P. M.

Rev. B. A. Yeates, P. E., from the Newbern District, and Rev. B. B. Culbreth, of the Washington District and Station, were introduced to the conference by the Presiding Elder.

Dr. Burkhead moved to appoint several committees on the general interest of the church, which was opposed by several and a lively little discussion ensued. The motion was not carried.

The following names were entered on the register, they having arrived since last meeting: Rev. J. B. Floyd, W. N. Harris, J. D. M. Young, and R. C. Redford.

R. W. Best introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, By the providence of God we the ministers and laymen of the Raleigh District Conference, are again permitted to meet under circumstances of so much mercy; and,

WHEREAS, One of the great objects of a District Conference, should be the furtherance of the Gospel of Christ; therefore

Resolved, That we will labor more assiduously, and pray earnestly that God will pour out His Holy spirit upon us at this time, that a gracious revival of religion may commence with our work and result in the building up and strengthening of the church, that scores of souls may be brought to Christ.

Resolved, That our fervent, united prayer be, "O Lord, revive the work."

The following communication was received and read by Rev. F. L. Reid, and referred to the committee on public worship:

Rev. F. L. Reid—My Dear Sir:

This being Conference, a large number of ministers being present, we the Elders of the Presbyterian Church, south side of Louisburg, do respectfully request and petition that our pulpit be supplied on next Sabbath morning and evening with a minister to hold service, by so doing you will confer a favor and gratitude that will be appreciated by all christian members of our church and congregation.

Respectfully,

H. W. FULLER,
JACOB EVANS,
Elders.

Report from Edenton Street church, Raleigh, by Dr. Burkhead, was very encouraging.

Report from Person Street church, Raleigh, by Rev. W. C. Norman—church in very good condition.

Report from Smithfield Circuit, by Mr. Smith, Lay delegate—church in tolerable good condition.

Report from Cary, by Mr. Whitaker, Lay delegate—encouraging.

Report from Rolesville by Rev. L. J. Holden; infant baptism very strongly opposed; churches in a very good condition.

Report from Youngsville by Rev. M. J. Hunt; church in good condition and prospects bright.

Report from Tar River circuit by Rev. R. S. Webb; church members generally wanting in spiritual interest; some of the churches are in good condition. Six deaths on the Circuit during the year.

Report from Rocky Mount and Nashville circuit by Rev. T. B. Reeks. He has ten appointments, some of them are on the decline, others have brighter prospects. He needs praying men.

On motion of Rev. J. B. Bobbit D., Conference adjourned.

THE DAILY COURIER.

MR. EDITOR:—The energy displayed by you in furnishing a Daily paper during the sessions of the District Conference, is highly commendable and should receive the encouragement of every citizen of the town as well as those attending the Conference. It should be largely patronized. It is an advantage to have the benefit of daily published reports of the proceedings of the Conference, as well as a matter of interest to the Methodist Church in this District. The Pastors and delegates ought to raise clubs and have the paper distributed throughout the District. The people will be glad to receive the proceedings of the Conference, and appreciate this remembrance of them. The subscription price is cheap for the character of the paper, and each preacher and delegate ought to take several copies. I hope you may receive such encouragement in your enterprise as will amply repay you for the expense and labor in carrying it forward, especially as your interest in the Church, and not a motive of gain, prompts the movement.

A DELEGATE.

To the Working Class.

We can furnish employment at which you can make very large pay, in your own localities, without being away from home over night. Agents wanted in every town and county to take subscribers for The Centennial Record, the largest publication in the United States—16 pages, 64 columns; Elegantly Illustrated; Terms only $1 per year. THE LOST CAUSE.

A MAGNIFICENT Picture 14x18 inches in size, printed on heavy plate paper, beautiful in design and artistic in execution. It represents a Confederate soldier after the war returning to his home, which he finds lonely and desolate. In front of the ruined cottage, telling a sad tale of the miseries of war, are two graves with rude crosses, on one of which some friendly hand has hung a garland. To the right the calm river and the rising moon indicate peace and rest. The stars, seen through the trees, represent the Southern Cross. It is a picture that will touch every Southern heart and should find a place in every Southern home.—Sent by mail mounted on a roller and post paid, on receipt of 25 cts, or three for 60 cents.

Address JOHN BURROW & Co., Publishers, Bristol, Tenn. Agents wanted everywhere to sell our cheap and popular pictures, $5 to $10 per day easily made. No money required until pictures are sold. Send stamp for catalogue and terms.
