GEORGE S. BAKER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

All letters addressed to GEO. S. BAKER.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 18, 1876.

Gov. TILDEN exposed and broke up the Canal Ring.

Gov. TILDEN reduced the taxes of the State of New York from fifteen to eight millions dollars.

Gov. TILDEN saved the State of New York in Taxes for 1876, $7,717,947. This is a permanent saving, not a temporary retrenchment, to be paid for subsequently increased taxes. In Gov. Tilden's own words:

THE RADICAL NOMINATIONS ON SATURDAY.

The Radicals held their County convention on Saturday, Gen. P. B. Hawkins, was called to the Chair, and Mr. Julius Calisher, and E. N. Dent (col.) made Secretaries. The whole thing was cut and dried by the leaders, and the several nominations were made by acclamation, John H. Williamson negro, who says, "that all the negroes must vote together," was nominated for the House of Representatives. J. C. Wynne (white) who last winter carried about the streets, tied up in a pocket handkerchief, (and he under the influence of the ardent) $6,000 of the peoples money, and which he threw down at home carelessly, and after awaking from his nap, be thought himself of the money, and had the town aroused to help him look for it. He is the same one who apologized to the negroes, through Mr. Calisher the Jew, for voting for Col. W. F. Green, in the late election for the convention, and promised if restored to full fellowship, he would be a good and obedient boy hereafter, and would vote against the Amendments to the Constitution. This is the man who has been renominated for the office of Sheriff. Fellow citizens do you want him? Methinks I hear every true white man in the county say No, a thousand times No—away with all such! Stand back Mr. Wynne, and let Mr. Bridger see if he can't take better care of the peoples money than you have. J. B. Tucker, who has charged the county for a number of years $90 per year for making out the annual statement of the expenditures made by the county, and who according to the statement made by Col. W. H. Yarborough and W. H. Spencer, received $700, or $800 over and above the amount he was entitled to by law, and who still persists in holding this money. This man has been renominated for the office of Register of Deeds, Buck, the fat has gone forth, the people say you must stand aside, and let Mr. W. K. Martin Jr. come in and administer the duties of the office which you now hold. Gen. P. B. Hawkins, Joshua Perry Esq., Henry Fuller colored, Benj. Smith and Capt. A. S. Perry, were nominated for Commissioners. Three of the above named: Hawkins, Joshua Perry, and Henry Fuller, are the same who voted for the extravagant charges made by the Register of Deeds, and notwithstanding the report of Messrs. Yarborough and Spencer, they persistently refuse to make this fat official disgorge. Men of Franklin, will you not rise up in your might and say to these careless and reckless managers of your interests; gentlemen you are not the men we want for the high and responsible position for which you have been nominated. We prefer Ballard, Long, Fowler, Webb and Gill. To arms white men of Franklin, close up the ranks, meet the enemy with a solid unbroken front, and in November next such a volley of paper bullets will be opened on the enemy as to drive them, scattered and demoralized to their haunts of official indifference, not to say corruption and infamy.

HON. J. J. DAVIS. It behooves every good Democrat to see that nothing is left undone to secure the re-election of our Candidate to Congress. The large majority by which he was elected two years ago may lead some of our people to believe that his personal popularity and the remembrance of his valuable services in the National Legislature, are all the incentives the people will need to make them roll up a still larger majority for him. This way of thinking, if it is indulged in to any great extent, may cause an junction that might hazard our chances of success. It is true Capt. D. is popular personally, and he has made an able, industrious and useful member of Congress. But, all the people are not informed as to these things, and may be misled by the falsehoods and sophistries of the Radicals, who are working with an industry and zeal, that it would be well that the Democrats should emulate. They have money and are using it freely. They have other appliances for corrupting the people, and domineering over them to such an extent that they can be controlled, which are denied us.—Seeing these things we should be stimulated to still more strenuous and unceasing efforts to succeed in maintaining our ground in our Congressional District. With good work we can, not only maintain our ground, but can make heavy inroads upon the enemy. With such efforts as can be put forth in this District to enlighten the people and correctly inform them as to the issues, and men of this campaign, we ought to carry the District by 2,500 or 3,000 majority.— Shall it be done? By all means. It must be done.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15th. PROGRESS OF THE CAMPAIGN. The publication of the letter which announce the acceptance of their nominations by Governor Tilden and Governor Hendricks have had an influence on public sentiment. These epistles are full of riches, and resemble a mine in that while some of the treasures lie upon the surface, we have to dig and dive before we can discover the full extent of the wealth that is to us vouchsafed. Men are delving into them, trying to get to their very bottoms, and are discovering the value of the ore they contain. The letters of the Cincinnati nominees will bear no comparison with them. Men see the difference, and unite themselves with the forces under the command of those who have proved themselves such able generals.

On the top of these comes the sound of the first gun which has been fired in the campaign. The Armies in Alabama have measured their strength, and the Reform standard proudly waves over every citadel in the State. This event cannot fail to have a good effect upon the minds of our soldiers, for "nothing succeeds like success." Every victory nerves the hand of the combatants for further conquest. The Republicans do not like the aspect of affairs at all. In every part of the State are they showing signs of disaffection towards those who assumed the character of their leaders. They are losing faith in the men who are placed in command of their army and there is danger of open insurrection. Conkling is told by Chandler that he must withdraw his favorite from the race for the Governorship. Conkling had enough of the curb at Cincinnati, and feels disposed to enjoy his freedom of action now. His friends feel somewhat as the adherents of Blaine do. The respective followers of these statesmen think that their leaders were very badly treated by the National Convention. They are not all enthusiastic in their support of the party ticket, and are almost in condition for open rebellion, if any attempt be made to put further insults upon either of them.

THE LETTERS OF OUR CANDIDATES.

Governors Tilden and Hendricks have at length favored the world with the letters containing their formal acceptance of the nominations for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency, tendered them by the Democratic National Convention, and in so doing they have made a notable addition to our political literature. They have furnished us with two documents which will be ever memorable in the annals of our public life, and will at all times serve as models to be used by future aspirants for political honors. When compared with the letters which the Republican candidate issued for a similar purpose, one cannot help wondering what way our opponents have disposed of the brains that went to direct them. The intellects of its most conspicuous members have been racked to compile epistles which they could send forth in the names of their candidates, and yet these appear upon a plane of thought so much lower than those which are composed by our nominees—each by the man whose name it bears—that when one stands upon the platform which the latter writers have erected, their rivals and their efforts are completely lost to view. Governor Tilden henceforth takes his proud position among the most notable of our statesmen; and indeed of those of the whole world. He is one of the men who have achieved greatness by the unaided efforts of his will acting upon and directing the energies of a powerful intellect. He shows himself capable of taking in hand the solution of the grave and important questions which he discusses, and the record of his past life is an assurance to us that whatever he undertakes will be done honestly, fearlessly, and with the sole design of advancing the interests of the republic.

JOHN E. THOMAS.

JOHN E. THOMAS is on the high road to success. He is giving the Radicals on all hands just what they need. Does not spare from fear, favor or affection, the latter of which he has not a particle of to bestow upon the iniquitous crowd, and the first does not enter into his composition in the slightest degree. Mr. Thomas is going to the Legislature to meet his old friends who were there in 1841 and 1842. He has a reputation that is not confined to State lines for native honesty, and a high toned generosity. Will some good Democrat in Raleigh oblige us by going up to the House of Representatives and make a seat for him?

The people of N. Y. have the satisfaction of feeling that while half of their State taxes are remitted—$8,000,000 out of $16,000,000—it is accomplished without improvidence of the future or temporary retrenchment which cannot be maintained; and that the appropriations have been kept clearly without the means provided by the taxes levied; so that no temporary floating debt will be created or invasion of the sinking fund made, as has often and to a large extent, happened hitherto, in disobedience to the express commands of the Constitution, and in violation of the whole scheme and policy of that instrument, in respect to the State finances.

Are the people of Franklin content longer to be oppressed and almost crushed beneath the burden of official corruption, and misgovernment. To see their paper which they are taxed to pay dollar for dollar, sold on the streets of Louisburg at a mere song, and traded off in the stores at an enormous discount for second class goods. If so let them vote for the Radical nominees. But while doing so let them remember how it is in Wake, Nash, Wilson, Warren and all the counties under Democratic Commissioners. Let them remember how it was in Wake two years ago, and how it is now. Then let them choose between the Radical Candidates and such men as Gill, Long, Ballard, Webb and Fowler.

CHOOSE YE!

It is Jno. E. Thomas the white man of integrity on the one side, or John H. Williamson the negro, and representative of his race, lead by such white men as Gen. P. B. Hawkins, Buck Tucker, the great over charger and over receiver. James C. Wynne the doughty and money lusing Sheriff, who wants Democrats to vote for him because he voted for Green, and apologises to the negroes, on the grounds that he could not have given his bond had he voted with his party, and Calisher the Julius Jew, and men of that stripe.

Mr. Thomas has ever been true to his people. They will be true to him. Nothing less than one hundred majority will do for him.

KIRK, HOLDEN, PEARSON, SETTLE.

On the 20th July, 1870, Governor Holden wrote to President Grant informing him of the condition of affairs in North Carolina, and predicting that Chief Justice Pearson would substantially sustain him. On 23 July, Governor Holden telegraphed to Washington as follows: "Habeas Corpus just decided. Chief Justice Pearson substantially sustains the State Government and refuses to interfere."

AND PEARSON CONVICTS SETTLE. The Chief Justice in case of Ex parte Kerr and others, after deciding that "the power of the Judiciary was exhausted," thus convicts Captain Settle his other brother Justice as follows. He says:

"It is gratifying to be able to say that the other Justices have been in unreserved conference with me, and that all concur in these Habeas Corpus proceedings." And thus stands the record as to the part Settle took in the Holden-Kirk war. Verily, that was a bad day's work for Traitor Tom!—Will Journal.

Has Buck and Jimmy paid their installments of the campaign fund assessed them by John Williamson in 1874, John has frequently denounced them publicly on the street for their failure to do so. We presume they have as all is as sweet as honey now. Has the "Julius Ju" paid him? Something was said about that too.

KuKlux.—The Radicals are going into conniptions because the Democrats nominated, Randolph A. Shotwell KuKlux to the Legislature, and thereupon went straightway and nominated Jim Boyd a self confessed KuKlux to Congress from the Greensboro District. This is seeing the little things almost, through mountains at home. But by the time our Candidate finishes scaling Boyd there will be so little left of him that neither the KuKlux or Union League, would have him. Scale him clean Alfred.— Don't let him go to Washington or one might lose the services of Martin, Brother Blaine, Spencer, Old Boutwell and the rest of the scarry crowd.

Do the people of Franklin again want a Board of Commissioners who have left a report of an investigating committee, appointed by themselves, showing that their Clerk had charged and received $700 or $800 more than he was entitled to under the law, lie on their table without action for a year? If they do they get it in the Radical Candidates, three of whom were on the old Board. Mr. Harris whom they left off, has tried frequently to have the matter considered. But his efforts have been futile, as he was out voted by the majority. Ballard, Long, Webb, Gill, and Fowler are different men from that.

MISRULE AND HARD TIMES.

Reform is necessary to rebuild and establish in the hearts of the whole people, the Union, eleven years ago happily rescued from the danger of a secession of States; but now to be saved from a corrupt Centralism, which after inflicted upon ten States the rapacity of carpet bag tyrannies has honey-combed the offices of the Federal Government itself with incapacity, waste and fraud; infected States and municipalities with contagion of misrule, and locked fast the prosperity of an industrious people in the paralysis of "Hard Times."

Do the people of Franklin want the County put on a cash paying basis, so that when a county order or jury ticket is issued the holder will have nothing to do but to go to Treasurer Clifton and get his money, as is the case now in Wake, Nash, Warren, Orange, Wilson and the other Counties with Democratic Boards of Commissioners. If so let them vote for our Democratic Board: B. T. Ballard, David H. Gill, Robert T. Webb, Joseph Fowler and Norman Long, are their names.

Do the people want again to elect a Register who has charged, received and persist in holding some $700 or $800 more for his services than is legal? If so let them elect Tucker. If they do not then W. K. Martin Jr. is the man. Had we not better have a change?—Buck should step down and out. If not of his own accord, then he should be invited so to do.

J. C. Wynne, the Radical nominee for the office of sheriff is the same man, who said, four years ago, in a speech in front of the post office, "that he was the RADICAL, REPUBLICAN NEGRO Candidate." Remember this white men of Franklin when you come to the polls in November next.

Judge Watts was down on Saturday. We think the nominations were made without consulting the Judge this time. He spoke a little piece, and left out only three of the many things in this world: These three were decency, law and fly pizen and the greatest of these is the pizen.

How are you to day uncle Sandy? Better let Atlas Stone attend to the Coroners business. He will be called upon on the 8th day of November next, to hold an inquest over and bury the Radical corpses. Don't let you be among them.

Judge Samuel W. Watts, expressed his deliverance to a black audience on Saturday last, on the proposed Constitutional Amendments. Hope you feel better Judge.

Jas. C. Wynne said four years ago that he was the Radical Republican Negro candidate. Don't forget this white men of Franklin in November next.

When did Mathew Eaton, the "Publicans and sinners appear?"— He ought to have had a place.

Old man Ephram Williamson (Squire Doggies) was left off the ticket? Are his friends saving him to succeed Judge Watts in 1878.

Why did not Peyton Green get a place on the Radical ticket? His eminent services and abilities entitled him to such recognition.

Judge Watts had his myroscopes down with him last Saturday through which he noted the action of the Convention. Sorry the Judge is getting near sighted.

NOTICE.

At the meeting of the Board of Commissioners held to-day, it was ordered that sealed proposals be received for the letting of the Poor House, on the 5th day of Sept. 1876, to the lowest responsible bidder. The proposal will be received on that day. The Poor House to be opened at 12 o'clock.

P. B. Hawkins, Chairman. J. B. Tucker, Clerk.

The Sentinel for the CAMPAIGN.

The canvass now opening is the most important in which the people of North Carolina have been engaged since the momentous election of 1860. Upon this result depends the weal or woe of the State and Union. THE RALEIGH SENTINEL will, as ever be in the front of the fight, sustaining fearlessly and faithfully the candidates of the National Democratic party, and the action and nominees of the State Democratic Convention. To this we pledge the whole power and influence of a journal which in the past, has done what it could to serve the interest and preserve the right and liberties of the people of North Carolina.

In order that it may be within the means of every Democrat in the State to read THE RALEIGH SENTINEL during the canvass, we have established the following campaign rates, free of postage and for country subscribers only beginning this day and running to the 15th of November, a period of four months:

Table with 2 columns: DAILY EDITION (1 Copy $2.50, 5 Copies 10.00, 10 17.00) and WEEKLY EDITION (1 Copy 50 cents).

In every case the money must accompany the order.
