GOODYE, FIFTH VOLUME.

With this issue ends the fifth volume of the Courier, the fourth under the control of its present proprietor.

We hope that all who are in areas for subscriptions and advertising, will not delay longer to send us their orders.

We have no new promises to make, and the paper will in every respect be just as good as the patronage received will justify.

Our political fight has been against the extravagant and corrupt radical party, against which we have fought with all our strength and might, and to whom we have no quarters to offer.

But this is no time for promises of what we will do in the future, or regrets for the past. We therefore bid goodbye to the fifth volume of the Courier, and step into the sixth year of its existence.

TO YOU, READER!

Before we shall again greet our readers the American people will have joined and terminated a political battle of greater magnitude than any that has preceded in the annals of our Republic.

1. Whether the Civil or Military power shall be supreme in this land.

2. Whether the corruptionists and thieves shall continue to bear rule, instead of the honest portion of the community?

3. Whether the blood bought monuments of our ancestors shall be preserved by their posterity?

On the side of continued tyranny, corruption and venality is arrayed the Republican party which has controlled and shaped the destinies of this country for the sixteen years last past.

The facts in regard to the blockade transaction of the state are all in the personal knowledge of John White, now I believe a resident of Petersburg, Va.

This Election affects us in every way. All the officers who are to hear rule from President down to the most insignificant of the county officers are to be elected this year.

Then it behooves every man to see that nothing is left undone to secure a grand victory.

Go to the polls early. Stay there all day. See that every white man in your Township does his duty.

Let every Democrat do his full duty and a grand victory for reform will be the result.

The Robbers are in the house. Put them out!

Vote the Democratic Ticket. Vote against the "Butt End" candidates for Commissioners.

Vote against the party that murdered Stephens, and charged the Democrats with the crime.

Vote against the party that inaugurated the Kirk war.

Vote against the party that keep your county government in debt, and lay all the time pating heavy taxes upon the people.

Vote for Samuel J. Tilden the great embodiment of reform in America.

Vote for the "honest man," the noblest work of God.

alludes, drawn by me on parties in Europe, were for the proceeds of fifteen bales of cotton shipped by me on Alexander Collier's steamer.

Whist I was in Carroll prison in Washington I wrote to Gov. Holden immediately after his appointment as provisional Governor, and informed him where all the state property was, the cotton and rosin, and particularly this amount in the hands of Flanner, and urged him to take steps to secure it.

Very Respectfully, J. C. VANCE.

Work for the Seventh day of November.

We would urge upon our friends of the various counties, townships and ward executive committees and upon the members of the Tilden and Vance Clubs, that they appoint persons - active, zealous, earnest, discreet men - to attend the polls on the 7th day of November, to see.

1. That a plentiful supply of Democratic tickets are on hand all the time.

2. That the Democratic tickets are not tampered with or destroyed.

3. That the tickets presented by Democratic voters are properly prepared.

4. That no bogus tickets are voted or even brought to the polls.

5. That each Democratic voter deposits the proper ballot in the proper box.

6. And that no unfairness, or cheating, or intimidation of any kind, is done.

Let every Democrat do his full duty and a grand victory for reform will be the result.

The Colored People. SOME QUESTIONS TO ASK THEMSELVES.

WHY DO YOU VOTE TO SUSTAIN THOSE IN OFFICE WHO ARE DAILY ROBBING THE MEX TO WHOM YOU LOOK FOR EMPLOYMENT AND SUPPORT.

Let every man who has colored men in his employment ask each one of them these questions and get an answer for each question:

1. Whom do you work for? Is he a radical or a democrat? If a democrat, why do you work with one who is opposed to you in politics?

2. Why do you not engage in business only with those of your own political faith. If you cannot, have you asked yourself why is this so?

3. How is it then that you so readily combine with others to put in office men who rob your employers? Are you aware that when your employer is robbed you are robbed to a certain extent also?

4. If you put up men who tax your employer and yourself only to enable them to steal and live finely, are you honest? And have you not allowed your vote to do this again and again?

5. You call yourself a republican. If men are named whom the people can trust, your hands are clean? but if the old story is repeated, and swindlers, cheats, or incompetent persons are put forward by your party, and you cling to them, do you think your employer can trust you with his interests? Ought he?

Some Things of Transcendent Importance. [Wilmington Star.]

1. That every Democrat should be registered. If your name is not now on the registration books, go at once and have it put there.

2. That every free Democrat should see that his friend is properly registered.

3. That every thoughtful Democrat should read the newspapers and keep himself and his less fortunate neighbors posted as to political affairs.

4. That the fires of Democracy should burn more and more brightly until the 7th of November. Let the meetings be well attended. Swell the enthusiasm.

5. Neglect not the weightier matters of the law - earnest pains-taking work in your community, among your friends and acquaintances. See that the party work goes wisely, bravely on around you.

6. That the registration books should be closely watched. The enemy carries elections by dishonest means.

We have received the following certificates from reliable gentlemen of Granville, which shows up W. H. Chapell, one of the radical candidates for commissioners in Franklin, in rather a bad light; with such a record we are not surprised at his being a radical, and in high favor with his party.

This is to certify that Henry Chapell the candidate for commissioner in Franklin county was with leading and disreputable rogues and thieves that followed the Wakee army in 1865 through this neighborhood stealing horses, mules, meat, cotton, preserved fruit, clothes, and everything else that could be easily carried off.

This is to certify that Henry Chapell the candidate for commissioner of Franklin County did steal the watch of Brazel Pollard.
