TRIUMPHS FOR REPUBLICAN POLICY.

The great and constant gains in th ales of American manufactured goods the rest of the world is a magnificent tribute to the foresignt and courage of the Republican party. By its judicious Tariff policy the Republican party saved a large part of the Amercan market to the American prolucer, and this course caused a home competition which encouraged the invention which has devised labor-saving appliances, while it has at the same time advanced the pay and shortened the working hours of the workers, giving the m both the time and the stimulus to the mental improvement which has made the American worker more intelligent than any other in the world.

Here are the secrets of the increasein the sales of American manufac tures in Europe and Asia. Americans have better machinery and more skillful labor than are found in other countries. England, in seeking a superb grade of iron and steel bridges and the workers who can put them up in the quickest and the best fash. ion, comes to the United States for them. France, Russia and other European countries buy most of their in the United States. Thus this country is growing, in a continually increasing degree, to [be a workshop fer the world. As a consequence, the number of idle workers in the United States at the present time is smaller than it ever was before. The country has attained a higher degree of prosperity than ever was known in the past. Here are triumphs for Republican policy which will gain hundreds of thousands of votes for the party in the election of 1900.
