The North Carolinian.

Thursday, May 24, 1900.

TO THE PUBLIC. Mr. R. P. Jenkins of Chicago, now of Elizabeth City, N. C., is herewith associated with the CAROLINIAN as Assistant-Editor and Business Manager.

There's a thrill in the maples, there's a whisper in the pines, An' the hummin' bird is hummin' in the mornin' glory vines.

TWO SPRING DITTIES. DOWN SOUTH. There's a twain in the maples, there's a whisper in the pines.

Oh, the country's growing brighter, an' the world in glory rolls.

There's another north-rin comin' an' the streets are full of slush.

UP NORTH. The mud that's on the sidewalks makes you think you're in a slush.

Oh, the country's under water, an' the mud is getting fatter.

Through our spectacles. With this issue the CAROLINIAN begins its Thirty-Second Volume.

A little cool for May. Our professional fishermen are now after the mackerel.

Don't forget the eclipse on the 28th, nor the hour—8:54 a. m.

Heavy shipments of strawberries and peas still continue.

Our Job press is running merrily. Remember, promptness and accuracy is our motto.

A great truth quickly told: Clothing for Men, Youths and Children. The latest novelties at Moses Weisels.

A memorandum is something we write down to make us wonder what we intended to do when we read it.

As we begin a new year of the CAROLINIAN we trust that all whose subscriptions have expired will promptly renew.

"Gnat fever" is the new scientific name for malaria, since it has been shown that it is through mosquitoes that the disease is conveyed to human beings.

Honest values stitched with truthfulness. The Hu-mau-c Shoe for men is one of the best that is made.

A Scranton (Pa.) court is asked to grant the claim of one Isaac Sidelbottom against the estate of John Shafer, deceased.

At Avon, Dare county, on the 16th, Miss L. Retta Gray, daughter of Capt. A. F. Gray, was united in wedlock to Mr. Andrew Fourchey.

Never before have we been able to offer so large and varied an assortment of fresh and pleasing styles.

Five women sitting together in a Philadelphia street car the other day carried finger purses, the initials on which spelled the word e-m-p-t-y.

The key to the situation: We have secured Ziegler Bros' fine Shoes for ladies. Our stock has just come in bright and new.

The steamer May Flower which has been in this port for repairs left Monday, steaming away in all the glory of her increased tonnage and her improved rough-weather ability.

Negroes continue to move out of the State. From the eastern part of the State they are going further south.

Littleton Female College Commencement Program: Elocution Recital, Tuesday evening, May 29th.

There's another north-rin comin' an' the streets are full of slush.
