

TOLD IN BRIEF.

Going and Coming of People You Know and of Some You Don't Know.

Miss Annie Burgess is visiting friends in Edenton.

Mrs. O. McMullan leaves today to spend a week in Norfolk visiting friends.

Miss Annie Morris, of Norfolk, is visiting Mrs. Peter Shipp on First street.

Miss Blanche Berry, of Berkley Va., is visiting Mrs. J. Y. Olds on Fearing street.

Miss Winnie Skinner, of Greenville, is visiting Miss Mae Wood, on Church street.

Miss Hampton, of Coinjock, has returned after a visit to Miss Belle Hughes on Penn. Ave.

Mr. Henry S. Willey, of Snowden, after a visit to the family Mr. S. C. Barcliff, has returned.

Miss Dicks, of Raleigh, is visiting the family of Mr. Benj. L. Banks, on Burgess street.

Miss Rudd, of Hampton, Va., is visiting the family of Dr. W. J. Lumsden, on Road street.

Mrs. Rose Pendleton who has been visiting relatives in Florida, returned to her home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Scott, of Coinjock, spent Sunday with Mrs. Scott's mother, Mrs. Alice Cartwright.

Mrs. W. D. Straughn and family, of Snow Hill Maryland, is visiting the family of D. H. Straughn on Penn. Ave.

Miss Nellie Whitson, of Berkley Va., has returned to her home after a visit to Miss Blanch Bell on Fearing street.

Miss Krumke who has been visiting Mrs. Huekabee on Ehringhaus street, left for her home in Baltimore on Tuesday.

Mrs. R. O. Crisp, who has been spending sometime with friends in Baltimore, has returned to her home on Church street.

Mr. W. A. West left Tuesday for Camden and Pasquotank counties, N. C., for a gunning trip.—Berkley Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pearson, of Baltimore, have returned to that city after a visit to friends and relatives in the city.

Miss Carrie Alexander who has been spending the Xmas holidays with her grandfather, Mr. Hornthal in Norfolk, has returned home.

Mr. T. S. Davenport and family have moved to Elizabeth City, where Mr. Davenport will resume work for the Richmond Cedar Works.—Berkley Democrat.

Mr. B. S. Davis and family of East Lake will make their home in this city and will reside at 51 Burgess street. Mr. Davis is engaged in the lumber business.

A Temperance Mass meeting will be held in the M. E. Church South, Sunday evening at 8:30 P. M. by the young men who are interested in the movement. All are invited.

Mr. D. D. Raper has returned to Hertford after spending the holidays with relatives. He is superintendent of the Major and Loomis lumber plant at that place.

Among those who spent the holidays at home was Mr. J. Almond Spence, who is now a resident of Norfolk Va., in which city he is meeting with success in the restaurant business.

C. A. Long and family have moved here from Perquimans Co. to make this their home. Mr. Long is a most excellent man and the Tar Heel extends a hearty welcome to him and his.

Mr. C. B. Mason, the marble dealer, left this week for Windsor and other points in Bertie County, in the interest of his marble business, which business, his friends will be gratified to know, is rapidly growing.

Mr. J. Wiley Halestead of Henderson, N. C., but formerly of Camden County, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. George Beveridge on Shepherd street, left for his home Wednesday. He is remembered here by a large circle of friends and former school mates.

Prof. J. P. Spence left Tuesday for Newbern, after having spent the holidays with his parents in this city. Mr. Spence is superintendent of the graded schools of Newberne, and under his management the schools are doing excellent work.

Mrs. T. E. Hall, of Richmond, has been spending the holidays with her husband, who is the manager of the Virginia Life Insurance Co., for this territory. They have rooms at the Arlington. Mrs. Hall was a Miss Hart, of Raleigh, and is a granddaughter of Ex. Gov. Bragg of this state.

Mr. Chas. J. Sinn, the genial manager of the Platt Company, of this city, has returned after spending the holidays at his home in Baltimore. He is accompanied by his charming wife who is one of the fairest daughters of that city long famed for beautiful women. The Tar Heel extends welcome.

J. E. Brown who conducts a wood-yard on South Road street, is one of the best citizens in this midst and as a colored man he reflects credit upon his race. He has accumulated much property and by his industry and manly bearing he has won the confidence and regard of the people of this city.

Mr. S. Abraham, of Baltimore will open a large stock of dry goods, clothing and shoes, about Jan. 15th in the store on Poindexter street recently vacated by Thos. Gold. Mr. Abraham is a relative of Mr. D. Abraham of this city and he is welcomed to the mercantile circles.

Mr. L. A. Quidley, of Hatteras, was in the city this week and reports an accident at Hatteras Christmas eve which resulted in the loss of a hand to Joe Meekins, by the explosion of an over loaded gun. Mr. Meekins is a bright young man of 19 yrs. and he is doing well since the amputation of his hand by Dr. Davis.

It may be interesting to learn that Fearing street extended is the most thickly populated section of the city. It is stated by competent authority that upward of one hundred children have homes on this street and within a distance of two hundred yards. Among the best citizens reside on this street.

Among the many letters which come to the Tar Heel office daily, requesting a subscription, none have been appreciated more than one from Mr. K. R. Pugh, of Salvo, N. C. Mr. Pugh is one of the best citizens of Dare Co. and a man of more unquestioned integrity cannot be found. We welcome him to the large and rapidly increasing list of Tar Heel readers.

Mr. Geo. W. Butler has returned from his old home at Snow Hill, Md. after spending the holidays pleasantly with friends and relatives. He has been a resident of this city for eleven years, during which time he has won many friends. He was associated with the Jones Mfg. Co. until about three years ago when he accepted a position with the Elizabeth City Lumber Co. as chief engineer of their extensive plant.

Death of Mrs. Mary Raper.
Mrs. Mary Raper departed this life Tuesday December 24, at her late home in the Layden building on Road street, at the age of seventy. She had lived in this county all of her exemplary life, and for more than 50 years was a consistent member of the Methodist church of this city. She was a widow for 40 years and was a sister of the late Chas. B. Brothers. Most all her relatives had died and with her the past few years had been spent in loneliness awaiting the call of the grim messenger.

Goes to the Philippines.
Jno H. M. Butler, formerly a teacher in the colored A & M College of this State, and a teacher some years ago in the normal school of this city, has been appointed teacher of English in the Philippine Islands by Supt. F. W. Atkinson of the public schools of Manila. The salary is 1200 per annum. This is a high compliment, and a just recognition of the merit of one of the most highly educated and respected colored citizens of this state. He will leave about Jan. 15, and he has promised the readers of the Tar Heel occasional contributions from his pen giving his impressions of that far away country.

MR. KELLUM ARRIVES.

Standard Pharmacy Under New Management.

Mr. R. A. Kellum, of Wadesboro, who has purchased part interest in the Standard Pharmacy, has arrived and will cast his lot with the people of this thriving city. Mr. Kellum is not only a gentleman with an attractive personality, but a man possessing fine traits of character. He is a registered pharmacist, and has achieved no little reputation in his profession.

The style of the firm will continue as the Standard Pharmacy, and it is well thus, for under the most excellent management this store has won a reputation which has made it long since the most popular drug store in the city. Not only is this store under competent management but is one of the most modern and attractive stores of its kind in North Carolina.

CHRISTMAS NUPTIALS.

Marriage of a Popular Couple of Perquimans County.

The home of Mr. Theophilus White near Hertford in Perquimans County, was the scene of a pretty marriage December 26th, the contracting parties being Miss Blanche White and Mr. Robert Duke. Promptly at the appointed hour—7 P. M.—Miss White and Mr. Duke with their attendants were ushered into the prettily decorated parlor of Mr. White while Mendelsshons wedding march was being rendered by Miss Pearl Phillips of Red Hill Va.

The attendants were Miss Stella White, sister of the bride, with Mr. Willie Harrell, Miss Vedic Turner with Mr. Graham White, Miss Emma Blanchard with Mr. J. H. Parker Jr., Miss Corrie Gathing with Mr. C. M. Harrell, Miss Nettie Turner with Mr. T. C. Babb, and Miss Hilda Parker with Mr. C. W. Griffin.

After the ceremony was performed by J. H. Parker Esq., an old comrade of the bride's father during the Confederate War, and congratulations were extended, refreshments were served to about one hundred guests.

The day following the marriage the merry bridal party left for the home of the groom where they were tendered a hearty reception and an elegant supper.

The numerous and pretty presents received attest the popularity of the young people, who have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous life together.

Death of Young Davenport.

Mr. C. H. Freeman, of this city gives information of a sad accident in Washington county which resulted in the death of young Davenport—a boy of 15 years. Mr. W. S. Davenport, the father of the young man, was killing hogs and had placed them on a pole, and by accident the pole, with the full weight of the hogs fell upon the youth, killing him almost instantly. The bereaved father has the utmost sympathy of his neighbors.

Tar Heel Foreman Interviewed.

The Goldsboro Correspondent of the Raleigh Morning Post in a recent issue of that paper has this to say:

"Mr. Jno. L. Wells, a former Goldsboro boy, has returned to spend the holidays with his parents. He is foreman of the Elizabeth City Tar Heel, the paper which was recently started by Walter L. Cohoon, who is well known in the State as the former traveling representative of the Morning Post. Speaking of his paper, Mr. Wells says that its success has been nothing less than remarkable. Starting four months ago without a subscriber it has in this short time attained a circulation of fifteen hundred. It is now growing at the rate of 100 per week. Mr. Wells expresses himself as highly pleased with Elizabeth City, and says that the people of North Carolina have no idea of the size and commercial importance of this town. 'It has,' he says, 'a population of more than eight thousand, and practically controls the trade of ten fertile counties. The industries are so diversified that there are no dull seasons with the merchants. A charter has been recently granted for the establishment of a street railway for the city.'
