MUMFORD.

Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.
Mumford, Jan. 6.—

Mr. Roland C. Lynch, a prominent young man of this place, has accepted a position as salesman for the Elizabeth firm of Shawber & White. We recommend him to the people of Elizabeth City, as a young man of ability.

Mr. W. A. Foster is having his house remodeled, which adds a great deal to its beauty.

Miss Lottie Morgan, who is sales lady for the firm of P. W. Melick, was the esteemed guest of Miss Euna V. Morgan, the last of the week.

Miss Gertrude V. Whitney, one of Mumford's charming young ladies, returned to her home Saturday, after an extensive visit with relatives in Hertford.

Mr. West, a painter, from Elizabeth City, has been engaged in this place for several weeks past.

Mr. S. B. Temple, of Norfolk, Va., was called last week to the bed-side of his sister, Mrs. J. E. Temple, who was very ill. We are glad to learn that she is improving.

Mr. W. K. Etheridge lost a valuable horse a few days ago. The horse was taken sick Sunday and soon died. The cause of the death is unknown.

MANTEO.

Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.
Manteo, Jan. 13, 1902.

Ed. TAR HEEL.—In reading over a letter by an Elizabeth City correspondent to the Norfolk Landmark, concerning the proposed celebration of historic events on Roanoke Island, I notice his argument advising that the celebration take place at Elizabeth City instead of Roanoke, as proposed.

If, as he suggests, the affair cannot be held on Roanoke Island because Manteo cannot accommodate the expected guests, it would be just as appropriate to hold it in Chicago or Philadelphia. Surely these places could accommodate the guests and are certainly as much connected with the landing place of Sir Walter Raleigh's colony, the birth-place of Virginia Dare and the scene of historical events, as is Elizabeth City.

It was upon Roanoke Island that all the events, in commemoration of which, this celebration is to be held, occurred, and it is especially fitting that the scene of these occurrences be the place of their celebration. It is indeed doubtful if anywhere there could be found a place better suited to such an affair as this promises to be, than Roanoke Island. Readily accessible from north and south, lying at the very mouth of the beautiful Albemarle, possessing a climate unrivaled anywhere, with an unlimited supply of pure, fresh water, for which the north end of the Island is noted. The Island is in an easy position to extend a cordial and hospitable welcome to all who wish to avail themselves of an opportunity to witness the celebration of our country's beginning.

No apprehension need be felt by any prospective visitor with regard to the ability of the island to look after the needs and desires of the inner man. Fish and all the seasonable foods and delicacies will be served in abundance, and the citizens will take care that every provision will be made for the comfortable housing of any number of guests in this eventful time. Our governor has assured us that every effort, on the part of Dare County citizens, will receive his aid. Now all who wish to come may feel sure that their visit to a place so full of history and romance will be both pleasant and profitable.

Yours truly
AUG. H. ETHERIDGE.

WANCHESE.
