Mr. J. B. Walston of Weeksville was a caller at the TAR HEEL office yesterday, Mr. Walston has taken great interest in the rural free delivery scheme and to him will be due much credit when it is established.

This issue of the TAR HEEL reaches our readers late on account of an accident to our press. We ask the indulgence of our subscribers in this, and assure them that under our new arrangement, which we hope soon to have completed, delays will be avoided.

The TAR HEEL extends thanks to Mr. F. M. Godfrey of Weeksville for the unselfish interest which he has manifested in the rural free delivery routes in this part of the county, Mr. Godfrey is a progressive and public spirited man and there is no better citizen in the county.

Hon. Thos. R. Ward, of Belvidere, was appointed a delegate to the Good Roads Convention which meets in Raleigh Feb., 12th. He regrets that he will not be able to attend and desires someone to represent Perquimans. Anyone desiring to go will correspond with him.

The Lillipution Wedding given by the Baptist society at the church last evening was largely attended and was certainly a success. All who received invitations responded, and the ceremony passed off pleasantly to the delight of the audience. The proceeds of the entertainment exceeded the expectation of the society.

Miss Neppie Burgess, left Saturday for Baltimore where she goes on an extended visit to her brother and friends. She spent sometime in that city last season where she was justly popular, many receptions having been tendered in her honor. Miss Burgess is widely known in Eastern North Carolina where her many graces have made her universally popular.

Mrs. Abendigo, of Tyrone, Pennsylvania is spending the winter with her son Mr. Chas. Grazier, at his beautiful home of Euclid Heights. Mr. Grazier is the foreman of the Euclid Heights broom factory. He has been in our midst about a year and he speaks most favorably of his new home, and says that he pins his faith to Elizabeth City's future.

The Order of Red Men of Elizabeth City is a prosperous and growing lodge. Sixty-five members are now enrolled composed of the best citizens of the city. The rooms of the order are located on the third floor of the Academy of Music building. Meetings are held in the rooms every Thursday night. The Lodge was organized here seven years ago and has been thriving ever since it's organization.

Red Men Visit.

Messrs. Wesley Williams, W. B. Goodwin, C. C. Bailey, J. W. Richardson, O. C. Barrett, R. E. Black, B. F. Wood, S. Whitson and F. G. Thompson, members of Elizabeth City Tribe of Red Men went to Knott's Island last week to confer the unwritten work of the order. They went via Snowden to Currituck Court House from whence they crossed by boat to the island. A party of members from the island met them at Currituck Court House. The party give a glowing account of the hospitality of the people of the island. All experienced a very pleasant trip. The branch of the Red Men's lodge at Knott's Island is in a most flourishing condition.

Wanchese Delegation.

Messrs. E. R. Daniels and St. Clair Pugh, of Wanchese, Roanoke Island, called at the office of Mr. Edmund Alexander last Friday in the interest of the proposed line to Hatteras. They designated on the map of the United States Coast survey, the proper location for a wharf which will control the shipment of fish from the northern portion of Pamlico sound. The proposed site is about three miles south of the Old Dominion wharf and situated on an excellent harbor. These gentlemen are both largely engaged in mercantile business and control the shipment of more fish than all the other merchants on Roanok Island. Both of the gentlemen gave their opinion that the line would pay and that the project would receive the substantial support of the merchants of the island.

Weather Signal Service Not Satisfactory.

The captains of vessels plying on the Pasquotank river tells us that the signal service is at present very unsatisfactory. It was formerly under the direction of Mr. Zoeller and was of great benefit. Since he has moved his studio up town, a little further from the water front, the service was given to Mr. M. G. Wright. The captains say that if they wish to make any inquiries, they are seldom able to find Mr. Wright.

Accordingly they have drawn up a petition asking the officer in charge at Norfolk under whose authority is the service at this place, to have the service again given to Mr. Zoeller's charge. Mr. Zoeller in has consented to look after it. The petition contains the signatures of nearly all the captains of the vessels and steamers running into this city. The signal service should be where it will do the most good. It is for the benefit, principally of the vessels and if the captains are not satisfied, a change should be made. We believe that Mr. Zoeller will give it the same care which he formerly did.

Amazon Medicine Company.

The Amazon Medicine Company have been in this city for the past six weeks and have been thoroughly introducing their remedies. An immense number of free samples are being distributed. The proprietors of the branch are Messrs. L. P. Hobgood and Judson

Cooper. These gentlemen are making a tour of the South, spending about two months in each town and thoroughly introducing their remedies. While in this city nearly 2000 bottles have been sold and judging from the numerous testimonials received, these remedies are giving excellent results. There are seven distinct remedies and each a success. The store is located at 107 Poindexter street. This branch of the Amazon Medicine Company, of New York, will remain in Elizabeth City only two or three more weeks and will continue giving away free samples during that time. If you have a severe headache some day just stop in and try a free sample of the remedy. 107 Poindexter street.
