

TOLD IN BRIEF.

Going and Coming of People You Know and of Some You Don't Know.

The condition of Capt. John Thornton does not improve.

Mrs. W. B. Ferguson is visiting her parents in Camden county.

The first white shad of the season was at Crank's fish market.

Our local fishermen have left for the lower sounds for the fishing season.

Mrs. Jas. Harris of Norfolk is visiting the home of her father Mr. F. Spence.

Mr. Walter Newbern of Powel Point spent several days in town this week.

Mr. Henry Gilbert, of Gregory, was in Elizabeth on business, Monday.

Miss Irene Allen left Saturday for a visit to friends in Washington, D. C.

Miss Lena Gilbert spent Saturday and Sunday at her old home at Beloross.

Mrs. Cassie Morrisett has an "at home" this evening from three until five.

The revenue cutter Boutwell has been lying in the river off this city for several days past.

Mr. John L. Wells of the TAR HEEL, spent Sunday pleasantly with friends at Berkeley, Va.

Miss Annie Bushell, one Camden's charming young ladies spent Saturday in town shopping.

Mr. Chas. Spire, who sustained injuries last week by being thrown from a cart, is rapidly improving.

Miss Mae Wood entertained the chess club pleasantly at her home on Church street Tuesday night.

Miss Virgilia Banks leaves today for Norfolk to visit her friend, Mrs. Samuel Ferebee, on Bench street.

Mrs. F. M. Cook and Mrs. Charles Guirkin entertained a few friends at luncheon on Thursday of last week.

Rev. W. L. Tuttle returned Friday, from a few days spent at Ashland, where he was called by the illness of his mother.

Mr. W. L. Forbes, of Indiantown, was in the city last week attending the lectures to the Odd Fellows by Mr. B. H. Woodell.

Mr. S. D. Barnes has leased the house on Riverside, recently occupied by the late Mr. Parker, and will move into it this week.

The new stables of Mr. A. C. Stokes of Matthews st., are nearing completion, and when finished they will be a credit to the town.

Mrs. R. O. Crisp gave an at home to her many friends yesterday evening from four till six o'clock. The guests passed a delightful evening.

Mr. Bradley and family, of Richmond, Va., have moved to Elizabeth City and are residing on Cypress street. The TAR HEEL extends welcome.

Miss Edna Saunders entertained a number of her friends at her home on South Poindexter st., last Thursday evening. Music, games and refreshments gave pleasure to the occasion.

Miss Lane, of New Bern, is the guest of Mrs. Will Trafton, on Fearing street. Miss Lane is one New Bern's most popular and charming young ladies, having many friends and admirers in this city.

A Company, composed of Portsmouth talent, advertised to play "A Scrap of Paper" at the Academy of Music on Thursday evening of last week, did not appear.

Misses Sadie Williams and Hicks, of Berkeley, Va., have been spending the past few days with Mrs. Overman, on Road street. The young ladies are among the most popular of Berkeley's daughters and have many friends in Elizabeth City.

Mrs. W. L. Parker, has received the insurance on the life of her husband, whose death was recorded in the TAR HEEL two weeks ago. Mr. Parker held a policy with the Virginia Insurance Company, and such prompt payment speaks volumes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burrows left Friday afternoon for New York. Mr. Burrows expects to spend a couple of weeks among New York markets, purchasing spring stock for "The Fair." They will also visit her home and friends at White Plains, N. Y.

Mr. Chas. Kitchelt, of Edenton, is in the city doing work in paper hanging in Elizabeth City's handsome residences. Mr. Kitchelt is an expert in his business, making a specialty of high class work. We would be glad to have him locate among us.

Mr. Herbert Willis is a new member of the Baptist choir whose deep, rich bass voice makes him a most valuable acquisition. Mr. Willis is from Newberne, and is one of the officers of the steamer Ocracoke. He is a young man of excellent repute whom we are glad to welcome to this city.

Mr. B. F. Salomonsky has issued invitations to his friends to a birthday supper on Friday evening, February fourteenth at Hill's cafe. Mr. Salomonsky is one of Elizabeth City's popular young men. He is an engraver on metal, which business he learned in the north and at present is with Louis Selig in this city.

Mrs. Selig Entertains. Mrs. Louis Selig gave a delightful literary party to her friends on Tuesday afternoon. After guessing the titles and authors of latest popular books the guests were served an elegant supper. Mrs. Dexter and Miss Pailing assisted in receiving.

Will Organize Ball Team. All members of the E. City base ball team, as well as all candidates for and friends of the team will meet at the office of H. T. Greenleaf, Jr., in the Flora building on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The team will organize for the coming season. Much interest is already displayed in the matter and this city should support a crack organization.

Horse Thief. A fellow who apparently needs a horse, stopped at Mr. Weatherley's stable on Thursday night, early in the evening and decided to remove a horse belonging to W. F. Twiddy. He found a bridle and was preparing to put it on the animal, when Mr. Weatherley's cook heard him and gave the alarm. The fellow bolted leaving the door open and the bridle lying on floor.

Abreast With Progress. The TAR HEEL reporter was invited yesterday to an inspection of the market of Mr. C. C. Pappendick, who conducts the first stall to the right in the city market. We are fully convinced that he is abreast with the progress of the city, and is conducting a business which would do credit to a city larger than this. He carries a large stock of everything usually seen in a market, and the artistic display of the meats make a most tempting appeal to the hungry one.

Croatan Citizens Meet. A meeting of the citizens of Croatan was held at the school house on Monday evening of last week. The meeting was called to order by Rev. Wm. Towe. On motion W. O. Barnett was made chairman and J. P. Midgett, secretary. The chairman then announced that the purpose of the meeting was to decide whether a steamboat line was wanted or not. After discussing the matter thoroughly a vote was taken, resulting unanimously in favor of the line. On motion a committee was appointed to confer with the Chamber of Commerce Committee on Harbors, Shipping and Commerce of this city, find out how much stock it would be advisable to take and on what terms. The committee was composed of the following: A. E. Mann, chairman; W. W. Midgett and S. L. Fuller.

Why it's the best in this section, so clear, soft and tasteless.

How About Drainage

Can't help from being well drained, go look and see for yourself. Don't buy until you learn of the improvements of

EUCLID HEIGHTS.

Pin Your Faith

to this shoe store—to the stock—to the prices; they're all right—goods, methods, prices.

The whole city knows of the great assortments obtainable here and of the lower prices we charge. No one store can ever do all the business in any line—but one store can do a business best. We are satisfied to be that singular store.

Lowest Prices

We want to emphasize that claim. It is as true as daylight. We should be doing less than our duty were it otherwise. The greatest shoe business in the city centers here. Its vastness helps to the utmost economy, helps to lower cost to us—and makes logical and possible the lowest prices to you.

Two Ways

of getting

Glasses.

ONE is to go to the nearest permanent located Optician and get what you need, and a guarantee that they will be satisfactory; if not, they will be exchanged free, or money back.

THE OTHER is to let some traveling peddler sell you a pair and run the risk of ruining your eyesight entirely, and when he has your money you never see him again.

MY CARE insures better use of the eyes you have. My properly fitted glasses will correct defects, strengthen the eyes, and in time, remove the defects. I'd like to fit your eyes.

I HAVE every late and scientific appliance for accurate eye-testing, and sell spectacles at all prices. Cash paid for old and broken spec. frames.
