University of North Carolina.

University of N. C., Feb. 19.—
Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.

Our debaters for the Georgia, Vanderbilt and Johns Hopkins Debates have been chosen. For the first named Messrs. C. S. Bynum of the Di. and R. W. Herring of the Rhi. have been selected; Messrs. C. H. Ross of the Di. and T. A. Adams of the Phi. will contend against Manderbilt; and Messrs. D. P. Stern of the Phi. and R. R. Williams of the Di. will meet the Johns Hopkins University debaters at Baltimore. The scrub debates held for the benefit of the gentlemen just mentioned are on, and much interest has been manifested. All these gentlemen are very good, some having had experience, and we feel sure that we shall be well represented in all forensic contests coming off this spring. Whether we lose or win, we shall feel assured that our boys have done their best.

Dr. C. L. Raper has been invited to deliver an address at the Commencement of Oak Ridge Institute next June. He has accepted.

Dr. E. B. Barringe, Chairman of the Faculty of the University of Virginia, and a noted physician, delivered an address in Chapel Hill evening on "some Pending Problems on Hygiene." His address was scholarly and much appreciated by his large audience.

COROLLA.

Corolla Feb. 20 1902.—
Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.

A blinding snow storm has been raging along our coast ever since Friday night and is but little better yet.

We regret to say that Mrs. Hayman and her little boy are very sick.

OLD TRAP.

Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.
Old Trap Feb. 20. 1902.—

Mr. J. G. Gray who received an injury sometime ago is improving slowly.

Mrs. R. T. Burgess is very sick.

Mrs. Pollie K. Burgess died at her home on 7inst. It was a very sudden death. Two days before her death she went to spend the day with Mr. R. T. Bugess, one of her sons and he carried her home in the evening very sick. She never went out any more until she was carried out a corpse. She was about 78 years old. Among the many who mourn her death, there are 70 children, grandchildren and great-grand-children. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. E. Hocutt.

Mr. Felix Jones, near Indian-town died this week. He had been unwell for some time.

Mr. J. D. Baker who has been teaching school at "Oak Ridge" was compelled to stop on the account of ill health.

Mr. J. S. Harrison is enjoying better health this winter than he has for near two years. He is 82 years old.

Walter Price the son of a widow lady was out the other day cutting wood and accidentally cut his foot. We are glad to hear he is improving. He will not be able to do any work for sometime.

Miss Mary E. Forbes who has been living in Currituck for some time is home on a visit to see her mother.

The weather has been so changeable that a great many people are suffering from severe colds.

ROSEDAE.

February 17 1902.

To THE EDITOR OF THE TAR HEEL.
Dear sir—I beg space in your valuable paper to make a correction of your Mumford correspondent's news in last week's issue.

I have not accepted, nor have I had an opportunity to accept, a position with the enterprising firm of A. F. Toxey & Co.

Very respectfully,
E. R. DAVIS.

Now is the Time to Move
If you are going to have a new suit or overcoat this season, come and pick out the goods while the line is unbroken.
We have the largest line of tailoring samples ever been our privilege to carry. Our prices this season are lower than ever.—Our work represents the best that can be done, and that means satisfaction for the careful man who wants his clothes right.
It is an erroneous idea that tailor-made clothes are more expensive than the ready-to-wear. To be sure the first cost is possibly a little more, but the care we take with your clothes will insure you having a perfect fit, and that means the clothes will wear longer and look better.

PAY LESS AND DRESS BETTER
