

TOL IN BRIEF.

Going and Coming of People You Know and of Some You Don't Know.

Mrs. L. Selig is visiting friends in Norfolk.

Dr. Geo. Ward spent yesterday in Norfolk.

Mr. P. H. Morgan of Shawboro was in the city yesterday.

Mr. M. Smith, a prominent citizen of Shawboro was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Lonford of Norfolk is the guest of her sister Mrs. Duke on Main street.

Mrs. Fleetwood Snowden of Snowden is visiting friends on Burgess street.

Messrs T. B. Boushell and T. S. Robertson of Belcross were in the city yesterday.

Capt. A. L. Cohoon is the proudest man in town. Its a little girl and weighs 10 lbs.

Mr. Krumpey of Baltimore is the guest of Mr. A. Huckabee in Ehringhouse street.

Miss Mary Grice after spending several days in Norfolk, returned home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Thomas Wilcox is very ill at her home on Shepherd street. We wish her speedy recovery.

Miss Georgie Pratt, who has been visiting friends in town this week, left for school in Norfolk today.

Mr. P. H. Morgan of Shawboro was in town interviewing Lieut. Crisp, concerning the life saving station.

Mrs. W. H. Sawyer of Camden Co., is in town visiting his sister Mrs. W. B. Gilbert on Parsonage street.

Mrs. Fowler of Philadelphia arrived on Wednesday to attend the funeral of her sister Mrs. Eva Kramer.

Mr. Charles Benbury, the popular salesman at M. Wood's has returned from a business trip to Edenton, N. C.

Mr. J. N. Burfoot of Norfolk returned to that city yesterday, after a visit to his brother Mr. N. Burfoot of this city.

Mr. T. C. Ferebee traveling representative of Terry & Co., was in town this evening and will visit the towns of this section.

Miss Olive Scarboro, who has been visiting her friend Miss Carrie Cherry, on Main street, has returned to her home in Berkeley, Va.

The East Coast Cedar Co., have constructed a large and substantial pier at their landing on Alligator River. Elisha Overton of this city was the contractor.

Mr. Anson E. Cohoon, of the Bureau of Forestry at Washington D. C., who has been visiting, his father, F. F. Cohoon at his home at the park, returned yesterday to resume his duties.

L. E. Skinner has added an elegant wagon and outfit for the collection and delivery of laundry. Mr. Skinner is doing an excellent quality of work and will now be able to serve his patrons better than ever.

Mr. B. Cartwright of Nixonton was a caller at the TAR HEEL office this week. Among other things, he said that the farmers in his section were most heartily in favor of any movement looking to a better condition of county roads.

Messrs C. W. Belnaga, J. A. Brooks and M. Wise, of Dismal Swamp, Va., were in the city yesterday. They are all in the lumber business at that point, and are on a few days leave because of repairs being made to the mill.

The TAR HEEL is lucky in securing the services of Messrs Walter Mobray and Sam Shepherd. Mr. Mobray is an experienced compositor from Maryland and has made many friends while in our city. Mr. Shepherd is one of Elizabeth City's journeyman printers having served his apprenticeship here.

Mr. Sam Barellitt's new store on Water street was opened on Wednesday with a beautiful stock of elegant goods. The store was crowded all day with prospective buyers and the day's sale amounted to more than the most sanguine expectations of the proprietor. The agreeable staff of clerks consists of Miss Carrie Mae Cherry, Mrs. Mae Guirkin, Miss Nellie Smith, Miss Ella Mae James and Miss Lummie Ballance. As a sample of the business doing we might say that the first day's sales of hamburgs amounted to over 3000 yards.

Suit Compromised.
The case for damage against the Norfolk & Southern R. R. Co., for injury to the Schooner Ida G. Farin of Baltimore by the draw of the Pasquotank River Bridge, has been settled by Atty. Edmund Alexander of this City and Messrs Pruden & Pruden of Edenton, who represented the parties interested. The boat was a two masted schooner, hailing from Baltimore.

Tacky Party Tonight.
There will be a "Tacky Party" this evening at the residence of Mrs. M. M. Snowden on Burgess street. The proceeds will go to defray the cost of building and furnishing the Baptist Chapel on Road street. An interesting programme has been arranged and those who desire to aid a worthy cause may assured of a pleasant evening.

Mr. Burgess Goes to Mexico.
Mr. Z. S. Burgess, who for some time has been in the drug business in Dallas Texas, has accepted a position in the same business in the city of Mexico. In writing home he says that the scenic beauty of the Mexican Capital is matchless. It well deserves the reputation which it has as the most beautiful city in the world.

MR. HATHWAY RETURNS.
Makes a Successful Trip in the Interest of the Broom Factory.
Mr. Andrew C. Hathway, sec. and Treas. of the Euclid Heights Broom Co., has returned from a trip of several days to Virginia cities, in the interest of his broom factory. The success of his trip is manifested by the large number of orders which he booked. The broom which this firm is putting on the market is equal to any and superior to many of the brooms being placed on the market by other factories. This is one of our local industries, the development of which the TAR HEEL chronicles with pride and we rejoice that our industries are successfully competing for trade.

SELECT YOUR LOT

EUCLID HEIGHTS.

Pin Your Faith
to this shoe store—to the stock—to the prices; they're all right—goods, methods, prices.
The whole city knows of the great assortments obtainable here and of the lower prices we charge. No one store can ever do all the business in any line—but one store can do a business best. We are satisfied to be that singular store.

Lowest Prices
We want to emphasize that claim. It is as true as daylight. We should be doing less than our duty were it otherwise. The greatest shoe business in the city centers here. Its vastness helps to the utmost economy, helps to lower cost to us—and makes logical and possible the lowest prices to you.
