

TOLD IN BRIEF.

A Parcel of Personal Points Pleasantly Paraphrased

Mrs. R. B. Flora of Shawboro spent Tuesday in town.

Mrs. H. M. Ballance is visiting friends in Norfolk this week.

Miss Margaret Hollowell spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Norfolk.

Miss Bessie Askew is visiting Miss Mary Culpepper on Ehringhaus street.

Mrs. M. M. Sawyer has returned from a visit to her mother at Portsmouth.

Mrs. John Kramer is visiting her friend Mrs. E. F. Sawyer in Camden County.

Miss Maggie Mercer left Wednesday to visit friends and relatives in Berkley Va.

Mr. M. B. Forbes, a prominent citizen of Shawboro, was in the city this week.

Mr. W. R. Gilbert is spending the week in Camden, with his brother Mr. B. F. Gilbert.

Don't forget the Old Maid's Convention Tuesday night April 1st, at the Academy of Music.

The new home of Mr. Mary L. Jackson, on north Road street is about completed, and is an attractive one.

The best local talent and elocutionary talent of this city will be in the Old Maid's Convention Tuesday night.

Seats on sale at Selig's Saturday morning for the Old Maid's Convention. It is for a good cause be sure to go.

Mrs. James J. Harris of Norfolk spent Tuesday with her mother and father Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Spence on Road street.

Mr. M. L. Sanderlin returned yesterday from Norfolk where he went on business for his insurance company.

The morning services at the Methodist and Episcopal churches have been well attended throughout this week.

Mrs. Emma Lougan, after a visit of several weeks to her sister Mrs. J. D. Fulmer, has returned to her home in Williamsport, Pa.

Monroe Mullen a dusky ex-convict of this city was given two years in the penitentiary at the Superior Court in Hertford this week.

The rebuilding at South Mills, as a result of the recent fire, is making a demand on our local carpenters, and we understand more are wanted.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weir who have been visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Bell, on Cypress street returned Tuesday to their home in Wilmington, Del.

Miss Eva Pailin left Wednesday for Hertford to act as bridesmaid at the marriage of Miss Fannie Skinner, which takes place Thursday April the third.

Miss Dollie Freeman, a charming young lady of Moyock, but formerly of this city where she has many friends has returned home after a visit to Miss Addie Sivills.

Mr. Lemmy, a native of Sweden who has been in our midst some time, has purchased lands near town and will engage in the trucking business. He is a good citizen.

Miss Hettie Sawyer has accepted a position as saleslady with Mr. Moses Weisel. She is a very popular young lady and will prove a valuable addition to this progressive store.

The store windows are all wearing a pretty Easter dress, especially notable is that Fulmer and Whitehurst. The display of candies and fancy groceries is very attractive.

The Easter decorations in the churches promises to be very attractive. Extensive preparations are being made at the Methodist church and excellent music will be furnished.

Mr. G. V. Cohoon, of Columbia, N. C., has accepted a position in the office of the Norfolk and Southern railroad. Mr. Cohoon is an enterprising young man to whom we extend a hearty welcome.

Mr. L. H. Gray of Avon was in the city this week. He said that the people of Dare were suffering from incompetent mail service, and that matters had reached a condition to be intolerable.

A. L. Hawkins has gone to Enfield, N. C., where he is the master mason in the construct of a large negro college. He is one of our most prominent and worthy colored citizens, and a competent artisan.

Mrs. M. S. Midgett, of Rodantha Dare county, was a visitor to the city this week and was a caller to the Tar Heel office. She is an intelligent lady and speaks entertainingly of the Banks country.

Mr. T. C. Jones, of the enterprising firm of Jones Raper & Co. has returned from the Northern markets where he purchased what is perhaps the finest line of gent's furnishings ever brought to this City.

Mr. Jno. Foster of South Mills, was a caller at the Tar Heel office this week. He says that the recently fire-swept village is assuming new life, and that upon the ashes of the old, is springing a town with new life.

Mrs. Malissa Spencer of High Point is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Aydlett on Main street. She had not visited here within eighteen years, and expresses pleasant surprise at the wonderful development of the little town in which her girlhood days were spent.

Mr. D. R. Munden has returned from several points in central Carolina where he obtained a large list of orders for awnings. Mr. Munden, who is a competent workman, is doing a large awning and sail making business and we note with pleasure the expansion of his business.

On Thursday April 5 1902 Mr. Charles Hodgson Turner of New York and Miss Fannie Skinner of Hertford will be married at the church of the Holy Trinity in the latter city. Miss Skinner is the accomplished daughter of Hon. T. G. Skinner and has many friends in this city.

There is a movement on foot among the members of The Albemarle Fire Co., to have the name of James Wilcox taken from their roll, which is the outcome of his recent conviction. In justice to him it may be said that he was a good member, and a true fire-fighter.

Knowing that there would be a demand for a story, in book form, of the Cropsey mystery and Wilcox murder trial, W. O. Saunders made a close study of the case and has published the complete story, which will be sold at a popular price. A commendable feature is the quality of paper and type used. See his ad in another column.

Messrs. Otis Bramble, Ed. Chilcutt and W. D. Shephard left Monday for Plymouth, N. C., where they are building the large public school building which was recently donated to this town by a wealthy northern man who is a native of Plymouth. They say that the building will be a handsome and imposing one, and highly creditable to the town.

Sheriff Etheridge of Dare County was in the city yesterday and to a Tar Heel reporter said: "Our fishermen are discouraged it is true, but I am of the opinion that with continued good prices we will come out with a good average. Fishing has improved very much within the past few days, and a few more days such as the last week and our people will cheer up."

We note with pleasure the success with which Mr. C. W. Collings is meet in the watch making and repairing business on Main street next door to A. B. Seeley & Son. He is a new comer, an expert workman, and a high toned gentleman. His success demonstrates the open-armed welcome which is always accorded, to the worthy, by Elizabeth City.

New Fire Engine.

Mayor Wilson has received, from the American Fire Engine Co., notice of the shipment of a relief engine to be substituted for our old one which will be sent to the factory for repairs. When the old one returns, it will be equipped with a Fox patent tubular boiler which, with the new second size pump now on it, will make it an engine of second class and guaranteed to be as good as new. This will not give the city sufficient engine service however. We need two engines.

Honor Roll.

The following is a list of the pupils of the Eliz. City public school whose scholarship and attendance entitles them to a position on the honor roll for the month ending March 7th.

Bertha Chappel, Lillian Swain, Walter Benbury, Mary Wynn, Lizzie Weeks, Essie Morse.

The Cropsey Mystery.

A story of the affair that has excited more interest throughout the Old North State than all presidential elections combined. Complete in book form. Good paper, colored covers, and at popular prices—10c per copy, 2c extra by mail. On sale by agencies or at this office.

New Stations at Ocracoke.

The following bill has been introduced by Congressman Small and favorably reported by the committee. A private letter from Mr. Small says that the bill will probably pass sometime during the present session. The bill reads:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby authorized to establish a life-saving station on Ocracoke Island near Ocracoke Inlet, on the coast of North Carolina, as such point as the General Superintendent of the Life-Saving Service may recommend.

Sec. 2. That the charter of the equipments and appliances of the station building shall be determined by the General Superintendent of the Life-Saving Service."

In Memoriam.

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Spirit to remove from our midst our late brother, John Thornton; and,

Whereas, the intimate relations held by our deceased brother with the members of this tribe, render it proper that we should place on record our appreciation of his service as a Red Man, and his merits as a man: therefore be it Resolved, by Pasquotank Tribe, No. 8 Improved Order of Red Men, that, while we bow with humble submission to the Great Spirit, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been called from his labor to rest.

Resolved, that this tribe tenders its heartfelt sympathy to the family and relatives of our deceased brother in their sad affliction.

Resolved, that these resolutions be entered upon the Records of this tribe, and that a copy of them be sent to the family of our deceased brother.

Fishermen not Discouraged.

Capt. G. K. Rollinson, of Salvo, and Master of the schooner Maggie E. Davis, was in the city this week. His boat was loaded with ice, fish boxes, and provisions for the large fishery of Dr. J. J. Davis at Buxton. Capt. Rollinson says that though the fishing season has been retarded, by unfavorable weather he expects a good season now that good weather promises to continue. The fishermen are not so much discouraged as one would suppose.

25c. Package Sale.

In order to increase the interest in my business, I have decided to introduce what I term a 25c package sale. I do it this way, 500 articles ranging in prices from 25c to $5.00 are selected from my stock and carefully wrapped in boxes of different sizes so their contents will not be known or surmised. This is an excellent opportunity for thrifty shoppers to secure first-class articles at much less than the ordinary cost of inferior ones. The quality of our goods and the reliability of our reputation are too well known to require any comment. Everything guaranteed to be exactly as represented. Will give date of sale later.
