noon found the body of his wife James Wilcox the Alleged Assassin of Ella Maude Cropsey was Sentenced to Hang Today. The Supreme Court Granted an Appeal and the Execution is Stayed.

> On the night of November 20, 1901, Ella Maud Cropsey of this city dissapeared from her home. Thirty seven days later her body was found floating in the water of the Pasquotank. James E. Wilcox was the man upon whom suspicion rested. He was indicted for the crime, tried and convicted.

The death sentence was passed upon him by Judge Geo. A. Jones at 10 o'clock, Saturday night, March 21 1902. The sentence was that he should hang Friday April 25, 1902.

Wilcox through his attorneys secured an appeal to the Supreme Court of North Carolina as the Supreme Court does not meet until August the execution is stayed. James E. Wilcox does not hang today.

The building used has been increased from one to two stories and now contains 9 rooms, seven being in use and two unfurnished. Hang To-Day. During the session quite a number have been turned off for lack of room. There is no telling the good this institution is doing the community. We cannot begin to realize what could be done was it not fettered by lack of financial aid.

We intend to give our readers a few interesting facts, concerning the above school, in a very near issue.

MILLIONAIRE VISITS THE CITY.
