Seventy-five dollars will be paid to any one who will capture Garland Spence, a negro and deliver him to the Sheriff of Hyde county, or to the jailer.

Garland Spence, with two other negroes killed a white man, Henry Williams at Swan quarter, N. C. on Sunday, March 2nd, 1902. His weight is about 150 pounds, close built, with a very full face, (I think closely shaven), 21 or 22 years old and of a dark ginger color, about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, his voice is not very clear.

RODANTHE.

Rodanthe, N. C., April 30.—

Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.

DEAR SIR:—I am well pleased with your paper and am glad to get every issue for it gives all the home news. If you have never visited Rodanthe I will try to give you some information of it. It is a narrow neck of land half mile wide, bound on the east by the Atlantic ocean, on the west by Pamlico sound. The length from New Inlet to Hatteras is forty miles so you see that we are shut out from the outside world only by water and there is little transportation, only sail boats. The people here are mostly fishermen and they often charter sail boats from $3 to $5 per day or sell their fish, oyster and clams at very low prices, so you see that we need a steam boat line to run along these banks from Rodanthe to Hatteras so that the fishermen could ship their own fish, oysters, clams, fowls and produce. We should have at least three mails a week but we think that we are doing well to get two. We should have daily mails. There are 8 Life Saving Stations and 6 post offices, so you see that there is lots of official mail.

The need for better mails improved transportation facilities is apparent. We long for the acquisition of both.

TO THE PEOPLE OF GATES COUNTY.—

It is well known that I have frequently stated during the past six months, that I would not be a candidate this year for re-election to the office I am now holding, if my candidacy would come in the way of any one else who might be the choice of the people, or would in anywise be inconsistent with party harmony. My object has been, and is now, to ask in a manner that will promote the interest and welfare of the Democratic party. It appears to me that the approaching campaign will be one, in which individual desire should be sacrificed for party success. There has never been a time when Democratic unity was more essential. Let every man subordinate his desires and ambition to party fealty and success awaits us.

At the solicitation of my many friends, and yielding to what seems to be a popular demand, I now declare myself a candidate before the Democratic convention of Gates county for the office of Register of Deeds. My record as a public official in Gates county is well known, and should the duties of the office again devolve upon me, it will be my earnest endeavor to render such service as will be acceptable to my people.

Respectfully,
LYCURGUS HOFER.

Departure of Mr. T. J. Poyner.

Poyners Hill, N. C., April 29.—

With deep regret we announce the sad departure of our esteemed friends, those many of us have known since our earliest childhood, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Poyner and their sister Miss Mary Frances Poyner, managers of the Currituck Shooting Club house. Mr. Poyner and his two sisters, Frances and Elizabeth, took charge of what is now known as the "old club-house" February 1, 1873, Elizabeth remained their until her death, November 9, 1875. During the year of 1877 occurred the wreck of the passenger boat Huron, Mr. Poyner worked very faithfully removing the bodies of the drowned and he provided a home for several of the officers. For these acts of kindness the government awarded him a very handsome gun, worth a hundred dollars. It is still in his possession and is kept as a sacred relic. It will, no doubt, be handed down from generation to generation.

On January 31, 1878 the Metropolis was stranded near here. Several of the passengers were entertained at the club-house by Mr. Poyner.

The club built a new and a great deal larger house during the year 1879 and they moved in November 1879.

September 17, 1885 Mr. Poyner married Miss Mary Yeula Woodhouse, daughter of Col. James Woodhouse, who for many years was Representative of Currituck county and was a highly respected citizen until his death.

January 6, 1890, the death angels entered their home and took from them their little son Clinton nearly five years old. They have remaining two sons, Thomas Milton a youth of sixteen and Lancelot a lad of thirteen.

Mr. Poyner has been Supt. of this club for twenty-nine years and was Supt. of this District No. 7. (then No. 6.) for five years.

They have been faithful at their post of duty and their departure is sorely regretted by their many friends. They have been with us in our afflictions; they stood by our death beds, sharing our troubles as only true friends can.

We, with heavy hearts assembled on the wharf on the afternoon of Tuesday, April 22, to bid them adieu as they sailed for the home of Mrs. Poyner's childhood where they will spend a short time, then they will remove to their handsome residence they have recently purchased on York street, Norfolk, Va., where they expect to engage in keeping a first class boarding house. We wish them all success possible and they have our sincere wishes for a long and prosperous future. They will always find a welcome in our home by the grand old ocean we all have learned to love so well.

We hope we will find in their successors the true and noble friends we have lost.

MISS LAURA C. WESCOTT.
