

ANOTHER MILLIONAIRE.

Henry Tinker Wash Hire on His Private Yacht.

The Ltacehuatl the private yacht of Henry C. Tinker, President of The Liberty Bank of New York, was in the harbor last week with its distinguished owner on board. The Ltacehuatl arrived here last Friday morning. Henry C. Tinker is a multi-millionaire and well known in financial circles. He has been spending some weeks in the West Indies and is returning home. When asked why he stopped over in Elizabeth City Mr. Tinker replied that he had heard much of Elizabeth City and the trip through the Dismal Swamp Canal and simply stopped over to get a glimpse of the little Pasquotank City. He expressed himself as well pleased with our city and remarked that this was destined to be the Metropolis of North Carolina.

It was no easy matter for us to pronounce the name of his trim little yacht and after repeated failures Capt. Relyea came to the rescue. The nearest we can get the correct pronunciation is; Esque-seawall. The name is Mexican and means white lady.

The recent Cropsey mystery and Wilcox murder trial brought the attention of the outside world to center upon our little town. Many prominent men became interested in newspaper accounts of the beautiful scenery hereabouts and we expect men more distinguished victors during the summer.

AMUSEMENTS.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West—Fanchon the Cricket—A Mid Summer Nights Dream.

Pawnee Bill's great aggregation of wild and woolly, western, characters will appear here Monday, May 12th., at 10 a. m. The residents of this city will be treated to a grand and gorgeous street parade that rivals even that of the famous Buffalo Bill. The procession will be one long stream of dazzling splendor tunning with historic and spectacular scenes. Three brass bands will accompany the cavalcade of dashing warriors gathered from every clime. The red man in all the glory of war paint and feathers will ride abreast with the daring, buckskin clad, cowboy of the plains. Our own boys in blue will take the lead, followed by Russian Cossacks, and dusky boomerang throwers of Australia. Fair Japan and other strange and foreign countries will be represented in this great, grand and gorgeous pageant. The treat of a life time awaits those who attend the performance at the show grounds. In a great inclosure of many acres will be presented, in a thrilling and sensational manner, the historic battle of wounded Kun, the charge upon San Juan Hill and the charge upon the walls of Piking. It would take columns of space to give even a summary of the programme. There will be hundreds of visitors in our city Monday and we want to give them a royal welcome.

Fanchon the Cricket will be presented at the Academy of Music on or about the 23rd inst. The cast is composed entirely of local talent and promises to be something swell. Among the cast will be Wm. E. Wood and the famous "Bill" C. Sawyer. The sale of seats will be duly announced. Popular prices will prevail. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Episcopal church and E. City Fire Co.

It is generally understood that the Shakesperian Comedy, A Mid Summer Nights Dream will be played here soon for the benefit of the fire laddies.

Created Sensation.

The Norfolk Landmark of May 6 1902, contained the following item in its Elizabeth City News; Rev. D. H. Tuttle of this city created something of a sensation, Sunday night, where in making his announcements he stated that at the request of a certain young lady he wished to state that she had recently graduated in Short-hand and typewriting and those of his congregation wishing her services could obtain same by applying to him in person. We are anxious to know if the want column is to be supplanted by the pulpit, as an advertising medium?

A White Dog Feast Suppressed With Pawnee Bill's Wild West.

It is no easy matter control seventy to a hundred Indians specialty when they belong to four or five different tribes. Each tribe has its dances and feasts, the best known being the War Dance, the Sun, the Snake, the Corn and the dance that invariably takes place just before the hunt begins. The most gruesome of all these, however, is the White Dog Feast or Dance. The government has suppressed all of the most vicious of these customs, but that does not prevent the Indians from trying to celebrate whenever they can. It seems just before the Pawnee Bill Wild West left winter quarters to go on the road, a contingent of Indians with the Wild West decided to celebrate the White Dog Feast. The red men were in a large building by themselves when they got the feast move on. According to the rites of the dance, a white dog is suspended above them, around which they dance in their peculiar way, each endeavoring to grasp the liver of the animal with his teeth while it is still alive and embowled. The custom is one of the most hideous and barbarous of all and Pawnee Bill checked it just in time to save the poor canine's life. As it was, it took the chief of police and a squad of his men to convince the red men that white-dog feasts do not go in Pennsylvania.

A Delightful Ball.

The grand ball given, by the local Symphonic Orchestra, at the Academy of Music last week was the most brilliant social event of the season. There were sixteen couples in attendance and led by Mr. Wm. Wood they danced the hours of night away. Wee sma' hours of morning saw the tired revellers preparing to leave the waxen floors. A number of out of town couples were present and altogether it was most enjoyable event.

A Jolly Party.

It was a jolly crowd which Capt. Cohoon carried over to Tyrell court last week. Among the number were J. B. Leigh, G. W. Ward, Warren Brickhouse, D. O. Newberry, I. M. Meekins, W. L. Smith, J. A. Litchfield, E. Alexander, and W. L. Cohoon, and W. M. Bond of Edenton and Chas. Whedbee of Hertford.

The trip to Columbia, via the Steamer Pettitt, is a pleasant one by reason of the accomodating and courtly crew, all of whom spare no means to make the trip enjoyable. The meals which purser Ferguson serves will vie with the Monticello in variety and quality and the Arlington in price.

MARRY AT OLD AGE.

A Number of Licenses Issued to Pasquotank Othello's.

A glimpse at the marriage register in the office of the Supreme Court Clerk acquaints us with the fact that it is not always the young whose lives are entered by romance. There are the names of dozens of Othello's and Desdemona's inscribed on the same pages with the Romeo's and Juliet's. It is the old men and not old women that we find. Whether it is true that woman never gives her real age or that the sterner six always prefer the tender in years is a question we leave others to decide. At any rate we find no aged ladies on the marriage register. On the other hand we find men far advanced in years who have linked their lives with "better halves" of immature ages.

In one case we find a Pasquotank resident of 74 years granted licenses to wed a woman whose age is but 35 years. There are dozens of other males of from 50 to 74 winters. 'Tis never too late for cupids dart.
