AROUND THE SOUND.
Happennigs in the Countis of the Albemarle Section.

MUMFORD.

Mumford, N. C., June 1.—
Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.

The Chowan association held its annual meeting at Ramoth Gilead church, Pasquotank county, be-crowds.

A balloon ascension at night is contemplated. The balloon will be a tremendous affair made of hundreds of yards of colored paper. It is really much prettier than a canvas affair and then if it should never come back—who cares.

Prof. Sheep of the Atlantic Collegiate institute has arranged to present the "Deestrick Skule," at the Academy of music Tuesday night, especially for the benefit of the Surfmen.

Then we understand that numerous midway attractions will be here. Lewis Lewark, the curri-tuck giant will be here, and then there are some other features we could mention. Peanuts and red lemonade? Why yes.

OLD TRAP.

Old Trap, N. C., June 2.—
Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.

We are having extremely dry weather around Old Trap. The Irish Potato crop no doubt is injured by it.

Mr. B. F. Mercer still remains very feeble but we are pleased to hear he is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Mary Cox a very aged lady who has been ill for some time is improving.

The second quarterly meeting for Camden Circuit convened at Wesley's Chapel church. It was conducted by the pastor who upon each day preached a very able sermon. The business of the church was attended to. Each church on the charge was represented by its supt. and stewards among whom were Mr. G. H. Riggs, Dr. Lister Rev. Mr. Branley and many others were present.

HARBINGER.

Harbinger, N. C., June 2.—
Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cunyan Owens have returned from a short trip to Elizabeth City where they have been visiting the parents of Mr. Owens.

Miss Ola Belanga and Mr. Columbus Doxey were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Sunday P. M., at the home of the bride. Rev. J. S. Henderson officiating.

Eld. A. J. Austin delivered a very good sermon last Sunday at the Elim Primitive Baptist church to a very appreciative audience.

Irish potatoes are being shipped rapidly. The first shipped were raised by Mr. John Combs and were shipped on the 18, of May.

Messrs Thos. Litchfield and Milton Overton of Poplar Branch, N. C., were in our midst Friday they report good crops in their section.

BELVIDERE.

Belvidere, N. C., June 3.—
Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.

Mr. Robt. Darden is out again after quite an attack of bronchitis.

Miss Kittie Snipes, of North Hampton county, is the guest of Mrs. N. H. Lamb.

Miss Laura Hurdle, who has been teaching a seven month school in Pasquotank, is home again.

Messrs. C. N. Griffin and Charlie Johnson, of Edenton, recently spent a few days with friends in Belvidere and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Bragg Perry, Miss Ira Perry and Mr. J. Q. Hurdle and several others in this community, attended the Association at Reymoth Gilead church last week. They were highly pleased with the people of upper Pasquotank.

Miss Annie Evans, of London, England, who has long been a Missionary in India, is expected to attend the approaching Quarterly meeting of friends.

Miss Emma L. White, left yesterday for Guilford College, to attend the commencement, and will make an extended visit with friends and relatives in Greensboro and High Point.

The commencement of the Belvidere Academy on Friday, the 23rd was largely attended. After the exercises in the afternoon, the ladies gave a lawn party on the Academy grounds, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. A gratifying sum of moley was realized from the refreshments that were sold and will be appropriated to the erection of a new Academy building.

MANTEO.

Manteo, N. C., June 2.—
Correspondence of the TAR HEEL.

If building houses is indicative of a town's growth, Manteo is growing fast. There are three new buildings going up, and additions being made to seven more. Send the carpenters here if they want work.

Mr. W. S. McGinnis, Asst. Supt. Railway mail Service, of Washington D. C., was here a few days ago. He inspected the postoffice at this place and of course found everything all right. He has gone down the sound to see what changes he can make for the improvement of the mail service between Skyeo and Hatteras.

The entertainment at Manteo Academy on May 22, 23, and the one at Wanchese academy on May 29, 30, marks the close of the school year on Roanoke Island, both were good and the principals deserve a great deal of credit for the advance the pupils at both places have made. It is quite evident that we shall not have many voters shut off on Roanoke Island after 1908 on account of education, even if we have woman suffrage then.

The life saving men are out for the summer and Manteo is full of them. Capt. M. W. Etheridge keeper of Oregon Inlet station was talking to your correspondent today, about the coming Surfmen's Association meeting at E. City. He says there will be a drill to show the people how they bring men ashore in the breeches buoy etc. It will not be competitive as we had been led to believe. He says "let's have the next meeting at Manteo." So say all of us. People of Manteo, let's get to work and bring it here. We are able to take care of them and why not do it.

The following deeds of conveyance were made in Dare county during the week ending May 30:

Pharaoh Scarborough to M. C. Williams, lot on Hatteras, $10.00.

Moses D. and Sarah A. Lane to Jno. A. Midgett, Jr., 1 1/2 acres on Roanoke Island $187.50.

L. J. and Elnora F. Pugli, to C. R. Taylor 3/4 acre on Roanoke Island, $10.00.

A Card.

I wish to thus express my thanks and appreciation for the honor the E. City Fire Co., No. 1, has done me in the past as well as present, and to express to both the company and citizens in general my gratitude for their kind help in making my leadership of this company a financial as well as physical success.

Very truly,
A. C. STOKES,
Foreman.

In Memory.

On the evening of May 27th, 1902, a messenger from the realms of everlasting light silently entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sutton, of Bethel, N. C., and gently took to his bosom their little daughter Lena O. Nella, age thirteen months, and upon pinions that never tire carried her up to that ever shining land and placed her in the arms of him who doeth all things well. Weep not parents she was too pure and sweet to dwell here, just a bud sent here for a short while, to open in Heaven. Our loss is her gain; God alone can comfort the broken hearts.

Sleep on O. Nella and take thy rest
Tis hard to give the up but God knows best
And we here whom you are leaving
Can only hope to meet you in Heaven.
AUNTIE.

Communication.

EDITOR TAR HEEL.—I desire to announce, through the columns of your paper, my candidacy for the office of Register of Deeds in the county of Camden. It is not necessary to enlarge on this announcement further than to say that my political issue stands for itself. I have always voted the Democratic ticket "without shadow of turning," and believe in its eternal principles. I respectfully solicit the support of the voters in the approaching primary election to be held in said county, on the last Saturday in August, next; and if nominated will use my best endeavors to secure the election of the entire Democratic ticket.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH A. SPENCER, JR.

In Memorium.

Millard Garfield, eldest son of Millard Fillmore and Mary E. Balance of Hatteras, N. C., was born March 18, 1881 and died Feb 28, 1902.

In his infancy Millard was baptised by Rev. E. D. Hooper being one of the 392 infants baptised by "Uncle Hooper" during his four years ministry on the "Banks".

Owing to the absence of the pastor Rev. L. B. Jones the beautiful burial service of the Methodist church were conducted by the writer. Millard was an exceptionally bright young man and was anxious to make his career in life both useful and important.

In his early "teens" he took up the study of telegraphy in the weather bureau of this place and was preparing himself for the civil service.

He was thus looking forward with bright hopes to a happy and useful life, but soon he became a victim of that most dreadful disease, consumption from which he never recovered.

The blighting of his bright hopes the sudden fading and falling of his youthful ambition the early changing and closing of his earthly career found him at last as might have been expected, peaceful, quiet submissive and meek. To him it was as a beautiful sunset on a summer's day.

To know Millard was but to love him his humble daily walk his manly conversation, his sweet and gentle disposition, his noble character all of these were the sterling qualities which won for him many friends upon the tablets of whose memories his name will long be cherished.

Besides a fond father and mother, he leaves a younger brother, whom he dearly loved, and a host of relatives and friends, a large number of whom followed his body on the evening of March 1st, to its last resting place in the family grave yard, where his ashes peacefully sleep, awaiting the coming of the Lord in his beauty.

His work is done, his career is closed, but he still lives, and his comrades would do well to emulate his character and follow in his foot prints.

L. E. SAWYER.

No More Smallpox.

A special to the TAR HEEL from South Mills, Camden County, says that the small pox scare has abated. No more cases have been reported since the death of the one negro.
