EDITORIAL COMMENT

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1902.

The latest brand of democrats is the "Hill Democrats." This is a mixture recently turned out from a meeting held in Greensboro of reps, pops, mugwumps and disgruntles.

The democratic party of Colorado in spite of all that Senators Teller and Patterson could do, refused to fuse with the populist party and resolved to take to the middle of the road.

For the first time in forty years the republicans failed to get a majority in Vermont, and in Maine the democrats increased their representation in the legislature by more than a dozen and elected sheriffs and other officers in localities where they never did before. The president was right in ordering his cabinet to stomp the New England states for there was danger there.

Sooner or later our friends will learn that anonymous communication have no consideration at our hands. The waste basket is where they deserve to go and this is where we put them. If you wish your letter published sign your name. We do not publish the name, but must have it for our own protection. If you have sent us communications which were not published two to one this was the reason.

RING RULE CANNOT PREVAIL.

For years the white citizens of North Carolina have courageously and consistently fought for white rule and decent government against ignorant and irresponsible negroes shepherded by the gang of unscrupulous Fusion politicians. It has been an uphill fight, often a discouraging fight, but withal much has gained and the Fusion plunderers forced to retreat.

Finally, in the fullness of time the constitutional amendment came to the rescue and through the disfranchisement of the horde of ignorant negroes who had submerged the Eastern counties in a black welter of vice and corruption made it possible for the people to come into their own.

It now rests with the people to say whether they will hold their own or turn the public affairs over to an unscrupulous gang whose polluting touch is more to be dreaded than negro domination.

We refer of course to ringrule. There are attempts to force ringrule on the people of this county as was evidenced by the roughshod manner in which the people's rights were trampled upon in the last democratic convention. Their gag rule prevailed; but it cannot long. The people have rights which must be respected. Ringrule cannot stifle the sentiment of an honest citizenship—so long as men have opinions they will exercise those opinions. The crystalized sentiment of an honest yeomenry is not less resistable than the torrents of niagara. Sooner or later it will conquer.

Ringrule forced the formation of the populist party in 1892 when thousands of honest farmers in North Carolina left the party of their fathers, and they did not return to that party 'til their state was threatened with the supremacy of an inferior race. They will leave it again for the same reason unless you hear their demands.

The Tar Heel waves the red flag of danger before any effort to enforce ring rule or thwart the will of the people.

To the people the Tar Heel wishes to say; attend the primaries which meet next Monday at 2 o'clock. Let no pressure of private business deter you. Vote in the primary. This is the paramount duty of every democrat.

MR. REID REPLIES.

He Submitted Affidavits From Disinterested Parties.

Replying to Mr. N. G. Grandy's card of last I would say that I never personally, or through any one else, applied to Mr. Grandy for the position of deputy Sheriff. Mr. Grandy came to me and offered me the position of deputy Sheriff and I accepted same.

Mr. Grandy's recollection of certain promises which he made to me in 1900, is entirely at variance with mine. As an evidence that my recollection is corrected and that Mr. Grandy is entirely in error in his denial of having made said promises, I submit the affidavits of the disinterested parties.

CHARLES REID.

James M. Jennings, being sworn, says:—

That he and Mr. Reid were in Mr. N. G. Grandy's office at the Court House before the last election. During the time they were there Mr. Grandy said to Mr. Reid:—"Charles, if you won't run for the nomination of Register of Deeds and will help me in the campaign and I get my office, after two years I will get out of the way and give you the chance to run for sheriff. I am getting old and after two years will not want the place as I will not be able to attend to it."

J. N. JENNINGS.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 20th day of September, 1902.

C. E. THOMPSON, Notary Public

Frank Weeks being duly sworn, says:—

That conversation between himself and N. G. Grandy, had just before the nomination of the county officers in 1900, Mr. Grandy told him that he (Grandy) had told Mr. Reid that if he (Reid) would not be a candidate for Register of Deeds at that election but would come in his office and help him as his deputy, that after this term of two years were out, he (Grandy) would get out of Mr. Reid's way as he (Grandy) was getting old and would not want the office of sheriff any longer.

J. F. WEEKS.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 13th day of September, 1902.

C. E. THOMPSON, Notary Public.

H. C. White being duly sworn, says:—

That he met Sheriff Grandy on Poindexter street, between the store of R. J. Mitchell and that of H. T. Aydtlett, in Elizabeth City, N. C., a little before the Democratic Convention of 1900, and he (White) asked Sheriff Grandy if Mr. Reid was not going to run for register of deeds at that election. Mr. Grandy replied: "I told Mr. Reid if he would get out of my way this time, then I would get out of his way the next time, as I was getting old."

H. C. WHITE.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 30th day of August, 1902.

C. E. THOMPSON, Notary Public.
