

SALVO.

Correspondence of the Tar Heel Salvo, N. C. Nov. 18—
Mr. W. G. Midgett attended Manteo court last week.
Mr. J. G. Crisp has returned from a visit to his son at Manteo.
Mrs. D. M. Pugh has returned from a visit to her many Elizabeth City friends.
Wild ducks have made their appearance and preparations are being made by local sportsmen to give them a warm reception.
Weighing twenty pounds and measuring eighty five inches from tip to tip was an eagle killed last week by Capt. D. M. Pugh. The bird was a magnificent specimen.

WINFALL.

Correspondence of the Tar Heel Winfall, N. C., Nov. 17.—
Mr. R. B. Davidson, formerly of this place, but now of Norfolk Co. Va., is spending a few days here with his parents.
Dr. T. J. Hoskins, wife and children of Edenton N. C., spent Sunday visiting the family of Mr. E. A. Leigh, near here.
Rev. H. M. Jackson returned home Saturday after a most delightful trip to Manteo N. C.
Mr. Jim Hamphlett, formerly of this place but now of Elizabeth City N. C., is visiting his parents here.
The N. & S. carpenters gang is here for the purpose of fixing the bridge at the tank.
Rev. N. P. Stallings left last week for Raleigh and Durham where he will remain a few days on business.
Among the business men that visited our town last week were Mr. J. E. Parker of Gatesville N. C., and Mr. W. H. Harrell of Norfolk Va. Our little town was almost run over with drummers last week.
Rev. B. S. Lassiter, of Hertford N. C., filled his regular appointment at the chapel of the Good Shepard Sunday.
The farmers seem to be busy selling peanuts now. There seems to be a very abundant crop of them in this section and they are bringing a nice price also.
Miss Alice Delaney died Thursday evening at her home near here. She had suffered for a long time from the dreadful disease consumption.
Mrs. Sallie Winslow returned home Thursday after a very pleasant visit to her son Mr. Hugh Winslow of Gatesville N. C.
Mrs. J. W. Jackson and children are visiting friends and relatives at Elizabeth City this week.
Mr. John Dobson arrived here Tuesday where he will spend a few days visiting his wife.
Mr. W. H. Cannon, a traveling salesman of Hertford, was in our town on business Monday.

A TIME TO BE REMEMBERED.
BY MRS. H. W. FELTON.

'Twas a wondrous Sunday morning,
In the golden long ago,
In his little manhood's dawning,
In the happy Easter glow.
'Twas a time for song and story;
'Twas a day of pride and glory.
'Twas a time to be remembered,
When my brother put on pants.

A glow with joy and laughter,
He went running down the beach,
Gave his dresses to his sister,
In a winsome, merry speech.
O that time of fairest flowers,
And that day of sunniest hours!
'Twas a time to be remembered,
When my brother put on pants.

Now, through the lawn a stream-
let ran,
To cross it was his pride.
But, in vain for our little man,
To stem its current wide.
So he tumbled in—O sorrow!
And his sister's dress must borrow,
And he must wait until the morrow,
For another pair of pants!

A tribute to brothers, let they three score or ten.

South Mills.

Correspondence of the Tar Heel South Mills, N. C. Nov., 17.—
Mrs. Carl Jacobs departed this life Saturday morning the 15th inst. Just as the great orb of day, began throwing her golden rays Heavenward her spirit wended away to Him who gave it. Her loved ones and friends had watched tenderly by her couch for many weary days, and when a ray of hope had brightened their hearts, her disease changed and the end came peacefully on the above date. She leaves a husband and two small children, who never realized the loss of their mother.
Dr. and Mrs. Lister, are spending a few days with his parents, at Elisha, N. C., the Dr. reports the health of his territory very good.
Mr. L. A. Perry is building, on the lot he recently purchased of Mr. R. O. Bagley, a large warehouse for handling grain, hay, guano and etc. He did a very extensive business in this line last season.
Miss Lizzie Roby, and her granddaughter, Miss Bertie Sawyer of Hickory Va., are visiting Miss Henrietta Jacobs.

Coinjock.

Correspondence of the Tar Heel Coinjock, N. C. Nov. 17.—
Prof. S. M. Gregory, the celebrated banjoist of Lee's army is visiting this community. His headquarters are at Scott's Hotel and, among the points visited is Jarvisbury, Powells Point, Waterlily, Corrolla and Knott's Island. Mr. Gregory has reached the age of 74 years but still retains his vigor.
Capt. and Mrs. Henry Myers, of Hartford Conn., are here on their sloop-yacht "Sensation" to spend the winter. Both the Captain and his wife are well known here having spent several winters here.
The U. S. Light House Tender Violet passed through recently on her southern trip.
On account of the warm weather for the past two or three weeks fishing and hunting have been very poor. Wild duck and geese are very scarce.

We were pleased to see the Rev. Claude W. Duke, of Elizabeth City, in this vicinity recently.
The Baptist Church at this place has been without a pastor for some time—consequently we have had no services, we hope the committee appointed to secure a Pastor are progressing, and that by the time the Union Meeting is to be held with the church here, (which will be on the 28th, 29th and 30th of this month) we will have one to take charge.
Miss Maggie Simmons, a very poular young lady of Corrolla, was in our village recently.
Mr. Pat Twiddy and J. M. LeRoy, both representing jobbing houses of Elizabeth City, were here this week.

POYNER'S HILL.

Correspondence of the Tar Heel Poyner's Hill, N. C., Nov. 18
We are glad to note the convalescence of little Mary Wescott. She and her mother will return home this week.
The gunning season opened Monday, Nov. 10, and for the past week the reports of the hunter's guns have been numerous. Several hundred ducks were killed by the club here last week.
Mr. Charlie Forbes and Mr. Stark Harris spent Sunday very pleasantly in Jarvisburg.
Samuel Russell, President of the Currituck Club, George Post, Ex president, the Messrs. Thayer, and Mr. Newbold, were entertained at P. H. station Wednesday by Capt. Wescott.
We rejoice to hear of the success of our friends Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Poyner, who resigned their position as managers of the C. S.

Club house and moved to Norfolk where they are keeping a first class boarding house on 283 York Street.
One of the guests at Palmer Island Club had the misfortune to loose a gold watch somewhere along the beach. He prized it very highly as it has been his father's. A liberal reward has been offered, but so far it has not been found.
The correspondence here does not agree with the Idle Reporter in one of the subject mentioned last week. Perhaps that is the effect it has on you but "kissing leads to graver deeds" and I think it a wise law that prohibits osculation.
Among the callers Sunday were S. M. Beasley, Prof. John C. Gibbs Mr. Wilson Lindsey and others.
Miss Laura C. Wescott entertained a few of her friends Sunday evening at her home on Main and Water streets.
Poyner's Hill is slowly but surely coming to the times. Besides having horseless carriages, naphtha launches, golf links, good fishing, good gunning and many other amusements we now have electric lights. Mr. Richie Simpkins of Palmer Island. Club has a dinamo and now South Poyner's Hill is lit up with electricity. It is rumored that seven thousand pines are to be set out here soon. In a few years this thriving little city will be a place where the weary should cease to grumble and the lazy can take a rest. We predict a great future for Poyners Hill.

Cards Are Out.

The following announcement reached the desk of the editor this week:
Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Speight Request the Honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Ella Mae to James Clifton Wood Wednesday evening November twenty sixth nineteen hundred and two at eight thirty o'clock Methodist Episcopal Church Elizabeth City, North Carolina.

Many a man makes a fool of himself because he hasn't the moral courage to do otherwise.
In England gentlemen often ride to hounds; in this country they frequently go to the dogs.
Will Send a Coffin.
A Young fellow in this City, who by the way is a confirmed cigarette fiend wrote the American Tobacco Company that he had smoked six thousand boxes of a certain brand of their cigarettes. He probably thought that this startling information would bring him a car load of Dukes Mixture and a bale of rice paper; but instead came the brief reply: "Smoke another box and we will send you down a coffin."
