

Miss Leah Hill has returned from Newberne.

Mr. W. T. Williams, of Road street is out again.

Mr. W. N. Pruden, of Edenton, was in the city this week.

Mr. W. J. Tate of Kitty Hawk was in the city this week.

Mr. Russell Griggs, of Kitty Hawk visited Elizabeth City.

Mr. H. C. Tunnis, spent a part of the week in Norfolk.

Mr. Phillip Davis, of Norfolk was in the city this week.

Mr. A. E. Burgess will attend college at Ahaskie.

Mr. Thos. G. Skinner of Hertford was in the city this week.

Mr. Brinkley, Edenton's Postmaster was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. I. M. Meekins left Monday for Washington on business.

Miss Bulah Ambrose is spending the week with Miss Mary Grice.

There will probably be another excursion to Norfolk Tuesday night.

A Small Tenant house near Mr. B. N. Morgans was burned Monday night.

Mrs. Sikes Davis, of Providence, Township had a paralytic Stroke one day last week.

J. R. Abbott, M. M. Burnham and J. H. Gatling of Camden were in this city this week.

Mr. William Tolley and children returned Saturday from Ocaroake where they visited relatives.

Rev. Mr. Tuttle of the First Methodist Church is visiting friends on the Eastern Shore.

Rev. W. E. Hocutt, of South Mill, N. C. paid the Tar Heel office a visit this week.

Mr. J. G. Duncan and Mr. D. B. Squires of Riddle were here on business this week.

Mr. Louis Lanier left Thursday for an extended visit to Edenton and other points.

At the Baptist Church Sunday night Rev. Dr. Porter of Newport News preached an excellent sermon.

Messrs. William Bond, W. B. Robinson, and W. W. Pruden, lawyers, of Edenton, were in the city this week.

Mr. Roscoe C. Mitchell, editor of The Carolinian, who has been in Washington returned Monday to this city.

Mr. Baxter Bountree has accepted a position in Norfolk. Mr. Bountree was a former employee of the Tar Heel.

Mr. C. C. Aydlett reports that three times as many potatoes are being planted this season at Powells Point then heretofore.

The steamer Camiel off Scotts railway one day this week went to the bottom in twenty five feet water, but was raised successfully by Capt. F. M. Gordon who is an expert in this business.

Mr. O. F. Gilbert who has been to the North purchasing his spring stock has returned. It is needless to say that the Bee Hive will show up to advantage when the shelves show the fruits of this visit.

At the Episcopal Church Sunday morning Mr. Louis Lanier rendered a solo, which added very much to the musical feature of the service. The sermon by the rector, Rev. Mr. Williams was also much enjoyed.

Mr. S. G. Sutton of the firm of S. G. Sutton and company Harbinger N. C. passed through this city on Tuesday of this week. He was accompanied by L. D. Aydlett, enroute to the Northern Cities to purchase their spring stock of goods.

At the First Methodist Church Sunday, Rev. Mr. Tuttle administered the communion at the morning service, Mr. Tuttle's discourses both morning and night were unusually strong; his subjects being particularly adapted to the sacredness of the occasion. The suffering and love of our Savior were graphically and fluently pictured. A large attendance heard both sermons.

Mr. Jno. C. Perry, is No three, on the Rural Free delivery route from Elizabeth City to Hinton's corner, a distance of eleven miles. On returning he leaves the mail route at Butler road coming in town by Fork Road. The distance is 23 miles traveled every day except Sunday.

The offices at Mumford and Rosedale are closed, thus compelling the people to get boxes or come to Elizabeth City to get their mail. This trouble will not last long as the people are getting their boxes as fast as possible. Mr. Perry takes all the mail along, but brings back more than half. The mail goes out from town at 12: 15 p. m. and returns 6:30 P. M.

The Woodville people enjoy reading the Tar Heel. The majority say it is one of the leading papers of the state.

Mr. W. A. Only was in Chapanoke Sunday.

Dr. T. M. Riddick has returned to his home in this village, from a week's visit to friends in Courtland and Norfolk, Virginia. We are glad to have the Dr. back again and to learn that his visit was fraught with such genuine pleasure.

Mrs. Riddick, who had been visiting in Gates, Co., N. C. has returned home also.

Mr. W. E. Evans of Elizabeth City, was in our town on business one day last week.

Rev. G. W. Starling spent Tuesday at Elizabeth City on business.

Mr. James Billups has now accepted a position at the Major and Loomis saw mill near here.

Miss Louise James of Elizabeth City, is the guest of Mrs. R. T. White on Main street.

Rev. B. S. Lassiter filled his regular appointment at the Chappel of the Good Shepherd Sunday evening. He will have services here every Thursday evening during Lent.

Mr. J. L. Farant of Norfolk, Va., was in our town on business Wednesday.

Messrs. John Jackson and Howard Leary made a flying trip to Elizabeth City Friday, on business.

From the present prospects there will be a large crop of potatoes raised in our section this year, as most all the farmers will plant a few.

Mrs. Alphonso White and Mrs. Laden spent Thursday at Okisko, visiting friends and relatives.

After spending a few days here with the family of Mr. H. D. Pendleton Mrs. Hugh Winslow returned home Monday.

Rev. W. P. Stallings filled his regular appointment at the school house Sunday night.

Mr. H. T. Wilson a popular young salesman of Norfolk, was in our town on business Monday.

Among the large number of well known business men that have visited our town this week were Mr. J. H. Gatling, of Norfolk Mr. B. L. Banks and Mr. Weatherly of Elizabeth City, and Mr. W. H. Harrell of Norfolk.

One of the most social events of the season was a dance given by a few of the young men of this place at the residence Mr. and Mrs. Edwards Tuesday Feb. 24th. Those who attended were Misses Annie White, Della Perry, Maude Turner, Pattie Hurdle, Liza White, Lena Barber and Pearl Billups.

The gentlemen were H. M. Kirby, James Billups, Will Jessup, Gaiher Bright, R. B. Kirby and John Jackson. The music was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Edwards.

A Card. I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of chief of police of Elizabeth City, N. C., subject to the decision of the democratic party.

A. C. BELL. Mar. 4, 1903.

The Carolinians Policy. The following clipping from The Raleigh Post regarding Mr. Mitchell, editor of The Carolinian, is worth reproducing.

During the short days of winter our esteemed contemporary, The Elizabeth City Carolinian, appeared weekly with the following colors mailed to its mast, across columns:

"The Carolinian," published Weekly by the Carolinian Publishing Company.

Hon. E. C. Duncan, President.

Hon. I. M. Meekins, Vice President.

Since the shorter winter days Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell became the editor-in-chief of the Carolinian published as above said with Hon. E. C. Duncan President, etc.

For two or three issues all went as merrily as a marriage bell.

Finally, Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell, aforesaid, arose to the occasion, and feeling that it was about time to unload some things of Republican household effects which had become troublesome, besides the darkey, proceeded with his usual vigor to unload Mr. Theo. Roosevelt as a candidate for further Republican nomination, and substituted the good-looking but wealthy manufacturing Senator from the Hoosier State, Mr. Fairbanks as the man to manifest destiny.

Another chapter of this story should be put in right here. It is short and sweet, but it adorns this tale and the moral will come later.

Hon. E. C. Duncan, "President," etc., is the urbane but "de-vilish sly" Collector of Internal Revenue for the Eastern district of North Carolina by the grace of President Theodore Roosevelt.

Hon. I. M. Meekins aforesaid is the versatile and not infrequently volatile postmaster of the thriving city which does much business on the banks of Pasquotank, where frogs are prone to jump.

There is a whole volume in this little chapter, just recited, as the sequel will show.

Often in our early youth when our heart was inclined to commune with nature or avoid a more impressive interview with the loved schoolmaster we would meander down by the river-side and never failed to become interested in the terrapins we would see daily sunning themselves on the right side of any log which might be anchored in the stream, and the most interesting subject of study was the flucny with which every mothers son of them would slide off the log and disappear from mortal view as if they scented danger, or something or other. Every man of today who was once a boy and had occasion, whatever the cause, of visiting a pond or a stream can recall the facility with which these otherwise awkward-moving creatures could get off the log and go deep down out of sight.

The Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell aforesaid with his own strong arm and little hatchet, in his capacity as editor-in-chief, as aforesaid did then and there with malice aforethought and deep premeditation, and evidently without the fear of the devil, proceed to say that North Carolina wanted no more of President Roosevelt for President, and that even as the hart panteth for the waterbrooks so the hearts of the white Republicans of North Carolina panteth for the fair banks of Indiana, or words to that effect.

Did we say that the terrapins slid off of the log? Well, we will defy any terrapin unhung to disappear from his sunny sides as quickly or gracefully as did the name of Hon. F. C. Duncan Collector as aforesaid by the grace of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt aforesaid, and of Hon. I. M. Meekins postmaster aforesaid, also by the grace of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt aforesaid, from the masthead of "The Carolinian."

And now the Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell, aforesaid, like the boy who stood on the burning deck is monarch of all he surveys.

And he proposes to survey. We could raminate further upon the slidin' qualities of tarrapins and Republican statesmen, upon the unexpectedness of things and the uncertainties of this life, but will drop the curtain ever as the Collector and the postmaster dropped themselves from the masthead of that "Leading Republican organ of North Carolina."

The Concord Times says, "Jim Wilcox, against whom there was not one scintilla of direct evidence, was twice found guilty of murder.

Bishop, who shot down his victim in his own home and did not deny it, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to only five years in the penitentiary.

Haywood, killed the man he had wronged on the streets in broad daylight, will plead self-defense, and will go free, no doubt.

Tillman, who murdered an unsuspecting man without a word or sign of warning, will go scot free, it seems to be generally conceded. In the face of such facts as these, where in the name of heaven has justice flown?

RECORD OF THE PAST. No Stronger Evidence Can Be Produced.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Any one with a bad back, any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from any kidney ills, will find in the following evidence proof that relief and cure is near at hand:

Mr. G. M. Myers, the well-known shoemaker of Winchester avenue and 14th. street, Ashland, Ky., says "Doan's Kidney Pills are like true friends, the longer you know them the better they are appreciated. I can add nothing to the statement I first made in 1896 after I procured the remedy at the Ventura Drug Co., and took a course of the treatment, which cured me. I was absolutely free from all backache for nearly three years, then I noticed a slight ache, as the result of a cold, in my back. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills disposed of it. I have recommended this remedy to many, and have never heard of one who did not endorse the claims made for it."

For sale by all dealers Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Sold at STANDARD PHARMACY.

WINFALL. Correspondence of the Tar Heel. Winfall, N. C., Mar. 3.—

Mr. W. E. Evans of Elizabeth City, was in our town on business one day last week.

Rev. G. W. Starling spent Tuesday at Elizabeth City on business.

Mr. James Billups has now accepted a position at the Major and Loomis saw mill near here.

Miss Louise James of Elizabeth City, is the guest of Mrs. R. T. White on Main street.

Rev. B. S. Lassiter filled his regular appointment at the Chappel of the Good Shepherd Sunday evening. He will have services here every Thursday evening during Lent.

Mr. J. L. Farant of Norfolk, Va., was in our town on business Wednesday.

Messrs. John Jackson and Howard Leary made a flying trip to Elizabeth City Friday, on business.

From the present prospects there will be a large crop of potatoes raised in our section this year, as most all the farmers will plant a few.

Mrs. Alphonso White and Mrs. Laden spent Thursday at Okisko, visiting friends and relatives.

After spending a few days here with the family of Mr. H. D. Pendleton Mrs. Hugh Winslow returned home Monday.

Rev. W. P. Stallings filled his regular appointment at the school house Sunday night.

Mr. H. T. Wilson a popular young salesman of Norfolk, was in our town on business Monday.

Among the large number of well known business men that have visited our town this week were Mr. J. H. Gatling, of Norfolk Mr. B. L. Banks and Mr. Weatherly of Elizabeth City, and Mr. W. H. Harrell of Norfolk.

One of the most social events of the season was a dance given by a few of the young men of this place at the residence Mr. and Mrs. Edwards Tuesday Feb. 24th. Those who attended were Misses Annie White, Della Perry, Maude Turner, Pattie Hurdle, Liza White, Lena Barber and Pearl Billups.

The gentlemen were H. M. Kirby, James Billups, Will Jessup, Gaiher Bright, R. B. Kirby and John Jackson. The music was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Edwards.

A Card. I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of chief of police of Elizabeth City, N. C., subject to the decision of the democratic party.

A. C. BELL. Mar. 4, 1903.

The Carolinians Policy. The following clipping from The Raleigh Post regarding Mr. Mitchell, editor of The Carolinian, is worth reproducing.

During the short days of winter our esteemed contemporary, The Elizabeth City Carolinian, appeared weekly with the following colors mailed to its mast, across columns:

"The Carolinian," published Weekly by the Carolinian Publishing Company.

Hon. E. C. Duncan, President.

Hon. I. M. Meekins, Vice President.

Since the shorter winter days Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell became the editor-in-chief of the Carolinian published as above said with Hon. E. C. Duncan President, etc.

For two or three issues all went as merrily as a marriage bell.

Finally, Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell, aforesaid, arose to the occasion, and feeling that it was about time to unload some things of Republican household effects which had become troublesome, besides the darkey, proceeded with his usual vigor to unload Mr. Theo. Roosevelt as a candidate for further Republican nomination, and substituted the good-looking but wealthy manufacturing Senator from the Hoosier State, Mr. Fairbanks as the man to manifest destiny.

Another chapter of this story should be put in right here. It is short and sweet, but it adorns this tale and the moral will come later.

Hon. E. C. Duncan, "President," etc., is the urbane but "de-vilish sly" Collector of Internal Revenue for the Eastern district of North Carolina by the grace of President Theodore Roosevelt.

Hon. I. M. Meekins aforesaid is the versatile and not infrequently volatile postmaster of the thriving city which does much business on the banks of Pasquotank, where frogs are prone to jump.

There is a whole volume in this little chapter, just recited, as the sequel will show.

Often in our early youth when our heart was inclined to commune with nature or avoid a more impressive interview with the loved schoolmaster we would meander down by the river-side and never failed to become interested in the terrapins we would see daily sunning themselves on the right side of any log which might be anchored in the stream, and the most interesting subject of study was the flucny with which every mothers son of them would slide off the log and disappear from mortal view as if they scented danger, or something or other. Every man of today who was once a boy and had occasion, whatever the cause, of visiting a pond or a stream can recall the facility with which these otherwise awkward-moving creatures could get off the log and go deep down out of sight.

The Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell aforesaid with his own strong arm and little hatchet, in his capacity as editor-in-chief, as aforesaid did then and there with malice aforethought and deep premeditation, and evidently without the fear of the devil, proceed to say that North Carolina wanted no more of President Roosevelt for President, and that even as the hart panteth for the waterbrooks so the hearts of the white Republicans of North Carolina panteth for the fair banks of Indiana, or words to that effect.

Did we say that the terrapins slid off of the log? Well, we will defy any terrapin unhung to disappear from his sunny sides as quickly or gracefully as did the name of Hon. F. C. Duncan Collector as aforesaid by the grace of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt aforesaid, and of Hon. I. M. Meekins postmaster aforesaid, also by the grace of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt aforesaid, from the masthead of "The Carolinian."

And now the Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell, aforesaid, like the boy who stood on the burning deck is monarch of all he surveys.

And he proposes to survey. We could raminate further upon the slidin' qualities of tarrapins and Republican statesmen, upon the unexpectedness of things and the uncertainties of this life, but will drop the curtain ever as the Collector and the postmaster dropped themselves from the masthead of that "Leading Republican organ of North Carolina."

not one scintilla of direct evidence, was twice found guilty of murder.

Bishop, who shot down his victim in his own home and did not deny it, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to only five years in the penitentiary.

Haywood, killed the man he had wronged on the streets in broad daylight, will plead self-defense, and will go free, no doubt.

Tillman, who murdered an unsuspecting man without a word or sign of warning, will go scot free, it seems to be generally conceded. In the face of such facts as these, where in the name of heaven has justice flown?

RECORD OF THE PAST. No Stronger Evidence Can Be Produced.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Any one with a bad back, any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from any kidney ills, will find in the following evidence proof that relief and cure is near at hand:

Mr. G. M. Myers, the well-known shoemaker of Winchester avenue and 14th. street, Ashland, Ky., says "Doan's Kidney Pills are like true friends, the longer you know them the better they are appreciated. I can add nothing to the statement I first made in 1896 after I procured the remedy at the Ventura Drug Co., and took a course of the treatment, which cured me. I was absolutely free from all backache for nearly three years, then I noticed a slight ache, as the result of a cold, in my back. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills disposed of it. I have recommended this remedy to many, and have never heard of one who did not endorse the claims made for it."

For sale by all dealers Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Sold at STANDARD PHARMACY.

WINFALL. Correspondence of the Tar Heel. Winfall, N. C., Mar. 3.—

Mr. W. E. Evans of Elizabeth City, was in our town on business one day last week.

Rev. G. W. Starling spent Tuesday at Elizabeth City on business.

Mr. James Billups has now accepted a position at the Major and Loomis saw mill near here.

Miss Louise James of Elizabeth City, is the guest of Mrs. R. T. White on Main street.

Rev. B. S. Lassiter filled his regular appointment at the Chappel of the Good Shepherd Sunday evening. He will have services here every Thursday evening during Lent.

Mr. J. L. Farant of Norfolk, Va., was in our town on business Wednesday.

Messrs. John Jackson and Howard Leary made a flying trip to Elizabeth City Friday, on business.

From the present prospects there will be a large crop of potatoes raised in our section this year, as most all the farmers will plant a few.

Mrs. Alphonso White and Mrs. Laden spent Thursday at Okisko, visiting friends and relatives.

After spending a few days here with the family of Mr. H. D. Pendleton Mrs. Hugh Winslow returned home Monday.

Rev. W. P. Stallings filled his regular appointment at the school house Sunday night.

Mr. H. T. Wilson a popular young salesman of Norfolk, was in our town on business Monday.

Among the large number of well known business men that have visited our town this week were Mr. J. H. Gatling, of Norfolk Mr. B. L. Banks and Mr. Weatherly of Elizabeth City, and Mr. W. H. Harrell of Norfolk.

One of the most social events of the season was a dance given by a few of the young men of this place at the residence Mr. and Mrs. Edwards Tuesday Feb. 24th. Those who attended were Misses Annie White, Della Perry, Maude Turner, Pattie Hurdle, Liza White, Lena Barber and Pearl Billups.

The gentlemen were H. M. Kirby, James Billups, Will Jessup, Gaiher Bright, R. B. Kirby and John Jackson. The music was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Edwards.

A Card. I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of chief of police of Elizabeth City, N. C., subject to the decision of the democratic party.

A. C. BELL. Mar. 4, 1903.

The Carolinians Policy. The following clipping from The Raleigh Post regarding Mr. Mitchell, editor of The Carolinian, is worth reproducing.

During the short days of winter our esteemed contemporary, The Elizabeth City Carolinian, appeared weekly with the following colors mailed to its mast, across columns:

"The Carolinian," published Weekly by the Carolinian Publishing Company.

Hon. E. C. Duncan, President.

Hon. I. M. Meekins, Vice President.

Since the shorter winter days Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell became the editor-in-chief of the Carolinian published as above said with Hon. E. C. Duncan President, etc.

For two or three issues all went as merrily as a marriage bell.

Finally, Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell, aforesaid, arose to the occasion, and feeling that it was about time to unload some things of Republican household effects which had become troublesome, besides the darkey, proceeded with his usual vigor to unload Mr. Theo. Roosevelt as a candidate for further Republican nomination, and substituted the good-looking but wealthy manufacturing Senator from the Hoosier State, Mr. Fairbanks as the man to manifest destiny.

Another chapter of this story should be put in right here. It is short and sweet, but it adorns this tale and the moral will come later.

Hon. E. C. Duncan, "President," etc., is the urbane but "de-vilish sly" Collector of Internal Revenue for the Eastern district of North Carolina by the grace of President Theodore Roosevelt.

Hon. I. M. Meekins aforesaid is the versatile and not infrequently volatile postmaster of the thriving city which does much business on the banks of Pasquotank, where frogs are prone to jump.

There is a whole volume in this little chapter, just recited, as the sequel will show.

Often in our early youth when our heart was inclined to commune with nature or avoid a more impressive interview with the loved schoolmaster we would meander down by the river-side and never failed to become interested in the terrapins we would see daily sunning themselves on the right side of any log which might be anchored in the stream, and the most interesting subject of study was the flucny with which every mothers son of them would slide off the log and disappear from mortal view as if they scented danger, or something or other. Every man of today who was once a boy and had occasion, whatever the cause, of visiting a pond or a stream can recall the facility with which these otherwise awkward-moving creatures could get off the log and go deep down out of sight.

The Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell aforesaid with his own strong arm and little hatchet, in his capacity as editor-in-chief, as aforesaid did then and there with malice aforethought and deep premeditation, and evidently without the fear of the devil, proceed to say that North Carolina wanted no more of President Roosevelt for President, and that even as the hart panteth for the waterbrooks so the hearts of the white Republicans of North Carolina panteth for the fair banks of Indiana, or words to that effect.

Did we say that the terrapins slid off of the log? Well, we will defy any terrapin unhung to disappear from his sunny sides as quickly or gracefully as did the name of Hon. F. C. Duncan Collector as aforesaid by the grace of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt aforesaid, and of Hon. I. M. Meekins postmaster aforesaid, also by the grace of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt aforesaid, from the masthead of "The Carolinian."

And now the Hon. Roscoe Conkling Mitchell, aforesaid, like the boy who stood on the burning deck is monarch of all he surveys.

And he proposes to survey. We could raminate further upon the slidin' qualities of tarrapins and Republican statesmen, upon the unexpectedness of things and the uncertainties of this life, but will drop the curtain ever as the Collector and the postmaster dropped themselves from the masthead of that "Leading Republican organ of North Carolina."

not one scintilla of direct evidence, was twice found guilty of murder. Bishop, who shot down his victim in his own home and did not deny it, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to only five years in the penitentiary. Haywood, killed the man he had wronged on the streets in broad daylight, will plead self-defense, and will go free, no doubt. Tillman, who murdered an unsuspecting man without a word or sign of warning, will go scot free, it seems to be generally conceded. In the face of such facts as these, where in the name of heaven has justice flown?

RECORD OF THE PAST. No Stronger Evidence Can Be Produced.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Any one with a bad back, any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from any kidney ills, will find in the following evidence proof that relief and cure is near at hand:

Mr. G. M. Myers, the well-known shoemaker of Winchester avenue and 14th. street, Ashland, Ky., says "Doan's Kidney Pills are like true friends, the longer you know them the better they are appreciated. I can add nothing to the statement I first made in 1896 after I procured the remedy at the Ventura Drug Co., and took a course of the treatment, which cured me. I was absolutely free from all backache for nearly three years, then I noticed a slight ache, as the result of a cold, in my back. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills disposed of it. I have recommended this remedy to many, and have never heard of one who did not endorse the claims made for it."

For sale by all dealers Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Sold at STANDARD PHARMACY.

WINFALL. Correspondence of the Tar Heel. Winfall, N. C., Mar. 3.—

Mr. W. E. Evans of Elizabeth City, was in our town on business one day last week.

Rev. G. W. Starling spent Tuesday at Elizabeth City on business.

Mr. James Billups has now accepted a position at the Major and Loomis saw mill near here.

Miss Louise James of Elizabeth City, is the guest of Mrs. R. T. White on Main street.

Rev. B. S. Lassiter filled his regular appointment at the Chappel of the Good Shepherd Sunday evening. He will have services here every Thursday evening during Lent.

Mr. J. L. Farant of Norfolk, Va., was in our town on business Wednesday.

Messrs. John Jackson and Howard Leary made a flying trip to Elizabeth City Friday