

met at the depot by members of this It was ordered that J. B. Leigh be odge and were accompanied to the tion day. Many who were entitled to to the body politic, the ex-Rev. Mr. Babb was above in the Academy of

In every ward except the seventh, Music babbling to a disgusted audiwhich is the Diamond Corner and Dry ence of men only. His effort was the captaincy of the steamer Ocracoke Point section, the temperance forces weak, even for the man who had been won a decided victory. It was in this excommunicated from the Christian ward that irregularities were allowed. ministry under charges for almost About a half-dozen men who had failed every crime in the decalogue. His to comply with the Constitutional prospeech was interspersed with vulgar vision with reference to the poll tax jokes and many who had gone out to were allowed to vote. This was done hear him prompted by curiosity alone, in open defiance of the law and left the hall in disgust. The speech cost the saloon men at least fifty against the advice of the city attorney votes, according to the statement of and the attorney general, whose letter was read to the poll-holders It is one of their number.

highly probable that these offenders will be prosecuted.

loons.

bells.

ballots.

te did not attend the polls.

was great. In one there were men only, who were compelled to listen to The vote by wards gave the prohibition side the following majorities: vulgar jokes and the verbosity of the First, 73; Second, 15; Third, 44: inconsistent man. In the other were Fourth, 45; Fifth, 1; Sixth, 17. Sevmen and women, who opened their enth, a majority of 25 for saloons. meeting by invoking the blessings of There were only 196 votes cast for God upon their efforts. Music and saloons and thus it is seen that the the approving of mothers and children majority against saloons was almost were here. The contrast of the two equal to the entire vote cast for sa- assemblages was convincing argument It is said that he has never had an

The contrast of the two meetings

The result of the election is a decided victory for morality and Chris- meeting was held in the Baptist Capt. Guard is very popular both tian influence. The ladies seemed as Church. It was a religious meeting, as an officer and as a man. His friends much interested in the fight as the and not the least signs of exultant feel- are legion and nowhere is he more men. All day long they held prayer ing was manifested. The meeting highly esteemed than in this city and in the churches and tolled the church was largely attended and the preach- among those who have known him They alternated from one ers and a number of laymen led in from boyhood. The Tar Heel wishes church to another and changed lead- prayer. The remarks evinced the him the continued success which his ers every half an hour. In the early kindliest feeling, especially towards fitness merits.

morning the ladies of the Woman's the saloon men of the city, who, as a Christian Temperance Union distrib- class, were referred to in terms high- A MODERN PRINTERY uted pretty ribbon badges to the young | ly complimentary. Mr. Tuttle, who was ladies of the city and not one was perhaps the principal speaker, said in known to refuse the white emblem. part: The interest of these ladies and the

Let Us Help Them.

have won a very decided victory, they

No Longer Necessary to Send Abroad For High-Grade Printing. At last Elizabeth City is to have a modern and well equipped job print-"Now that the prohibition forces ing establishment which will do all tion of the Virginia home of President | land is all that could be desired Cotkinds of commercial printing. This Monroe. It was constructed of the ton has been cultivated on it for years printery will be in connection with best material and after having with- and the quality of the staple is far the Tar Heel and under the personal stood the storms of more the store above the average.

FOR ELIZABETH CITY.

management of Mr. Frank-L. Hill, of dred winters, it is far better than many Messrs. Welch will occupy the farm going on for many weeks. Their forces they overcome in conflicts for truth's Baltimore, but late with the large of the recent and more modern struc- about January 1st. They are both

THE BEAUTIFUL STOCKTON GROVE.

The broad verandas and lofty col- ern methods and made a success of umns of the old mansion give it a farming. They use the latest and stately appearance. It was here that most improved agricultural impleis owner. Hon. Josiah T. Granby, lived ments and are firm believers in the Seventh ward. Large crowds were by crowing over his defeat or telling ficiency as a master of the art of in the long ago. It is said that the old future of agriculture in this section. business men of the city refuted the Answer: By doing unto them as we of some of the largest printeries of cian, and he, with Gideon Marchent, now on this farm and they will setain argument that the fight was being would have them do unto us. In going the large cities and the Tar Heel feels of Currituck, practically controlled the practically all the tenants. politics of the Albemarle district of The farm had been on the market North Carolina. The old home, in for fifteen years and was only recently The job department of the Tar Heel many ways, gives evidence of the placed in the hands of Mr. A. C. Hathsplendor and opulence in which this away for sale. The quick and satistypical Southern gentleman lived. A factory sale of the farm bespeaks the visit to the old home impresses one enterprise of this successful real es-

A NEW FURNITURE FACTORY The Stock Has Been Subscribed a business. Operations, Will Begin at an Early Date.

relieved of the payment of $8 income tax on account of an error in listing. It was ordered that Murden Temple. overseer of Knobb's Creek road, be allowed to purchase enough slabs to repair that road.

Dr. J. B. Griggs, county health officer, made the following report: Elizabeth City, N. C., Sept. 7, 1903. To the Commissioners of Pasquotank County:

wreck of that fateful war that abol- For near a quarter of a century tu.s Gentlemen :--- There are 30 inmates ished the institution of slavery. Stock- faim has been in the possession of at the County Home, 4 white females, ton has been kept in an excellent state | Mr. Wm. L. Elliott, a wealthy resident white males, 10 colored females, 9 of preservation, and today there are of Baltimore, Md. He has always been colored males; and 9 colored males all the conditions of the "fo de war" successful in securing desirable tenand 1 colored female are found in the time, save only the slave. Its ditches, ants and the farm has not been nejail. All of the public buildings are in fences and groves have been well kept. glected, but maintained in an excellent can be obtained. good condition. The homestead is an exact reproduct state of cultivation. The quality of the

Respectfully. J. B. GRIGGS. W. H. Reid was appointed a commitrenaired.

Burcher homestead near Woodville. The interment was at the family burying ground near the Burcher home. The family of the deceased will get about $1,000 of insurance which the young man carried with the Woodmen of the World. Besides the insurance this order will erect a handsome monument to the memory of its departed brother.

When found, there was about $125 on the person, together with a gold watch and a trunk check. These possessions are now in the custody of the Florida authorities and will be forwarded as soon as the proper papers

> The Jacksonville paper, in referring to he death of young Burcher, said:

"C. L. Burcher, late of Georgetown, tee of one to have Hall's Creek bridge S. C., a stranger here, was found dead in his room at the Duval Hotel this morning, when the chambermaid went Messrs. Z. W. Hollowell, road superto his apartments to arrange them ivsor for Elizabeth City township; C. for the day. C. Meads, road supervisor for Salem

"The hotel management at once notownship, and Seth W. Scott, supertified the police, and they informed visor of the roads in Nixonton town-Justice Cannon of the matter. Dr. ship, made monthly reports, which J. H. Pittman was summoned and were read, approved and filed. upon examination found that death Z W. Hollowell, supervisor-elect for was due to acute indigestion. There Elizabeth City township, presented his was evidence of the deceased having official bond to the board in the sum eaten some bananas before retiring. of $1,000, with O. McMullan and A. L. and it is thought that the fruit brought Aydlett as sureties. The bond was on the indigestion. There was some accepted and approved and ordered to evidence of gas escaping in the room. be recorded. which at first led to the belief that John E. Coppersmith, of Salem township, was relieved of road duty on account of bad health. The clerk of the board was instruct-

The total amount of bills audited to Establish the Line.

the young man had committed suicide. but this was entirely unfounded, as the windows and transom were found ed to purchase six new points for the open when the chambermaid first entered the room.

> "Burcher arrived here yesterday on the Clyde line steamer Araphoe from Charleston and registered at the hotel in the afternoon. He was not seen br the clerk after supper, and it is not known what time he retired. From his effects it was learned that he was recently employed by the Atlantic Coast Lumber Company, of George town, S. C., but was at present out of work. Several letters were found regarding situations he had applied for. He had last worked at a saw mat at Kingsdale, N. C., for R. L. Temple. Among the belongings of the deceased was found about $100 in money, a gold turned over to Undertaker Clark for PUBLIC SCHOOL OPENING. The public school will open Wednes-tile county and that a merchant here the principal, desires that all child; en and allowed at this meeting was TELEPHONES FOR CURRITUCK.

A Company Was Organized This Week That Currituck county is to have a telephone line is now a certainty. The necessity for such a convenience to the progressive truckers of that county has long been appreciated, but not till this week has the enterprise Mr. D. O. Newberry was in Curriwatch and chain and a revolver. "Justice Cannon deemed an inquest unnecessary and ordered the remains provide solid solid supposed the burial."

tuck this week with a view to soliciting subscriptions for stock in the company, which is to be known as the Currituck Telephone Company. Mr.

assumed appearance of success.

county road machine.

$1,369.13.

Newberry assures the Tar Heel that the contract for the construction will ing center. This fact is largely sup- be given out in a few days and that in ported by the number of furniture a few weeks Elizabeth City will be stores, all of which seem to do a good connected with all parts of that fer- day, September, 23rd. Mrs. B:auford.

This new project is launched by the can set in his store in this city and be accompanied on that day by either who had great interests, at stake, least objectionable manner and in the now it is no longer necessary for the Chamber of Commerce, through the ef- say hello to the country merchants parent or guardian. She entertains could not afford to take a step that best spirit will receive the larger business men to send abroad for high-The next enterprise for Elizabeth ficient services of Mr. Edmund Alex- without the necessary expense of a bright hopes for a most successful Would impare the progress or business share of our good will. We beg them grade printing. City is a furniture factory. That we ander. Mr. Alexander, in speaking to salesman and horse and buggy to so- session. Many new features will be interests of the city. It was after this then to get into some other business of In this connection let us say that a Tar Heel reporter vesterday, said licit their orders. we will appreciate your patronage and riday night meeting that the saloon as soon as possible and give us a are to have this addition to our al-that the articles of incorporation for This project means much to the improvement over the previous one. men began to see the doom of their chance to prove our love by our deeds certainly a home newspaper which of helpfulness to them. In these strives at all times for the promotion ready many paying industries is as the new company would be secured farmers and merchants of Currituck. She is doing a great work and de business. The second states sured by the signatures of many of the next week and then the enterprise This county is already in the lead in serves the co-operation of every pa-Monday night saw the fight on in words I have expressed the thought of of home interests deserves the patronage of the home merchant or best business men of this city. The would start in earnest. The size and the production of truck and other tron of the school. earnest. Both the saloon advocates many, if not all, prohibitionists." sufficient amount of stock has been capacity of the factory has not been things which have a fluctuating marbanker more so than the printery in and the prohibitionists were active. The saloons will close the first of This was the night when Rev. Geo. next January, when their licenses ex- the large cities, which spends nothing subscribers will fully detrmined, but it will give em- ket. Such a service will enable them Cool Weather Clothing. Stuart was billed to speak for the tem- pire. In this connection, it is but in the town except the hotel bill of its meet next week to perfect organiza- ployment to a large number of em- to keep posted as to the very latest There is forceful logic in the arguployes and will be a valuable accession market quetations as well as the conment by McCabe & Grice in their adtraveling man. tion. - 47 m 12 perance cause and ex-Rev. Thos. Babb due them to say that no better men, It goes without saying that such an to our manufacturing interests. vertisement in this issue that it in dition of the weather. was to speak in defense of whiskey as a rule, are engaged in the whiskey The stock of the new enterprise is wise to buy Fall Clothes in September and saloons. First Ride on a Railroad. enterprise at this point will prove a business anywhere than the saloon Mr. Mark Smith, who lives about paying investment. It has been stated Miss Isabell Carr, an expert millisubscribed to mostly by the people of because the buyer gets longer wear a Sunday afternoon a telegram was dealers of Elizabeth City. Most all four miles from here, took his first upon authority that Elizabeth City ner, of Baltimore, has accepted a posi- Currituck. Aticles of incorporation for his money, and a larger assort received from Mr. Stuart to the effect of them are good citizens, and it is that he could not be here because of to be hoped that they will go into ride on a railroad last Saturday, when alone consumes enough furniture to tion as manager of the trimming de have been forwarded to the Secretary ment to select from . This firm banco he went to Raleigh. This is guite keep a factory with ordinary capacity partment of Holmes & Co. Miss Carr, of State and work will begin as soon dies the Hand Tailored Clothing of h the serious illness of his son. Much some other business in this city. remarkable, considering that he was running six days to the week and fifty- who is a highly accomplished young as the papers are sent back. Mr. Schloss Bros. & Co., of Baltimore, the hung upon this night's meeting and Should they do this they will get a the "whiskeyites" became elated over the failure of Mr. Stuart to be pres-ent. But the "temperance cranks" who fought, not them, but their busi-were not to be outdone. They se a soldier during the war, but being a two weeks to the year. There are lady, will arrive on the 18th instant. Newberry says that the price of the largest tailoring house in the world. cavalryman then he rode a horse in large quantities of furniture used in She is reputed to be a young lady of service will be as low as is expedient Stylish dressers ought to take a book going to and from the army.—Chatham this city and in the territory of ten many graces and she will be welcome so that every person can have the at their new Reliance double breasted; counties of which this city is the trad-i ed to our midst. fonvenience of a phone and a set anck suitaget, with , Record 101 . RELEASE TR. mar theZ and het to be off

Much credit is due the leaders in should try to make the victory poputhis fight for morality, for it resolved lar even with those who resisted it. itself into purely this. They worked Christians, like their Christ, should were thoroughly organized and they ever advancing conquests. A greater printing establishment of Burke & tures.

were ready for the great conflict of victory than driving away the saloon Gregory, of Norfolk Mr. Hill comes to this city with very business would be to win to the love Last Friday they had a successful of Christ the saloon keeper himself. flattering testimonials both as to his and enthusiastic tent meeting in the How shall we do this? Certainly not character as a gentleman and his efpresent and the attendance of the him to go somewhere else. How then? printing. He has served as foreman waged solely by women, preachers and out of business they will suffer more congratulated in seluring his services. temperance cranks. Hon. E. F. Ayd- or less loss. Now let us extend to lett addressed the meeting in a con- each one of them a helping and as has just been supplied with all modvincing and irrefutable speech of an they go into some other business. Let ern equipment and it is now the most hour's length. The clamor of the sa- us remember the old motto, "Live and thoroughly equipped job plant in loon men that prohibition would burt let live," and by dividing our trade eastern North Carolina. The equipbusiness, vanished before his logical with them aid them in setting up ment of a modern job plant necessi- with an idea of those conditions which tate dealer. and sledge-hammer blows, like chaff some business that will support them tates a large outlay of capital, but before the gale. He was loudy ap- and those dependent upon them. we felt the need of such an establish plauded. Men heretofore undecided These men will have nearly four ment in this live and progressive city how to vote knew that this man, pre- months to close out their business and We are of those who believe that eminently successful in business, and those of them who will do so in the money should be kept at home and doleful sounds of the church bells had great influence in determining the result of the election.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD.

which are in an excellent state of today it affords an ideal place for the cultivation. It is one of a few of those lawn parties and similar amusements large plantations which survived the of the summer time.

accident, and has never run a boat was made master of the steamer New-berne and he remained on her unti last May, when he was promoted to