In Memoriam of W. S. Dunton.

Died May 24, 1906.

One year ago today our Saviour Sent an angel from his throne, And took my dear brother To a beautiful heavenly home.

One year he has lived with Jesus, His dear head upon His breast, God knew best and sweetly called him Home to heaven with Him to rest.

Yes, you suffered, oh, how bitter To recall the awful doom, That has wrenched you from our presence, From your loved ones and your home.

Yes, you left your loving mother, Wife and sister, kind and true; Keep your noble spirit with them, Until they reach your home with God.

One year has passed, but still we miss him, Friends may think the wound has healed, But little they know of the sorrow, That lies within our hearts concealed.

Farewell, brother, so sad to say farewell, With one we loved so dear He has left us with sorrowing hearts And we are still weeping here.

—Sister.

SKINNERSVILLE NEWS.

June 11, 1907. It is very hard to get a stand of cotton through this section. Some of the people have plowed up three times and yet haven't a good stand. If the weather continues bad the crop will be very short at this place. Every thing is advancing in price so we hope cotton will do the same and stay so.

An Aged Lady Passes Away

On Sunday morning, May 26, just before the clock chimed the hour of five, the Angel of Death entered the room of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mansfield, and taking from them their beloved mother, Mrs. Mary Humphries aged 74 years, 3 weeks and 3 days.

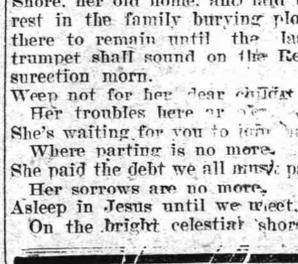

She had been lingering for some time, but her death came as a surprise to relatives and friends. She had been a member of the Shady Grove Baptist church for a number of years.

She leaves three children: two sons and one daughter: Mr. Richard Mansfield of Gregory, N. C., Mr. George Mansfield of Berkeley, Va., Mrs. George Fulford of Atlantic City, Va., twenty grandchildren and four great-grandchildren to mourn her loss. On Monday she was followed by a host of friends to Currituck Shore, her old home, and laid to rest in the family burying plot, there to remain until the last trumpet shall sound on the Resurrection morn.

Weep not for her dear child, her troubles here are over. She's waiting for you to join her. Where parting is no more. She paid the debt we all must pay. Her sorrows are no more. Asleep in Jesus until we meet. On the bright celestial shores.

Mr. Ed Mitchell of Old Trap was here this week.
