DISCUSSED DRAINAGE QUESTION

IN A GREAT RECONCILIATION MEETING ALL THE DIFFERENT INTERETS OF HYDE DRAWN TOGETHER LAST WEDNESDAY.

A meeting, the final outcome of which will mean much to Eastern North Carolina, if it results successfully was held in the Southern Hotel parlors in this city last Wednesday.

It was a meeting to discuss the drainage proposition in Hyde County in general and to drain Mattamuskeet Lake in particular or rather it was a meeting to effect a reconciliation among the warring element in that section of Hyde County.

The Government has made provisions for the drainage by surveys etc., the lake and adjoining lands. The majority of the citizens of that section favor the movement but there are quite a number who object to being included in the drainage district.

This meeting was called through the instrumentality of Hon. John H. Small and was presided over by him. He explained the object of the meeting and in doing this he made a splendid speech in behalf of the movement. He preached harmony of action, and his speech was calculated to put his hearers in the proper frame of mind.

Mr. Small was followed by Hon. J. C. B. Eringhaus, attorney for the Juniper Bay farmers. He too spoke in a conciliatory strain that will do much to harmonize the people.

Then a general discussion followed, in which a number of prominent Hyde County farmers participated. The general tone of the remarks in the general discussion was that all wanted harmony of action, and that they desired the work to advance slowly to accomplish this.

Mr. J. O. Wright of the department of drainage at Washington, D. C., spoke at some length in the interest of the movement. He showed by his remarks that he is an expert on the proposition to drain swamp lands and that he knows what is needed in Eastern North Carolina.

It was agreed in this meeting that all litigation that has been instituted in Hyde County over the drainage proposition shall be suspended, until after another meeting has been held in Hyde County in the near future, sometime early in August.

The following gentlemen were here last Wednesday attending the meeting: Messrs. T. H. B. Gibbs, H. C. Carter, Geo. B. Carter, A. L. Cuthrell, Frank Cuthrell, Daniel Cradle, Benj. Nixon, I. F. Gibbs, S. T. Cuthrell, T. B. Jones, W. H. Jones, H. B. Cradle, Geo. Makely, Augene Bell, S. S. Mann, E. P. Carter, Drs. P. H. Simmons, R. N. Cartwright, M. Makely, Jr. from Hyde County.

Mr. Makely of Edenton, John A. Wilkinson of Belhaven;

NO PIANO AFTER 10 O'CLOCK

Washington, July 13.—In the Police Court here Judge Ivory G. Kimball announced that piano playing after 10 o'clock at night was as disorderly as cursing and fighting and he would fine the occupants of any house brought before him for keeping music going until a late hour.

"I want to impress upon you and your friends who were with you," said Judge Kimball to Raymond Leman, the defendant, "that playing the piano after hours will not be tolerated in this city. We can not live in a city like this, all crowded together, unless everybody has some consideration for the rights of his neighbors. No man or woman has a right to play the piano or sing after his or her neighbors are asleep or indeed trying to sleep."

AN INTERVIEW WITH MR. E. F. AYDLETT.

Our reporter called upon Mr. E. F. Aydlett to inquire about the report of him being sued and asked him:

"Has Andrew Brown of New York, sued you?" He replied, "Yes, Brown commenced suit against me early last spring in New York, setting up a fabulous damage of $35,000. I appeared and demurred. The court sustained my demurrer upon the ground, that he set out no just or meritorious cause of action in his complaint. He asked to amend and for 20 days in which to do so. He was granted the time, but failed to amend. He applied for, and got a second 20 days. During the second extension he commenced suit in the United States Circuit Court at Raleigh and served me last week copying largely word for word from his New York complaint and alleged his damages at only $3500.

"What about the merits of these suits was asked."

Mr. Aydlett said, "I do not now care to discuss the cases outside of the court house, where they belong to be heard. I do not try my clients cases on the streets nor in the newspapers and you will pardon me if I treat my own in the same way.

He added, "My friends know me well enough to know there is nothing of merit in these cases.

We want to say the bitter attacks made upon Mr. Aydlett have all fallen flat. The people know who is inspiring them and the motive.

Mr. Aydlett is not only honored and esteemed by the people in this community, but he stands for all that is good and noble in life. No man in Elizabeth City holds the confidence and respect of the people more than Mr. Aydlett does.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF DR. LAMB

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT ADOPTED BY ELIZABETH LODGE, NO. 217, THURSDAY NIGHT, JULY 8TH 1909 UPON THE DEATH OF BROTHER EDWIN REID.

Again with bowed head and bleeding hearts, we stand amid the shaw-ows, and acknowledge that death is master and we his subjects; that he comes unheralded as wwill as expected, and lays his icy hand upon the heart of young and old, strong and feeble alike, and all must answer to his call. And we who are left behind, desire to place this our tribute of love and respect for our departed brother upon the records of this lodge, and thus show the sorrow we feel and the loss we have sustained by the death of this Brother, therefore be it resolved:

FIRST:—
That in the death of Edwin Reid this lodge suffered a loss, his life was to us an inspiration, his presence a benediction; he was a man who lived the teaching of our order, a good man, one we shall ever miss and whose memory we shall ever reverence. He was faithful to his obligation, ever present at the lodge, ready to counsel and to assist in any good work which he could find to do. The lodge, the community, and the world is better because this brother has lived and moved among us.

SECOND:—
That we commend to the stricken widow and orphan children left behind, the gentle ministry and sustaining grace of that God whom our dear brother followed during his life. And pray that he may be a father and a husband to the bereaved ones.

THIRD:—
That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow of our deceased brother, a copy published in the city papers and a copy spread upon the minutes of this Lodge.

FOURTH:—
That as a further evidence of our esteem, the lodge room be draped for thirty days; and the members of this lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for the same period.

Fraternally Submitted,
ROSCOE W. TURNER,
J. B. CULPEPPER,

A WHOLE TOWN MORNES THE LOSS OF ITS LEADING PHYSICIAN. A FINE PHYSICIAN AND NOBLE CHRISTAIN HEARTED GENTLEMAN.

The Tar Heel publishes the following account of the death of Dr. R. B. C. Lamb taken from the El Paso (Texas) Times.

Ysleta Mourns Dr. Lamb.

Ysleta, Texas, June 23.—In the death of Dr. Richard C. Lamb, Ysleta has lost one of her best and most honored citizens. Kind hearted, always charitable, often going a long distance to minister to the wants of some poor person in distress, even though he knew he would receive no pay, furnishing the medicine that the case required from his own stock, he leaves many among that class who will sorely miss him. But a short time ago Mrs. Lamb started for their family home in North Carolina with their little daughter with a hope that they could save her life. In this, however, they were thwarted by fate, for the little one passed from this world as the mother journeyed homeward.

Mrs. Lamb has since been very ill and now the heavier blow in the loss of her husband comes to her and his aged father and mother and four brothers. Dr. Lamb left besides his wife, his father and mother, who reside in North Carolina. Dr. Fred Lamb of El Paso, who formerly resided in Ysleta, Tazewell Lamb, night editor on the Morning Times, Laul Lamb and John Lamb.

Dr. Richard C. Lamb.
Dr. R. C. Lamb of Ysleta died at Providence hospital at 4:15 yesterday morning after two weeks' illness from typhoid-pneumonia. His body, accompanied by his brother, Paul C. Lamb, was taken to his old home in North Carolina, for interment, leaving over the Rock Island yesterday afternoon.

Richard Creecy Lamb was born at Elizabeth City, N. C., May 26, 1881, the son of Colonel and Mrs. E. F. Lamb. He was educated at Bingham school at Asheville and at the University of North Carolina, and received the degree of doctor of medicine from the medical department of the University of Maryland. After practicing in North Carolina for more than two years he was married to Miss Mary Miller Outlaw and came to El Paso in 1906. He located at Ysleta and had built up a large practice.

He was a young man of decided talent, of attractive personality and winning manner, and had many devoted friends. His death occurred under peculiarly sad circumstances. Only a few weeks ago Mrs. Lamb, accompanied by her father-in-law Col. E. F. Lamb, started to North Carolina for the benefit of her sick baby. The baby died on the way and on her arrival home Mrs. Lamb was taken sick.

The surviving relatives in El Paso are Dr. Fred C. Lamb, city chemist, and Mr. Tazewell H. Lamb of the editorial staff of The Times.
