Synopsis of Speeches

E. F. Aydlett urged in his address that the Y. M. C. A. should be thrown open to all of the boys in town: that every one should have a chance: that the poor boy should have an opportunity in life and he wanted the women to see to it that the boys and girls who had to work should have the privileges of the Y. M. C. A. without cost to them. That if the women would urge it he believed the people would rally around them and see it was done.

ON THE NEAR BEER SALOONS. SAYS THAT HE IS OPPOSED TO THE SALE OF THE STUFF. HE DID NOT WRITE THE TOWN CHARTER.

Mr. Aydlett was seen by our reporter and asked if he was in favor of the sale of near beer in Elizabeth

City. He replied No. That he was as bitterly opposed to the sale of it as anybody. He said it was untrue, that he was in any way trying to evade the law. That he had represent ed some parties charged of selling intoxicating liguors. That they admitted selling near beer but the witnessess introduced by the State said it would not intoxicate. That he introduced no witness and the parties were discharged. That by representing the defendants, he was in no way favoring violating the law or sale of near beer any more than any lawyer defending anyone charged with a crime could be charged with committing that crime. It is the duty of lawyers to defend people charged with crime. He was asked about the ordinance. Mr. Aydlett said he and other lawyers had said that in their opinion under our town charter the ordinance was void. The Solicitor has so advised. He was asked how was it our town charter was different from others. He said that up to the last legislature the ordinance would have been good, but at that time the charter was changed. He said he did not know who changed it. That he had nothing to do with the change and did not know of its change until within the last two weeks. That he has heard the Aldermen favored amended charter and sent its mayor to Raleigh with it and had our representative to introduce and pass it. That he never saw it before it was Mr. Knowles brought with him passed, had nothing to do with the
