UNVEIL TABLET
NEXT SATURDAY

AT NIXONTON IN THIS COUNTY TO MARK THE PLACE OF AS-SEMBLAGE OF FIRST LAW MAK-ING BODY.

On Saturday at 2:30 P. M. June 11th. it is the purpose of the Sir Walter Raleigh Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, which Chapter is composed of a mere handful of patriotic women of this city, to unveil at Nixonton, N. C., with appropriate exercises, a modest tablet to mark the site where the First Albemarle Assembly was held, February 6th, 1665. To this simple ceremony the public is cordially invited, and it appears to be an occasion which should appeal strongly to the native born element of our people. The principal objects of the Society of the Daughters of the Revolution as stated in their constitution are: "To perpetuate the patriotic spirit of the men and women who achieved American Independence, to commemorate prominent events connected with the War of the Revolution, to collect, publish and preserve the rolls, records and historical documents relating to that period; to encourage the study of the country's history, and to promote sentiments of friendship and common interest among the members of the society." In pursuance of these avowed ideals the Daughters of our local chapter have provided and erected this memorial tablet. In itself, a simple stone, lacking ornate adornment or imposing dimensions, the future traveler might not idly pass it by ignorant of its really significant import. However, pausing to regard the meritorious efforts of "Our Daughters" among whom may be numbered our wives and our sweethearts also, it may be remarked, without prejudice, that their efforts are directed in a worthy cause. The 20th Century, so different from the epoch commemorated in this particular instance, will mark to most of us the acme of achievement with its high strung life calls us all for every earnest endeavor to keep pace of its rapid progress. Nevertheless our forebears in their simpler and undoubtedly happier existence in 1665, at the village of Nixonton were none the less giants of their time and with their sturdy integrity and simple mode of existence laid the foundation of success for this present generation. We commend this action on the part of the ladies of this society and understand that they purpose to continue this commemorative work in other fields. Such action must eventually prove an inspiration to our boys and girls and we wish them all success in the complete execution of the object of their organization.

HON. B. G. CRISP

Hon. B. G. Crisp of Manteo, N. C., is a prominent attorney and educator of Dare County. He ranks high in the legal profession, and at the same time, he is a leader in all educational movements to place his county in the front ranks as an educational county. He is also a practical teacher of ability, and during the spring term in addition to his law practice, has most successfully conducted the Wanchese High school, which has just closed in a brilliant education rally with Governor Kitchin to make the address. Mr. Crisp is a scholar of profound learning and is easily classed as one of the best informed men in this section. He is a splendid writer and he has contributed many articles on various subjects to the leading journals. He has won considerable recognition from publishing these articles. He is undoubtedly the most scientifically informed man in North Carolina on fish and their habits; and his contributions on this subject to the various journals devoted to the fishing interest, have been valuable.

MADE GREAT SPEECH

At the Big Educational Rally and Picnic at Wanchese Last Monday, Great Crowd Heard Him With Delight.

Manteo, N. C., June 8th.—Last Monday was a great day for the people of Roanoke Island and Dare County. Governor Kitchin was our guest and his presence among us was a great power for educational progress. His visit and great speeches at Wanchese and Manteo have fired the people with an enthusiasm that can hardly be imagined, much less described.

The occasion of the Governor's coming among us was a big educational rally and picnic last Monday to mark the close of the spring term of the Wanchese High school of which Hon. B. G. Crisp has been the able head during the spring term.

When the plan to have Governor Kitchin to visit this section and to make an address at the closing, the picnic was to be an exclusive event for the people of the Wanchese section, but, when it was learned that Mr. Kitchin could only stay one day, it was decided to make it a public gathering and the entire county was invited to turn out and hear the matchless orator and to help entertain him.

Hon. B. G. Crisp and party of prominent Dare County citizens went to Elizabeth City last Sunday morning on the yacht Gretchen for the purpose of meeting the governor. They brought him to Manteo, arriving here about 7 o'clock p. m. The weather was stormy and the passage was a rough one, but the governor stood the rough seas well, and showed that he is quite a seaman.

Monday morning the governor was taken to the Southend of the island where he was met with carriages and was taken to the church, where the exercises were held.

The Manteo Cornet Band went down and furnished excellent music for the occasion.

In spite of the very inclement weather and the unfavorable conditions, a large crowd had assembled and by the time that the governor arrived the large church edifice was literally packed with an anxious, eager audience determined to hear the distinguished speaker and statesman.

County Superintendent Dr. W. B. Fearing presided over the exercises. The band discoursed some excellent selections and then short addresses were made by Dr. W. B. Fearing, Rev. A. J. Parker, Rev. A. W. Price and Hon. B. G. Crisp. Interspersing these short talks, the student of the Wanchese high school rendered a very interesting program.

The governor was introduced to his interested audience at 1:40 p. m., and for more than an hour he held it spell bound with his matchless flow of oratory. No such a speech has been heard on Roanoke Island in many a day. It was a masterly effort in which the distinguished speaker eclipsed his former efforts at oratory. His audience was charmed and delighted His address created the greatest enthusiasm for educational progress and under the inspiration of the 'magic spell of his great speech education will take yet a long stride forward in Dare County.

At the conclusion of his speech, the weather had moderated so as to make the open air inhabitable. Dinner and a sumptuous one too was spread on long tables prepared for the occasion and the great crowd of visitors was invited to join in the feast, which they did with out a second invitation to the delight of the hospital hosts and to the satisfaction of their inner man. The dinner was an elaborate one consisting of all the good things that the season and country affords, prepared by the splendid house wives of Roanoke Island, who know exactly how to cater to the palates of hungry guests. The dinner would easily have fed two thousand people and had the weather been good, the preparations would not have been amiss, for the people would have been there.

Late in the afternoon, the governor took leave of his hospital hosts and returned to Manteo, where at night, he made an address in the court house before a thronged audience, in the exercises presenting a flag and bible to the Manteo Graded school on the part of the Council of the Jr. O. U. A. M of that town. This speech was a brilliant effort and was greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

At five o'clock Tuesday morning, Governor Kitchin took leave of the historic old island which had so joyously entertained him for a day, boarded the yacht Gretchen and departed for Elizabeth City, enroute to Raleigh, where pressing official duties called him, causing him to forgo lingering by the seaside for a day longer.

SCARED INTO SOUND HEALTH

Mr. B. F. Kelley, Springfield, Ill., writes: "A year ago I began to be troubled with my kidneys and bladder, which grew worse until I became alarmed at my condition. I suffered also with dull heavy headaches and the action of my bladder was annoying and painful. I read of Foley's Kidney Pills and after taking them a few weeks the headache left me, the action of my bladder was again normal, and I was free of all distress.—Brown's Pharmacy.

BEER SALOONS
BOB UP AGAIN

Columbia
Hotel Burned

Hotel Scuppernon of Columbia, N. C., was destroyed by fire at an early hour last Sunday morning.

The fire originated in the kitchen and before it was discovered, the flames had gained such head-way that the building was burned down. The hose from Branning's Mill was brought into use and with the aid of fire fighters the fire was confined to this one building, although, at times the near-by buildings were in great danger.

The Farmers and Merchants Bank of Columbia occupied a part of the first floor and its quarters were also destroyed.

The hotel was a brick structure, located on Main street. It was built by Spruill Brothers many years ago and was used by them for many years as a store building.

A few years ago, it was purchased of the Spruill heirs and was rebuilt, being converted into a hotel.

Dogs Are Going To Be Muzzled

The board of Aldermen woke up to the dangers of the dog nuisance in this city and Monday night passed an ordinance that will abate the dangers that arise from the nuisances.

The City Fathers enacted an ordinance the purpose of which is to compel the owners of all dogs in this city to muzzle them when allowed off the premises. Now, in a few days it will be no uncommon sight to see the dogs travelling around the streets with their head-gear properly adjusted.

This is a sensible ordinance. It ought to have been enacted years ago. The aldermen have done the right thing, and no sentimental pseudo-humanitarian need to get to bawling about cruelty to animals for the wearing of a dog muzzle does not hurt a dog the least bit; and, as soon as he learns that it's the fashion, he will be proud of his muzzle and will be delighted to wear it because all other dogs will be doing the same.

Unmuzzled and unrestrained dogs, in this city have got to be a regular nuisance further more, they endanger life, who can tell when a mangy, worthless cur is going to develop rabies and bite a score of people with fearful results? But with a dog's nose in a proper muzzle he is helpless to bite, and therefore, can do no damage.

It is a wise safe guard to the public, and at the same time, it does not hurt the dog.

By all means let this ordinance be carried out in full effect, with favors to no man or no man's dogs. If a dog is caught on the street without his muzzle properly adjusted, let the ordinance make it compulsory upon the first policeman, who meets that dog, to kill it regardless of who it offends.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will brace up the nerves, banish sick headache, prevent despondency, and invigorate the whole system.

TWO GET LICENSES TO OPEN UP BUSINESS. THE PEOPLE OPPOSE TO NEAR BEER SALOONS

The County Commissioners, held a regular meeting last Monday. Business of a routine nature was transacted.

Messrs. N. G. Grandy and E. F. Lamb were appointed delegates to the Good Road Convention which met at Wrightsville Beach this week.

The finance committee appeared before the board and reported that it had settled with Sheriff Reid for all taxes of the year of 1909.

The taxes for the year 1910 was levied. The per centage levied is the same as that levied last year.

The near beer saloons bobbed up again at this meeting of the board. After having been quiet for some time. Brinson and Blount, two former near beer saloonists, who have operated in this city, applied for County licenses and the same was granted. The territory in which these saloons shall be operated is that proscribed by the city ordinance, which imposes a five hundred dollar tax. The privilege to operate near beer saloons in the county, out side of the city limits was refused by the board.

These near beer saloons are a pest to the city, and for the past two months the people of the town have been congratulating themselves of their easy riddance, now have their dreams rudely awakened. It's to be hoped by the people of the town that the board of Aldermen will yet find some way to circumvent these objectionable saloons and keep them out of business.

WONT TAKE CIRCULARS

The attention of the thoughtful advertisers is called to an article in this issue in which the distribution of hand-bills and circulars is discussed in a very sensible manner.

The writer of the article has observed the situation quite correctly. We, too, have made observation at the Norfolk and Southern depot right here in this city during the past month or two. We have watched the small boy attempt to place in the hands of the passengers who had alighted from the train, circulars and cards. We have seen them, visitors for the most part refuse to take them, and the majority of the few who took them throw them down without ever reading them. Ask that boy who distributes your circulars about this. If he is not afraid to tell you the truth, he will tell you that he has a hard time getting those circulars off on the people.

Newspaper advertising is the only logical way to advertise.
