GATESVILLE WANTS

R. R. CONNECTION

The residents of Gatesville Gates County are making an effort to secure an extension of the Old Suffolk and Carolina from Beckworth Jct. to that town a distance of about nine miles.

The most important citizens of Gatesville and Gates county have asked the Chamber of Commerce of this city to take ahand in the movement to interest the Norfolk and Southern Railroad can be interested in this improvement in the passenger and freight facilities for this town it will mean much to the people of that section of Gates and especially it will mean much to the town of Gatesville whose transportation facilities are exceedingly crude and consequently inconvenient.

Gatesville is a thriving town in the heart of a very prosperous community. Its greatest handicap is transportation facilities as the nearest railroad is nine miles away and this distance has to be made by both passengers and freight in vehicles thereby entailing upon the people a great deal of expense.

While the management of the Oxford Orphanage strive to exercise the most economical and efficient management in the world, we have information that an annual income is now essential for its maintenance even up to its present standard efficiency.

2,000 BOXES OF FISH IN ONE DAY

Big shipments of fresh fish have been received here this week from all parts of the lower sound section.

Mr. Black the agent for the Furberstein Line stated that his company had all of its boats in operation and had chartered a number of vessels to help it take care of the trade.

During the past several days thousands of shad have been shipped in the Northern markets. Fish is selling at a good price too, which makes these catches especially valuable to the fishermen.

Concert Tour Oxford Orphanage Singing Class

The Singing Class of 1911 from the Oxford Orphanage will start on the first or Eastern concert tour on Thursday March 23.

These annual concerts have reached a real high standard of excellence. The children and those who accompany them represent a cause very near to the hearts of the people.

The funds brought to this institution through these tours help much in its maintenance. Today is providing for 330 children and since it was established in 1872, by the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina, more than 2600 girls and boys have come directly under its blessed ministry.

While the management of the Oxford Orphanage strive to exercise the most economical and efficient management in the world, we have information that an annual income is now essential for its maintenance even up to its present standard efficiency.

The Class begins its first tour better equipped than usual and with bright prospects for a most successful tour.

Our people will delight to patronize the concert soon to be given. It is our privilege to continue this and in any other way a cause so worthy.

MASQUERADE PARTY

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Beauty Of Color Painting

Nice shades of color like L. & M. Tuxedo or Silver Grey and solid trim of Olive or Shaker Green both ornament and wear when used by adding 3/4 of a gallon of oil to each gallon of the L. & M. colors as produced at the factory.

Then the paint costs only about $1.60 per because the user himself makes about half the paint used and reduces cost by adding oil.

Thirty five years in use in N. A. & S. A. Our sales agents are: D. M. Jones Company.
