Betterment of Public School Houses

Dear Robesonian-In your last issue was a call for a meeting of the citizens, especially the ladies, to meet at the court house to hear Bladenboro High School, Monday. Mrs. J. A. Brown, the district vice president of the "Association for plant at Juliet recently, and made the Betterment of Public School a handsome sum thereby, is look-Houses," present that cause with ing out for property to make a a view to the organization of a new investment somewhere in country branch association for Florida or South Georgia. building by interesting the patrons and inducing them to paint their houses, furnish pictures for the walls, improve their equipment by putting in maps, gl. bes, black-boards, comfortable desks and such other things as would make the children comfortable and enable the teachers to do the most effi cient work. Another object is to arouse such an interest in the local schools as will induce the patr of and children to improve and beautify the environments of the school house by laying off the grounds planting and cultivating flowers, and such other things as would end to make the school attractive to the pupils and the centre of the ocial life of the neighborhood.

Mrs. Brown made an excellen presentation of her cause, but ow ng to the small attendance it wa hought best to defer organiz m till next Saturday, November 7th. when the teachers' association meet. The objects of the associa tion will then be fully explained

This communication is writter to respectfully urge the attend ance of the Lumberton ladies at hat time. If the spleudid educs ional work that is now going or n Robeson county could be sud ienly brought to the attention o or people they would be struck with amazement. It is because hey know so little of it that the wince so little interest in it, bu he work is going on just the same silently but surely, and a mighty revolution is changing the condions among our rural population hat promises great results for Robeson in the not distant future and it is very much to be desired hat all our people should takpart in the grand achievement.

All the ladies and every citiz f the county is interested, o hould be, but this communication written by a citizen or Lumber on, who is anxious to see the peo ole of Lumberton take an activpart in the furtherance of everause that has for its object the noral, secial or intellectual devel pment of our people.

Therefore, while all the people f the county should attend and vince an active interest in the Sneeting next Saturday, this writer espectfully urges the people, and specially the ladies of Lumberton to do so. The business on hand is women's work and they can de t most effectively if they will.
