KILLED IN COLLISION.

Freight and Work Train Meet Hard, One in a Cut.

Wreck Piles 30 Feet High, Bodies of Victims Mangled Beyond Recognition, Boiler of Engine Explodes.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 19.—Thirty-one men killed, and at least 15 injured, in a head-on collision between a freight train on the Big Four Railroad between Mackinaw and Tremont this afternoon. Bodies of 26 of the victims have been taken from the wreck, which is piled 30 feet high on the tracks. Five bodies yet remain buried under the huge pile of broken timber, twisted and distorted iron and steel.

On a bank at the side of the track lie the bodies of the victims, out, bruised and mangled in a horrible manner. So far 12 only have been identified, the remaining bodies being unrecognizable, every by those who knew them, and are aware of the fact that they are among the dead.

All the dead and most of the injured were members of the work train, the crews on both engines jumping in time to save their lives. The collision occurred in a deep cut at the beginning of a sharp curve, neither train being visible to the crew of the other until they were within 50 feet of each other. The engineers set the brakes, sounded the whistles and then leaped from their cabs, the two trains slipping with such force that the sound was heard for several miles. A second after the collision the boiler of the work train engine exploded, throwing heavy iron bars and splinters of wood 200 feet.

Conductor John W. Judge, of Indianapolis, who had charge of the freight train, received orders at Urbana, to wait at Mackinaw for the work train which was due there at 2:40 p. m. Instead of doing this he failed to stop. The engineer of the work train, Geo. Becker, had also received orders to pass the freight at Mackinaw, and was on the way to that station. The work train was perhaps five minutes late, and was running at full speed.

One of the last bodies recovered was that of William Bailey, of Mackinaw, who had been lifted 30 feet into the air and held in place by two steel rails, which had been pushed up between the engine and the tender of the work train. The dead will lie on the bank all night or until the arrival of the coroner of Tazewell county in the morning. Out of 85 men who constituted the crew of the work train only four are living, and two of those are seriously injured.

INSANE, YOUNG WOMAN.

Daughter of a Baptist Preacher Denied Admission.

Widely insane, a refined young woman, the daughter of a Baptist minister of interstate fame, was Tuesday refused admission into the Central Hospital here, for lack of room, and had to be carried back to her relatives at Fair Bluff, N. C. on the next train.

No more pitiful scene has been witnessed in Raleigh for many months. The young woman was apparently about 27 years old. She is the daughter of the late Rev. Carson Powell, the Baptist missionary who went from Columbus county, this state, to Africa, under the direction of the Southern Baptist convention, and labored zealously in the "dark continent." For the cause of Christ. On the voyage home Rev. Carson Powell became insane and, seizing one of his children, jumped overboard. He and his child were drowned. The daughter of this missionary has now suffered the same affliction worse than death, and was brought here by two of her male relatives for treatment in the Central Hospital.

They arrived early yesterday morning and immediately to the institution where, to their dismay and grief, they were told that she could not be received, as there was no room for another female patient.

No other course remained possible in the matter, so the young lady, firmly held by two men, was placed on the east-bound train to be taken back to Columbus county, where, no provision has been made for her cure or treatment.

A North Carolina Hermit.

The Absher correspondent to North Wilkesboro Hermit says: Merdy Richardson, a hermit, who moved to this section last spring from Horse Creek, Ashe county, is digging a cave or hole in the ground in Career Mountain where he says he is going to stay this winter. He is very feeble minded and wild natured, does not want any one to visit him. He keeps a gun and shoots at all prowlers or 'possum hunters. He owns five acres of land and has placed $5 00 in one of his friends for the purpose of keeping Sheriff Johnson from selling his land for taxes. His taxes seem to be a great burden to him. He says he is "afraid Sheriff Johnson will come around and sell his land when he is not at home." How he lives or what he lives on this writer is not able to say.

Driven Out to Die.

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 19.—While roaming through the woods out beyond Hosanna Park yesterday, some children found a negro man in a sitting posture at the root of a big tree. The man was stiff and cold and the children supposed that he was dead. The coroner, Dr. Thos Hill, was notified and he went out to make an investigation. He found that the negro was not dead, but that he was numb from cold and that he was very ill. From negroes who live in that vicinity it was learned that the negro had been living with some other negroes in the neighborhood. He had been ill for some time and unable to work and the negroes with whom he was living had driven him from their home. This occurred last Monday and the negro after leaving home had wandered into the woods. He was overcome with weakness and sat down beside the tree to rest. He was unable to get up and staid there he was until the children found him yesterday. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital and provided with comforts and medicine.

Grover Cleveland's Game Bag.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 18.—Former President Grover Cleveland, who is now gunning on the preserves of the Back Bay Gun Club, in Princess Anne county, has so far had such poor luck that only enough game has been bagged to send Mrs. Cleveland her usual box preceding the ex-President's home coming. The probabilities are that the Cleveland party will spend two more days gunning at Back Bay and return on Saturday.

It has developed that Mr. Cleveland and the non-resident members of his party have laid themselves liable to arrest and a considerable fine for violating the new game law of Virginia, which requires every non-resident to get out a $10 license before he shoots game in this State. None of the Cleveland party have obeyed the law.

Beauty has little to do with engaging the love of woman.

The manner, tone, the conversation, the something that interests, the something to be proud of—these are the attributes of the man made to be loved.—Balwer.

Papa—Tommy, you mustn't eat so much.

Everybody will be calling you a little 'glutton.' Do you know what that is? Tommy—"I suppose it's a big glutton's little boy."—Pill-Bitter L. Deer.

TERMS OF TREATY.

The United States Guarantees to Maintain Her Independence.

Panama Grants Perpetual Control of Zone Ten Miles Wide Across Isthmus --Modern Sewers and Water Works

Washington, Nov. 19.—From various sources additional information in regard to the terms and provisions of the treaty has been obtained. Under it the United States guarantees and agrees to maintain the independence of Panama. It is understood that this clause was inserted in order to set at rest all questions as to the recognition of Panama as an independent nation by the other governments. Panama grants to the United States the perpetual use and control of a zone of territory ten miles wide across the isthmus of the canal, with the right to acquire by purchase or by the exercise of eminent domain any other lands in Panama, wherever situated, which, in the judgment of the United States, may be necessary for the construction of the canal, the provision of its supply of water and proper sanitation of the cities of Panama and Colon and other territory adjacent to the canal route. Within the zone of territory for the canal and with in the limits of the other lands acquired by the United States will the U S have the same power and authority as if the territory were ceded to the United States, and the Republic of Panama will cease to exercise any power and authority within the zone.

The United States undertakes to construct modern systems of sewers and water works for the city of Panama and the city of Colon, and has the right to collect tolls for the period of 50 years in order to repay the cost of their construction with interest. At the end of the 50 years the sewers and water works become the property of the cities of Panama and Colon. The Republic of Panama undertakes to compel the cities of Panama and Colon to comply with the sanitary ordinances of the United States, and if they fail to do so the United States has the right to enforce its rules and regulations in regard to sanitation.

Panama is to receive $10,000,000 and an annual payment of $250,000, beginning nine years from the date of the treaty.

Panama grants to the United States, in perpetuity, a monopoly of any system of communication across its territory by canal or by railroad.

The ports of Panama and Colon are declared free for all time, and the canals shall be neutral in perpetuity.

The Republic of Panama authorizes the new Panama Canal Company to sell and transfer its rights and concessions to the United States, as well as the Panama Railroad and all, or part, of the shares of that company.

The Republic of Panama agrees if it should be come necessary at any time to employ armed forces to protect the canal or the ships using the same, or the railways and auxiliary works, to provide the necessary forces for such purpose, and that if it cannot effectively handle the situation, the Panama government will allow the United States to employ whatever force may be necessary for that sole purpose, the said force to be withdrawn when the necessity for its presence has ceased; that when the circumstances demand the U S may send forces to the isthmus, with or without the advice or consent of the Panama government; that no change either in the government or laws and treaties of the Republic of Panama shall, without the consent of the U. S. affect in any way the provisions of this treaty.

Warning Unheeded.

Baltimore, Nov. 18.—The south-bound York express on the Western Maryland Railroad narrowly escaped being derailed at Mount Hope station this morning by striking a wagon containing two fruit vendors. The owner of the wagon John Manfuso, was instantly killed and his companion, Dominic, Sear, was seriously, perhaps fatally, injured.

Rare Coolness Saved Him.

Asheville, Nov. 10.—A gentleman, whose name could not be learned, came near being crushed to death beneath the wheels of one of the Asheville street cars this morning on Patton avenue, and nearly opposite the Hotel Berkeley. The car was coming toward the square at a moderate rate of speed, and when close to the Lexington avenue crossing a man started to cross the track only a few feet in front of it. As the man stepped between the rails, his feet slipped from under him, and he fell upon his back. In falling, he retained his presence of mind, for, just as the car reached him, he grasped the bumpers on the front, and swung to these until the car could be brought to a standstill. The car ran some ten or fifteen feet, dragging the man in front of it. It was a close call, for had the man fallen across the rails instead of between them, nothing could have saved him from almost instant death.

Made Fatal Mistake.

Wilmington, Nov. 10.—Owen Hansley, a young farmer living near Castle Haynes, this county, was crushed to death under train No. 42 of the Atlantic Coast Line, as it was passing out of the yards in this city to-night. Hansley was late in reaching the station on his return home and came down an embankment, and ran in front of the train as it was leaving the station. He attempted to board one of the cars but in doing so he had miscalculated the speed of the train, and was thrown under the wheels. The remains were taken to an undertaker's shop, and are being prepared for shipment to his home to-morrow morning.

Raining Shells.

San Domingo, Republic of San Domingo, Wednesday, Nov. 18.—Yesterday at noon another severe attack was made on the city without effect. The rebels had many killed and wounded, but the government losses were small. The firing continued during the night, the insurgents using heavy cannon. The situation here is desperate. The poor are suffering for necessities and prices of provision are rising. The sanitary condition of the city, however, is good.

Man-made Bars.

People are led to look wistfully up to heaven, whereas they ought to be engaging their attention with something near home. It is not out pouring that is wanted, but insisting. The prayer for the Spirit which is needed is not the beseeching of heaven to open its fast shut windows. The windows of heaven are not shut. They are wide open. In two many cases it is our hearts that are shut. Ah, these gates, that shut the Spirit out—gates of brass, doors whose hinges are rusted with selfish habit that they seem forever closed! "Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the king of glory shall come in."—J. Monrose Gibson.

An Editor's son Shoots Himself.

Charlotte, N. C. Nov. 18.—Joseph Caldwell, aged twenty, son of the editor of the Charlotte Observer, shot himself through the heart late this afternoon. The tragedy occurred at the Caldwell home. The young man spent the afternoon up town and had laughed and chatted good naturedly with friends less than two hours before his death. The deed was committed about 6:30 with a .38 caliber pistol. No specific cause is known for the act.

It is learned that young Caldwell told several friends with whom he talked this afternoon that he was going to kill himself and would never see them again, but these friends pass the remark as a joke. He was injured several days ago in a machine shop accident, but these injuries were supposed to have healed. The youth was popular among a large circle

$6,500 Fire at Wilmington.

Special to The Evening Chronicle, Wilmington, Nov. 19.—Fire of an unknown origin, which started early this morning in the naval store yards of D. McEachern, on the west side of the river, opposite the city, destroyed 8,000 barrels of rosin belonging to McEachern, and 1,500 crates belonging to the B. F. Keith Company. The total damage is about $6,500, pretty well covered by insurance.
