

Short Sketches of the Lives of President and Vice President.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Theodore Roosevelt, President, was born in New York city on October 27, 1858; entered Harvard College in 1876 and graduated in 1880; took up the study of law, but in 1881 was elected to the New York Legislature, and was twice re-elected; in his second term in the Legislature was the candidate of his party for Speaker, the majority of assembly, however, being Democratic; during his third term served as chairman of the committee on cities and of the special committee which investigated abuses in the government of New York city; was a delegate to the State convention in 1884 to choose delegates to the Republican national convention, and was selected as one of the four delegates-at-large from New York to the national convention; later in the same year he went to North Dakota and spent most of his time there for several years on a ranch, engaged in raising cattle; in 1886 was the Republican nominee for mayor of New York city; was appointed a member of the United States civil service commission in May, 1889, by President Harrison; resigned this position in 1895 in order to accept the presidency of the police commission of New York city, under Mayor Strong; in April, 1897, was appointed by President McKinley as Assistant Secretary of the Navy. Upon the outbreak of the war with Spain in 1898 resigned this post and became lieutenant colonel of the First United States Volunteer Cavalry, was promoted to the colonelcy of the regiment; was in the fights at Las Guasimas and San Juan; was mustered out with his regiment at Montauk, Long Island, in September, 1898; was nominated shortly afterwards as the Republican candidate for Governor of New York, and elected in November, 1898; was unanimously nominated for Vice President of the United States by the Republican national convention of 1900, and elected; succeeded to the presidency upon the death of President McKinley, September 14, 1901.

VICE PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS.

Charles Warren Fairbanks, of Indianapolis, was born on a farm near Unionville Center, Union county, Ohio, May 11, 1852; was educated in the common schools of the neighborhood and at the Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, graduating from that institution in 1872 in the classical course; was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court of Ohio in 1874; removed to Indianapolis in the same year, where he has since practiced his profession; never held public office prior to his elections to the Senate; was elected a trustee of the Ohio Wesleyan University in 1885; was unanimously chosen as the nominee of the Republican caucus for United States Senator in the Indiana Legislature in January, and subsequently received his entire party vote in the Legislature, but was defeated by David Turpie, Democrat; was a delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention at St. Louis in 1896, and was temporary chairman of the convention; was a delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention at Philadelphia in 1900, and as chairman of the committee on resolutions reported the platform; was appointed a member of the United States and British joint high commission which met in Quebec in 1898 for the adjustment of Canadian questions and was chairman of the United States high commissioners; was elected to the United States Senate January 20, 1897, to succeed Daniel W. Voorhees, Democrat, and took his seat March 4, 1897; was re-elected in 1903.—The Congressional Directory.

Commerce Commission Decision in Southern Lumber Cases.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission, in opinions by Commissioner Clements, has announced its decisions in the cases of H. H. Tift and others, members of the Georgia Saw Mill Association, against the Southern Railway Company and others, and the case of the Central Yellow Pine Association against the Illinois Central Railroad Company and others.

These cases involve the question of the unreasonableness and injustice of an advance of 2 cents per hundred pounds on lumber from Southern points to Ohio River destinations.

In the Tift case the commission holds that the advance in rates complained of is not warranted, and that the resulting increased rates are unreasonable and unjust. The advance complained of is held to have been the result of concerted action by defendants and other carriers.

In the Central Yellow Pine case, substantially the same preliminary rulings are made as in the first case.—Washington Post.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can hardly and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 230 So Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co. and Dr. R. G. Rozier.

In a little while the country will get used to having a Vice President again.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm for Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co. and Dr. R. G. Rozier.

The casualty columns still bear evidence that some railroads think laborers are cheaper than safety devices.

I suffered for many years with nervous and sick headache. Tried many medicines and several doctors. Nothing cured me until I got Lee's Headache and Neuralgia Remedy. It is simply worth its weight in gold.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be born in mind however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it my practist for the past six years. I used it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co. and Dr. R. G. Rozier.

Young People and the Church

We are constantly debating and hearing it debated: How will the Church get hold of the young people? You cannot answer that question unless you have a philosophy of the matter. And it seems to me that the inevitable philosophy of the matter is this: There are only a certain number of things that impress young persons, only a certain number that impress old ones, or, for that matter, that impress anybody. The things that impress the young persons and the old are convictions and earnestness in action that look like business, and a certain dignity and simplicity that go along with being in earnest. When we say, therefore, that the way to get young people to the church is to make the church interesting, I am afraid we too often mean that the way to do so is to make it entertaining. If you mean to draw young people by entertainment, you have only one excuse for it, and that is to follow up the entertainment with something that is entertaining, but which grips the heart like the touch of a hand. I dare say that there is some excuse for aiding persons to a place where good will be done them, but I think it would be a good deal franker not to allure them. I think it would be a great deal better simply to let them understand that that is the place where life is dispensed, and that if they want life they must come to that place—President Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton University, in The Sunday School Times.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Disease, by All Druggist, at 50c a bottle.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye. Good for burns and cloets too. Only 25c at All Drug stores.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. If prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and Biliousness." 25c at All Druggist.

It is now explained that Gen. Pennypacker rode a scare-proof horse in the parade. Still it was equipped with blinders, so it could not see its rider.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co. and Dr. R. G. Rozier.

At Everything Slight.

Dr. King's Chill and Fever Tonic is, without a doubt, the best medicine I have ever found for chills. All my family were in poor health last summer, and after several other chills tonics had failed, tried Dr. King's, and in a very few days we were all better, eating everything in sight. N. S. McCORKLE. Sold by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co.

By the Tonic Route.

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co.

Every Two Minutes

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers. Poor health follows poor blood; Scott's Emulsion makes the blood pure. One reason why is such a great aid is because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach; quicker and more direct benefits. To get the greatest amount of good with the least possible effort is the desire of everyone in poor health. Scott's Emulsion does just that. A change for the better takes place even before you expect it.
